Nixon Set To Order Another Troop Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)— President Richard M. Nixon will announce the next stage of American troop withdrawals from Vietnam tomorrow morning, the the White House said today.

Asked about a statement by South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky that 40,500 more American GIs would be pulled out by the end of November, White House press secretary Ronald Ziegler said "actual figures" would come from the President.

He said Nixon would make public the "actual figures" in a written statement at about 9:30 a.m. (EDT) tomorrow.

FIRST ACTION

The first withdrawal, involving 25,000 men, was completed by the end of August. Nixon had indicated he would announce the second phase of U.S. troop replacement by Aug. 31.

But on Aug. 24, the President announced he was delaying a decision and called for more reports on intensified communist attacks which occurred in mid-August following a long summer lull on the battlefield.

PRIOR TO FRIDAY

Ziegler revealed that Nixon decided on the second phase of the withdrawal prior to Friday's big strategy session at the White House with top diplomatic, military and intelligence advisers.

Ziegler said that decision included actual figures.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he assumed Ky's report was true but added, "it seems odd that Ky would make such an announcement."

Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-14th District, said, "I welcome the news," but added: "I am concerned that this nation's policy is being announced by South Vietnam."

Following the Friday conference Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, U.S. combat commander, returned immediately to Saigon and within two hours after his arrival, he reported personally to President Nguyen Van Thieu.

LEES ADVISERS

Thieu met with his security advisers today between another meeting with Abrams. After the security council meeting, Ky told of the planned 40,500-man pullout.

Last May 14, Nixon enunciated three principles on which he would base pulling out American forces:

Capability of South Vietnamese troops to take over more of the fighting.

Nixon sad ameeting set for mid-afternoon today with members of a special task force on space goals which was expected to recommend that any plans for a Mars landing be put off at least until the 1980s.

Hanoi Builds Up Troops In Delta

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops in the Mekong Delta doubled in number—to between 2,000 and 3,000—as U.S. forces moved out of the area to comply with President Richard M. Nixon's withdrawal order, U.S. military spokesmen said today.

One North Vietnamese regiment of 1,000 to 1,500 men moved into the delta in April, while a second regiment slipped into the area during the summer months as two brigades of the U.S. Ninth Infantry Division were pulling out to go home. These were the only American Army forces in the delta other than advisers to South Vietnamese units.

"The infiltration into the delta of these units may not have been just to provide a threat once we withdrew," said one military spokesman. "It's a shaky business. It's hard for the North Vietnamese to operate in the delta. It's a move you wouldn't think they'd want to make if there were not pressure on them.

"They are probably there to shore up the Viet Cong or provide some stability and motivation for the Viet Cong local forces who have taken a bad beating and are having difficulty in local recruiting."

The spokesman said there had been no large-scale attacks by the two regiments in several weeks.

The units are the 273rd Regiment of the Viet Cong Ninth Division and the 18B Regiment of the North Vietnamese 1st Division. Both had been operating along the Cambodian border, in Tay Ninh province northwest of Saigon.

The 273rd Regiment is said to be operating in Kien Giang Province along the Gulf of Siam

Pittsburgh Jobs March By Negroes

PITTSBURGH (AP) —Hundreds of demonstrators strung over 10 city blocks marched from the Negro Hill District into the downtown today-a day they called "Black Monday"-to press demands for more Negro jobs in the construction industry.

The marchers, estimated by police at over 3,000, filed four abreast through the city's streets, clapping their hands and chanting: "Freedom, Freedom, Freedom."

The marchers walked around the U.S. Steel building, clapping their hands and chanting, then marched back to the Hill District where the crowd disbanded.

March leaders said they would stage similar demonstrations.

"We will have a black Monday next Monday and the Monday after that, and a black Monday and a black Tuesday if necessary, and we will shut down the entire city until these injustices are ended," said Michael Dismond, one of the march leaders and member of the Black Construction Coalition, which organized the march.

In an impromptu news conference, Dismond said, "We feel

Bagley, Z'berg Urge State To Provide Seashore Fund

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

SAN FRANCISCO — A $10 million state appropriation to help the federal government complete purchase of Point Reyes National Seashore was proposed today by two assemblymen.

The $10 million would buy surplus federal land along the Southern California coast, which then would be exchanged with the federal government for seashore land under the proposal made today by William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento.

The state appropriation could not be sought until the Legislature reconvenes in January, and would need the approval of Gov. Ronald Reagan to get the money in time to save the seashore, Z'berg said at a press conference in the State Building.

Under state law, all appropriations must await passage of the state budget, which comes in late June or early July, unless the governor issues a letter authorizing the advance appropriation.

Two wait until after passage of the budget would mean "critical lands would be sold by then," Z'berg said.

He said he had not yet discussed the appropriation with the governor's office.

The appropriation, he said, would be consistent with the state's earlier gift of 11,000 acres of state tidelands to the federal government as part of the seashore.

Z'berg said the proposal was designed to spur congressional action on a bill to authorize an additional $38,265,0 00 to complete acquisition of the seashore. Congress appropriated $14 million to acquire the 53,850-acre seashore in 1962, and four years later hiked the amount to $19,136,000. Only 22,-540 acres have so far been bought.

Z'berg said that the proposal linked Southern California and Northern California seashore property to avoid the traditional split between Southern and Northern California politicians.

He explained the $10 million figure would plug a gap between the $57.5 million needed to complete the purchase and the $47 million asked by the National Park Service.

Park Service officials proposed the lower figure on the ground that $10 million could be saved by leasing some of the seashore for private development. Z'berg said the lease proposal should be considered only after the entire park was purchased.

Z'berg and Bagley, in a letter to California congressmen released at the press conference, said, "We have been stimulated to take this action by this year's history of delay, procrastination and lack of distinct policy on the part of the national administration, in stating its intentions with respect to Point Reyes. In addition, we are convinced that the private development of Point Reyes lands is bound to accelerate if public purchase of these lands does not occur soon."

They discounted a decision last week by Bureau of the Budget Director Robert Mayo to withdraw administration opposition to the Point Reyes authorization bill. Mayo's action was termed, "hardly encouraging," by Bagley and Z'berg.

"According to Budget Director Mayo, the White House's position, without a dollar figure, is merely to stay neutral and do nothing to actually finance any Point Reyes acquistion program," their letter said. "This is faint support, if it is such at all."

Their letter also noted that more than three million people live within a 2-hour drive of the seashore, a figure that will jump to more than six million by 1980. The population increase from 1960 to 1975 for the nine Bay Area counties alone will be equivalent to three additional San Franciscos, they said.

Z'berg stressed that the National Park Service's request for only $47 million made it

Israeli Planes Hit Suez Again

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli planes attacked Egypt's Gulf of Suez coast for the fifth time in six days yesterday, keeping up a campaign to force the Egyptians to shift forces from the Suez Canal front.

An Israeli military spokesman said the air force bombed and strafed positions at Ras Za'farana, 55 miles south of the southern end of the canal, and Ras Gharib, an oil center 120 miles farther south. He said all the planes returned safely.

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency said Egyptian antiaircraft gunners forced the Israeli planes "to flee eastwards after they attempted to raid coast guard posts in these areas."

The Cairo statement also said there was an eight-hour artillery duel Sunday near Port Taufiq, at the southern end of the canal. It gave no further details.

Ras Za'farana, the target of heavy Israeli raids for the past week, is 100 miles southeast of Cairo. When Israeli troops landed on the Gulf of Suez coast for their unopposed armored sweep last Tuesday, they began by hammering radar installations and army camps at Ras Za'farana.

Informants ni Tel Aviv said the air attacks are continuing to keep Egypt from rebuilding these installations.

U.S. Tanker Conquers The Northwest Passage

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly five centuries after sailors began the search for a Northwest Passage above Canada, the SS Manhattan has become the first commercial vessel to negotiate the icy waters.

But the historic voyage of the massive tanker, specially fitted with icebreaking equipment, hasn't proved that the treacherous northern route is feasible for shipping.

The 1,005-foot, 115,000-deadweight-ton ship smashed through heavy ice north of the Arctic Circle yesterday to hit open water at the mouth of Prince of Wales Strait.

"There's nothing in her way now," said a spokesman for Humble Oil Co., the ship's owner. Her final destination, Point Barrow, Alaska, is a week away.

As far back as 1498, when John Cabot explored the eastern end of the route, Europeans sought the Northwest Passage as a shortcut to the riches and spices of the Far East. The great trading companies sponsored several attempts to find the route.

Now the treasure isn't spices, but oil, the vast supply on Alaska's northern slope. A Northwest Passage open to huge tankers would cut thousands of miles and dollar from the trip around South America.

But Wednesday, as the Manhattan jousted with ice flows near Banks Island, a Humble Oil official said no decision on

Biggest Construction Cut Suggested For Highways

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Cutbacks in state construction projects were proposed by Gov. Ronand Reagan today by his inflation fighting task force.

Gordon C. Luce, secretary of business and transportation and chief of the task force, indicated the biggest cuts would come in the huge highway construction program and the smallest in the $2.75 billion State Water Project.

He declined to give dollar amounts of the cuts or reveal any details until he reported personally to the governor.

The task force was formed by Reagan after he decided to go along with President Richard M. Nixon's request that state governments follow Washington's example of cutting construction projects by 75 per cent to fight inflation.

Luce said cuts in the water project will be "less drastic than in any other area."

The project is designed to carry water from Northern California to Southern California. Construction of water facilities has already been slowed by strikes and is threatened by the state's failure to sell construction bonds in the tight money market.

And estimates of its eventual total cost have risen $500 million in the last three years.

Luce declined to answer directly when asked what areas would be hardest hit. But he said the highway program would require more public

Thant Asks Disarm Spots For Red China And France

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant today called for serious efforts to bring Red China and France into disarmament talks with the other nuclear powers.

He deplored what he called the lack of progress in disarmament negotiations during the past year and the continued differences between Peking and the two big super-powers.

Thant told a news conference that the association of the five world nuclear powers in direct disarmament negotiations is "an indispensible step to fashion a world free from fear."

He expressed hope that rela-

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

35 Ferry Victims

DACCA, East Pakistan, (AP) — Officials fear that 35 persons were drowned in the sinking of a ferry in the Rupsa River at Khulna Saturday.

The boat hit the anchor of a barge as it was crossing the river and capsized. The current was very strong, and so far searchers have found neither bodies nor the wreckage of the boat.

Fifteen persons swam ashore. One survivor said about 50 persons were aboard the boat, including two handcuffed convicts.

Kennedy Backed

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's performance in office continues to receive strong approval from Massachusetts residents interviewed by a newspaper poll.

Kennedy's support, however, has slipped from 87 per cent last March to 78 per cent in the Boston Globe's latest figures, released today.

According to data compiled by Becker Research Corp., the dominant theme among those expressing disapproval of Kennedy's performance was his auto accident on Chappaquiddick Island that claimed the life of a 28-year-old secretary and Kennedy's conduct immediately afterward.

Ho Memorial Riot

BANGKOK (AP) — Thai police broke up a rock-throwing battle between more than 1,000 Thais and North Vietnamese refugees today at memorial services for the late North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh in the northeast Thai town of Nongkhai.

The demonstration started when Thais objected to Ho's portrait being displayed at two Buddhist temples where the services had been held since Friday.

Thai townspeople, singing patriotic songs and shouting that their troops were fighting North Vietnamese in Vietnam, attempted to tear the portraits down.

257 Flood Deaths

SEOUL (AP) — The worst floods in Korea since 1959 left 257 persons dead, 81 missing, 90 injured amd more than 60,000 homeless in the southern coastal areas, national police reported today.

Nine to 14 inches of rains pelting the coastal areas since Sunday afternoon caused the floods, the worst since Typhoon Sarah hit the area in September 1959, police officials said.

Censorship Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Communications Commissioner Nicholas Johnson says television networks censor programs, including news broadcasts, to favor big business.

Johnson said yesterday he was "concerned by censorship being done by networks in behalf of big business interests to keep from the people information they need."

Johnson spoke on CBS'S "Face the Nation."

Oil Lease Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will lose about $300 million in expected oil leasing revenues this year because of a six-month shutdown in offshore leasing near Santa Barbara and competition from state-owned oil leasing land in Alaska.

The Department of Interior says revenues from oil leases on federal lands will be $295 million during the current fiscal year, rather than the $595 million forecast some time ago.

Korean Deaths

SEOUL (AP) — South Korean troops killed three armed North Korean agents and captured a fourth on the eastern front yesterday afternoon, the counter-infiltration command announced today.

A South Korean soldier was also killed and four others were wounded in the gun battle, the announcement said.

Equal Rights

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — The women of the Swiss Canton of Zurich have been given equal political rights in local affairs in a country where male supremacy has long prevailed.

Almost 60 per cent of the all-male electorate went to the polls Sunday to accept the proposal to grant their women the vote in local elections and the right to hold local offices. The vote was 92,402 to 67,192

The proposal was defeated three years ago.

Airport Opens

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria today inaugurated a new international airport, calling it "the biggest and most modern" in the Middle East.

The field is designed and equipped to receive supersonic airliners, jumbo jets, and two million passengers per year.

Patterened after Orly Field in Paris, the $40-million airport was built in 51 months by Batignolles, a consortium of the same French companies which built the Paris airport. It was France's biggest contract in Syria since World War II.

Fighting Denied

TEHRAN (AP) — Iran's Foreign Ministry said yesterday a report by the Iraqi government about border fighting between the two countries was a "100 per cent lie."

Baghdad Radio said Saturday that Iraqi troops killed 30 Iranians captured 14 who were trying to slip across the northern border to join the rebel Kurdish forces led by Mustafa Barzani. The broadcast did not say when the battle took place.

The Kurds are a tribe in northern Iraq who have been fighting the government for years over territory and self-government.

Life Says Thurmond Made Money In Deal

NEW YORK (AP) — When Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., and his partner sold land condemned for a South Carolina highway last year, they received more than twice the price of other landowners along the route, Life magazine says.

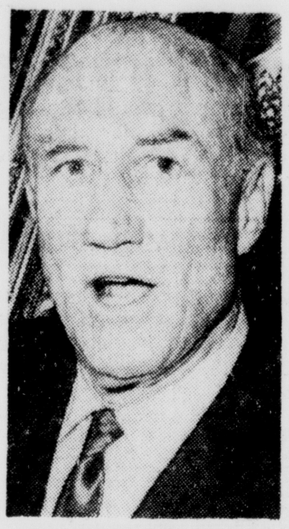
In its current issue, Life said Thurmond and his former law associate, now a federal judge, received $492 an acre for 66 acres, while others got an average of $200 an acre.

Thurmond issued a statement in Washington last night, terming the article "just another in a series of attempted liberal smears."

He said, "The entire transaction is a matter of public record, as I knew it would be from the beginning."

Life said it interviewed Thurmond, who said he thought the land was worth more than $750 an acre, but that he and his partner, U.S. District Judge Charles E. Simons Jr., accepted less to avoid going to court "because of the positions we held with the public."

The magazine said the 66 acres was part of a 3,000-acre tract of scrub timber land that Thurmond and Simons bought in 1953 for about $14.53 an acre.



SEN. STROM THURMOND
Says it's a smear

Simons said yesterday, in Aiken, S.C., "We received no more than a fair price for the land—there is no question about that. I don't know what the other landowners got."

Thurmond, in his statement added, "I did not and will not surrender my right as a citizen to own property and to ask for a jury decision on its true value if the government condemns it."

Officials in the South Carolina Highway Department declined comment. Chief Highway Commissioner S. N. Pearman was out of town.

Senate Defense Critics After Bomber Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon critics hope to shoot down plans for a multibillion dollar Air Force bomber as the Senate enters what leaders say may be the last week of debate on the $20 billion military procurement bill.

An amendment cutting back funds for the Advanced Manned from $100 million to $20 million has been introduced by Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D. Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield says he hopes to bring it up for a vote tomorrow.

Noting the defeat of other amendments seeking major cutbacks in the bill, Mansfield said the odds are against McGovern's proposal. He said critics of Pentagon spending hit a high point with the 50-50 vote on the Safeguard ABM system and "we haven't been able to get within striking distance since." That amendment died because it lacked a majority of votes.

Army Using BB Guns In Quick Kill

FORT ORD (AP) — The Army is using BB guns to teach recruits to shoot the way the movie cowboys do—without taking time to aim.

The soldier starts the exercise in a relaxed position with his arms slack and the BB rifle at his waist. A buddy spins a disc in the air about six feet down range, the recruit raises the gun to his shoulder and shoots without aiming.

In Man versus Man, recruits split into four-man squads wearing heavy field jackets, gloves and masks to protect themselves from close-range BB fire.

Attackers hide in bushes, bunkers and holes ahead of "Target" groups. The ambushers fire at will and a hit soldier drops to his knee to signal he is out.

The 92,099-square-mile nation of Ghana, roughly the size of Oregon, occupies a strategic position on the southern side of the great bulge of West Africa. Nearly one out of every four Africans lives in the region.

Brig Brutality Is Charged Again

Donald Jelinek, the lawyer, told newsmen yesterday he will ask U.S. District Court Judge William T. Sweigert to "hold specific guards in contempt of last Monday's order preventing them from 'assaulting plaintiffs and others in the brig. . .or intimidating them with threats of violence.'"

Judge Sweigert ordered a hearing today for the Navy to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued.

He had issued a temporary restraining order on the basis of 15 affadavits filed by men who are in or had been in the brig. Each of the men claimed at least one beating by Marine Corps guards.

Jelinek said he took additional statements from 30 former and present prisoners on Saturday.

Four of them detailed beating since the court order, he said.

Jelinek said one witness said he saw "a 260-pound guard beat a 115-pound prisoner. . . .only one and one-half hours after the court order was served on the brig."

Government and Navy officials refused to comment on the charges pending the hearing.

Heart, Kidneys Transplanted By Stanford Teams

STANFORD (UPI) — The heart and kidneys of an anonymous suicide victim were used in three transplants yesterday at Stanford University Hospital.

The hospital declined to disclose the method of suicide used by the victim, whose family made the donations.

A retired airline pilot, Herman Joslyn, 64, Seattle, Wash., was the heart recipient. It was the eighth heart transplant by a surgical team led by Dr. Norman E. Shumway.

Joslyn had suffered from heart disease for the past year. He was referred to Stanford in August and his condition was deteriorating Saturday when the suicide victim was found.

The kidney transplants were performed by a separate team of surgeons. the recipients were to Californians, Robert Green, 22, San Jose, and James Santos, 49, Mountain View.

Military Man To Succeed Ailing Brazilian Leader

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazil's military chiefs are expected to name a replacement shortly for President Arthur da Costa e Silva. The junta set the stage for such action with an announcement yesterday that his stroke last month left him partially paralyzed with a speech deficiency.

Men being mentioned as presidential possibilities include Gen. Emilio Garrastazu Medici, an army commander in southern Brazil; Gen. Antonio Carlos Muricy, the army chief of staff; Gen. Orlando Geisel, head of the armed forces general staff, and Gen. Alfonso Augusto de Albuquerque Lima, former minister of the interior.

When the military junta took over after Costa e Silva's stroke, it said it would govern "only for the duration of the incapacity of the president." The generals bypassed the constitutional successor, civilian Vice President Pedro Aleixo.

The medical bulletin released Sunday was the first official report of the effects of the stroke. It said Costa e Silva had a "deficiency of mobility on the right side of the body and of speech." It added that he was in satisfactory condition but needed complete rest.

Mansfield Clears CIA In Viet Death

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield says the Central Intelligence Agency played no part in the slaying of a suspected South Vietnamese double agent.

Eight members of the Army's Special Forces, the Green Berets, are being held in the slaying. The Army has not yet announced whether the men will be prosecuted.

"From what I know about it, the CIA is in the clear," Mansfield said in a weekend interview.

Mansfield said he does not know enough about the case to say whether Green Berets—one of them a former commander of Special Service Forces in Vietnam—should face prosecution.

"This situation has received so much publicity and so many conflicting opinions that it will have to be cleared up" the Montana senator said.

"I'm sure it will be, by the appropriate committees and at the appropriate time," he added.

In the Senate, that would include the Armed Services Committee and two subcommittees of the Appropriations and Armed Services Committees which meet secretly to oversee CIA operations.

The case emerged after the Green Berets were arrested and confined.

Office Raided After Park Forces Win

SEOUL (AP) — Two groups of angry opposition lawmakers raided the office and residence of National Assembly Speaker Rhee Hyo-sang today, protesting passage of the controversial presidential succession amendment.

Another small group destroyed a portrait of Rhee in the drawing room of his official residence.

Rhee was in a hospital being treated for exhaustion following passage of the constitutional amendment allowing South Korean President Chung Hee Park to seek a third term.

The New Democrats, who have 44 seats in the 171-member assembly, decided to file court complaints charging Rhee and two assembly secretariat officials with "neglecting official duties and obstructing official duties of opposition lawmakers."

In Tokyo, 45 South Korean residents of Japan scaled a six-foot wall and broke into the South Korean Embassy, which was closed because of a Japanese holiday. They claimed they wanted to deliver a protest note on the constitutional amendment bill. Only a few embassy personnel were present and they summoned police who arrested all 45 protesters, among them 11 women.

Evans Skipper Pleads Innocent To Charges

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (AP) — Lt. Cmdr. Albert S. McLemore, skipper of the U.S. destroyer Frank E. Evans, insisted on being awakened if his ship was ordered to make a change of station, witnesses at his court-martial testified today.

McLemore, 40, of San Pedro, was asleep in his cabin June 3 when the Evans was cut in half by the Australian carrier Melbourne in a collision that killed 74 American sailors. The destroyer was changing station from a position ahead of the carrier to a position astern.

McLemore pleaded innocent to charges of negligence and dereliction of duty at the opening of the court-martial today. The charges say McLemore failed to give specific night orders that he be awakened and that he therefore allowed the Evans to maneuver without his supervision in difficult night operations.

Two witnesses — Lt. (j.g.) Jeffrey W. Covert of Glenview, Ill., and Lt. (j.g.) Ronald T. E. Bowler of Annapolis, Md.—testified that McLemore was very strict about being awakened major maneuvers at night.

Other witnesses, who included Lt. (j.g.) James A. Hopson of Kansas City, Kan., the junior officer of the watch the night of the collision, said they knew of no occasion that McLemore had not been on the bridge when he knew thes hip would have to change stations.

The strategy of the defense counsel, Cmdr. Robinson Lappin of the U.S. Naval Justice School in Newport, R.I., appeared to be to put the blame for the collision on Hopson and on Lt. (j.g.) Ronald C. Ramsey of Long Beach, the officer of the deck when the collision occurred. Both got off with letters of reprimand and Ramsey also was put back into the seniority listing, making it unlikely that he will ever get a command.

In his opening statement, Lappin said Hopson and Ramsey "were fully aware of their duty to awaken their commander and they failed to carry out their duty."

Ex-Envoy Beating Sleeping 'Bug'

GENEVA (AP) — Former U.S. Ambassador William True Davis is steadily recovering from sleeping sickness and should be able to leave hospital in two weeks, a spokesman for Geneva's state hospital said today.

Davis, 50, of St. Joseph, Mo., came down with sleeping sickness in Switzerland Sept. 5 after a family safari in Africa. His wife died of the disease Sept. 6 in hospital at Kampala, Uganda.

A hospital spokesman said the main "bug" has been cleared from Davis' system, and treatment is now mainly preventive.

Panmunjom Talks May Be On Copter Crew

SEOUL (AP) — U.S. and North Korean officers talked privately for nearly two hours at Panmunjom today, presumably over conditions for the release of three Americans held prisoner since their helicopter was shot down Aug. 17 over North Korea.

It was the second private talk reported held.

The U.S. State Department had no comment after the first meeting on when or whether the North Koreans might release the prisoners.

The three crewmen are Capt. David H. Crawford of Pooler, Ga.; WO Malcolm V. Loepke of Richmond, Ind., the pilot; and Spec. 4 Herman E. Hofstatter of Lowpoint, Ill.

North Korea has told Military Armistice Commission meetings that Crawford and Hofstatter were seriously injured and Loepke suffered slight injuries.

After the Sept. 8 meeting, State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey said, "There is reason" to believe the health of the three crewmen "has improved."

In Seoul, it was speculated that the United States might have handed over to the North Koreans a letter of apology during the meeting Sept. 8 in order to win the release of the prisoners.

During the last armistice commission meeting Sept. 4, North Korea demanded the United States admit "a criminal military mission" by the helicopter, apologize and insure that there will be no recurrence of such a "hostile act."

Candidate Drought Continues

With deadline for filing for 53 positions in 25 sanitary, fire, water, and other community services districts at 5 p.m. today, only 32 candidates had filed by noon, said Peter C. Meyer, county election officer.

There must be one more candidate than there are openings and in districts where there are not enough candidates, the county board of supervisors will appoint board members.

The Bolinas Public Utilities District, with two openings and four candidates, is the only district which can hold an election. Charles G. Hadley was the latest to file for one of the posts.

the route's commercial possibilities would be made until the early 1970's.

Stanley B. Hass, Humble's project manager, told newsmen aboard that mountains of data gathered on the voyage would be fed to computers later this month. The number of times the ship became stuck in ice and the ice pressure it encountered would be two key factors, Hass said.

Another problem, ship officers said, was that the Manhattan couldn't generate full power in reverse. Thus, it needed open water astern to back up and take a running start at huge ice blocks.

But Hass pointed out that the Manhattan was picked "as the best ship we could find in the short time span given us to gather the data we needed." He said the Manhattan "is not anywhere near the new ships we would design to sail these seas."

The Manhattan became stuck only once, on Sept. 9 off Melville Island. She was freed by her escort, the Canadian icebreaker John A. MacDonald.

Since then, the Manhattan has plowed through ice ridges twice as thick as the usual 4-to-12 foot ice commonly encountered. At one point, she ripped through a 15-foot-thick ridge almost from a dead start.

The Manhattan was unsuccessful in trying to sail the McClure Strait, north of Banks Island. Instead, she turned to a more southerly and longer route through the Prince of Wales Strait.

MARCH

this morning's demonstration will illustrate to the people of Pittsburgh the total feeling of the black community to the injustices that have been caused by the trade unions," Dismond said.

He added that the orderly and peaceful march would "have a major part in the negotiations" to get more Negroes jobs in the construction industry.

While the marchers filed through the downtown, negotiators trying to settle the dispute made preparations for a meeting later in the day.

The demonstrators met at what they dubbed "Freedom Corner," a main intersection in the Hill District, walked past the Civic Arena and went on to Pittsburgh's city hall-the City-County Building.

He was freed on $1,650 bail following booking at Los Angeles City Jail. A Marin County court date was not set.

Closed Board Talks Tonight On Schneider

The Sausalito School District board will meet in closed session at 7 p.m. today at the district offices to discuss Phillip W. Schneider's job as superintendent of the district.

Board members James E. Muldoon and C. Gerald Clear have questioned whether Schneider withheld information about the past activities of Sidney F. Walton Jr. when Schneider recommended Walton be hired as principal of Martin Luther King School.

Muldoon has indicated he may seek action. In addition, several parents in the district have stated at recent board meetings that they have lost confidence in Schneider's handling of the district and that educational quality in Sausalito schools is too low.

The board held a short closed session on Schneider last week but decided to postpone consideration of the matter until tonight.

Blaze Guts Apartment

Fire gutted one room of an apartment house at 428 Turney Street early this morning after Steven Heinecke, tenant of Apartment 3, left a candle burning in his room, according to Sausalito firemen, while he went next door to watch television.

Damage to the living room was estimated at $800 to $1,000 according to Fire Chief Charles E. Masten. The apartment building is owned by Dr. Smith Ketcham III of San Francisco.

Firemen said Heinecke left the candle burning on a trunk in the room at approximately 1 a.m. The candle burned down igniting the trunk lid which, in turn, ignited drapes in the room.

Fireman John Flystra was injured during the blaze, Masten said, when he slipped and fell while carrying a smoke ejector up a ladder. He was treated at Marin General Hospital for back strain.

"extremely unlikely" that the $57.5 million ever would be appropriated by Congress.

Z'berg also reported that the federal government is attempting to trade surplus federal land in Nevada for land in the seashore. He said the government has a buyer for Lake Ranch property at Point Reyes, who then would turn the ranch over to the National Park Service in exchange for the surplus land in Nevada.

An Independent-Journal check of this report last week found that no such buyer existed.

"There will be some deferrals in the highway projects," he said.

Luce said some $1 billion in construction contracts are scheduled to be awarded in the next year, with up to $400 million of them ready to go to contractors in the next four months.

The task force proposed that the administration take steps to ease the unemployment to be caused by the cutbacks. Luce said there should not be cutbacks in sections of the state already suffering from unemployment.

U.S. headquarters reported 12 enemy rocket and mortar attacks during the night, the lowest number since the Viet Cong's cease-fire for the funeral of Ho Chi Minh ended last Thursday morning.

One barrage of three rockets hit Hue, South Vietnam's third largest city and the old imperial capital. First reports said two Vietnamese civilians were wounded.

American B52 bombers flew seven missions during the night, dropping 1,000 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese troop concentrations and base camps 80 to 90 miles north of Saigon and south of Da Nang.

Woman Is Attacked And Then Robbed

A Novato mother of three was bound and raped in her bedroom and then robbed early this morning by two men who made their escape in a car, Novato police reported.

She is the wife of a serviceman who is serving overseas, according to police.

The three children, a boy of about 12, a girl of about 6 and an infant were not awakened until the mother later roused the boy to have him call police.

Officer Richard H. Rudy Jr. who received the call at 4:37 a.m., reached the house before a neighbor and untied the woman, he reported.

REFUSE TO EXAMINE

He took her to Novato General Hospital where two doctors's refused to examine her, he said. He then took her to Marin General Hospital where the county physician Dr. Frederick Hass would not examine her. A private physican, Dr. David Cunningham, finally made the examination, according to Lawrence Malcolm, assistant manager of Marin General Hospital.

The woman told Rudy that she has gone to sleep about 11:30 p.m. in her house in East Novato. The next thing she knew, the two men held something, a knife or similar object, to her throat. They told her that if she screamed, they would harm her children.

They tied her arms behind her back, threatened her if she made noise and tied a pillow case over her eyes and placed a sweat shirt over her head, so that she could not see them.

Both men forced her to have intercourse and forced her to submit to unnatural acts, she told police. One of them had a fuzzy beard, she said.

They asked if she had any money and she told them her wallet was on the dining room table. They took a $10 and $5 bill. They then left. There was no sign of forced entry into the house, police said.

ONE COMMENTS

At Novato General Hospital, Dr. Wayne L. Campbell, the first doctor called, said that was not his type of case and that if he had responded, he would have had to call in another doctor.

The other doctor called, Dr. John T. Korn, was not available for comment.

Milton Scott, manager of Novato General Hospital, said he had not talked to the doctors yet to find out the details on the case.

Dr. Donovan O. Cooke of the Marin County Health Department, said that Dr. Hass would not examine the woman because she was not an indigent and was a military dependent, so technically she did not come under the county health department.

Moshe Dayan said Saturday the purpose of the strikes was "to immobilize (Egyptian) troops to guard those places ... If they don't do it, that front will remain vulnerable and it will be possible to hit it again."

In other military action over the weekend, two Israeli soldiers were wounded when Arab guerrillas ambushed an army patrol on the occupied Golan Heights of Syria yesterday morning. An Israeli spokesman said one of the attackers was killed.

The Israelis reported another attack in the Golan Heights early today, by two squads of guerrillas on the Nahal Golan settlement. A spokesman said one Arab squad moved to within 220 yards of the settlement's perimeter and opened up with bazookas and a machine gun, while another group inside the Syrian lines fired mortars at the post.

The spokesman said one guerrilla was killed and one Israeli wounded.

The spokesman also reported that Arab gunners fired mortars at an Israeli settlement south of the Sea of Galilee but added there were no casualties.

At the United Nations, new talks seeking an Arab-Israeli settlement are expected to begin by the end of the week. Officials who have taken part in previous talks are arriving for the 24th U.N. General Assembly which opens tomorrow.

Secretary General U Thant will meet with the foreign ministers of the Big Four powers Saturday night to discuss the Middle East. The Big Four's ambassadors to the United Nations held talks through the spring on a settlement, but suspended them July 1 to await the outcome of separate U.S.-Soviet talks which later also were suspended.

tions between Peking and Moscow—and also between Peking and Washington—would be restored "to normalcy—even if they are not cordial."

The secretary-general said he was glad to note the meeting between Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Chinese Premier Chou En-lai in Peking last week.

He expressed thanks to President Richard M. Nixon for his decision to address the 24th session of the U.N. General Assembly Thursday and said the decision showed Nixon's desire to demonstrate his support to the world organization.

Thant repeated his call for Big Four talks on the Middle East crisis during the assembly session opening tomorrow, but said he had been told that the time was not ripe for a summit session on this subject. The big powers, he said, felt that preliminary preparations had to be made before a top-level meeting on this or other problems.

Thant said that, in his view, there was no conflict between four power talks on the Middle East and the bilateral talks which have been going on between the United States and the Soviet Union.

He said, however, that he believed it would be useful for the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union to get together on the issue while they are in New York.

Thant's special representative, Gunnar V. Jarring, is arriving in New York tonight, he said, and would be available to consult with the Big Four representatives.

He said he did not believe it was necessary at this time to bring Arab and Israeli representatives into direct talks, noting that at the time of the 1949 truce negotiations there was no direct confrontation until basic agreements had been reached.

The secretary-general made these other points:

Vietnam—He did not believe the death of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh would have any effect on Hanoi's policies. A cease-fire is not practical in a war where there are no defined battle lines. Continued de-escalation is the best course at this time.

Red China—He rejected the so-called two-Chinas concept of seating both the Chinese Nationalists and the Peking government in the United Nations.

Kosygin: He said he had no information on the possibility that Kosygin might come to New York during the coming assembly session.

$10,000 Pledged For Rec Project

The San Rafael Canal area's new Project REC already has received more than $10,000 in private pledges, but more is being sought, Robert Schoen, originator of the plan, said today.

Papers seeking a nonprofit, tax-exempt status are now in the works, Schoen said. The community recreation project is attempting to obtain a lot on Belvedere Street for its teen-age recreation center.

The board of directors includes Schoen, Bernice Eastmen, William T. Healey, Corine Simkins, and Patricia Green, whose name was omitted in a previous Independent-Journal story.

Schoen, a barber, said, "There are more than 2,000 kids of all ages in the area and they have nothing to do but hang around the bowling alley steps."

Principal Is Hired For Kent School

The Kentfield School District board chose a new principal yesterday for Adaline E. Kent School after closed interviews with candidates, but withheld announcing the successful applicant's name until official appointment at the open board meeting next Monday.

The new principal will replace Robert E. Shore, who plans to resign because of ill health. Supt. Anthony G. Bacich said the board received 15 applications for the post, asked 10 other persons if they were interested in the post, screened through records of 60 persons and interviewed six candidates.

Waterfront Plan To Be Considered

Sausalito's proposed central waterfront plan will be considered at a special meeting of the city council at 8 p.m. Thursday at city hall.

The plan, prepared by William Spangle and Associates and approved by the city's planning commission, would control development of the Sausalito waterfront.

The council also will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday to answer citizens' questions about proposed $220,000 November bond election to finance expansion of the main fire station, purchase and expansion of the police station and recreation at Tiffany beach.

The council's regular meeting is at 8 p.m., tomorrow at City Hall.

Councilman To Present Report

Robert M. Scott, San Anselmo councilman, is to present a report on a possible conflict of interest by another councilman when the San Anselmo City Council meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow at City hall.

Scott declined to elaborate on the report today, saying he was writing out the statement today for presentation at the meeting.

It was Scott who in July transmitted to the council anonymous complaints that City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell had used city employees to work on the driveway at his residence. The charges were shown to be false at an August council meeting and Leitzell was given a unanimous council vote of confidence.

Evaluation Team To Be Considered

A proposal that the Stanford Research Institute be employed to evaluate the intermediate-middle school program at Del Mar School will be considered by the Reed School District board at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Bel Aire School.

The board also will discuss adjustments to the school bus schedule and appointments to citizen committees to serve the board as recommended by the citizens committee on programs and finances.

Suspected Abductor Caught As Detective Plays Victim

BEVERLY HILLS (UPI) — A police detective, who for eight hours played the part of a kidnap victim handcuffed to a tree, captured the suspected abductor during the weekend when he walked into the trap.

Alan Ramo, 19, son of millionaire Simon Ramo, vice chairman of the $1.6 billion aerospace company TRW Inc., was freed unharmed when a caretaker heard his cries for help. The $200,000 ransom was never paid.

Detective Richard Rodriguez, 37, took the place of young Ramo on a brush-covered hillside overlooking a water reservoir in a valley about two miles northwest of the city.

Nothing happened for eight hours. Then, at 6:20 Saturday evening, John J. Santen 23, a merchant seaman from San Lorenzo, approached Rodriguez through the brush. He was armed with a .38- caliber pistol.

Rodriguez fired once, narrowly missing Santen's head. Other officers hidden in the brush closed in and Santen surrendered.

Santen, who was to be formally charged with kidnaping today, waived his right to remain silent and was talking with detectives, police said, but the nature of his statement was not disclosed. Authorities believed Santen worked alone but they did not rule out the possibility of accomplices.

Ramo, a student at Stanford University, was unharmed and was reported resting today somewhere other than at his family's mansion in the exclusive Trousdale Estates.

Young Ramo was returning home from a date shortly after midnight Friday when he was accosted by a gunman near the front door of the palatial house.

The abductor walked Ramo to a secluded section of the estates, bound and blindfolded him, and then left him to get his car. When the kidnaper returned with the car, he threw Ramo into the trunk and headed for the foothills.

The kidnaper later returned to the Ramo home and slipped a note under the door demanding $200,000 ransom. When Ramo found the note Saturday morning, he immediately called police. The note ordered Ramo to place a personal ad in the Los Angeles Times when the money was ready.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, young Ramo managed to loosen the gag and began yelling for help. Russ Kyle, 56, the reservoir caretaker, heard the shouts at his home about 300 yards away. He yelled back.

"Please call the police," Ramo shouted. "I've been kidnaped."

Kyle told his wife to call the police and then started through the dense underbrush to locate the victim. Although Ramo continued to yell, the caretaker was unable to pinpoint the source in the nearly inpenetrable undergrowth.

Three carloads of Beverly Hills police soon arrived on the scene. Det. Rodriguez took Ramo's place and began the wait for the return of the kidnaper.

At dusk, word came from the gate to the reservoir that Santen's car was parked next to it. Rodriguez was appraised of the situation and a few minutes later Santen was in custody.

Dr. Ramo was one of the founders of TRW Inc., which was started as Ramo-Wooldrige Corp. It became Thompson-Ramo-Wooldrige, which eventually was shortened to the initials.

One Killed In Santa Rosa Crash

SANTA ROSA (AP) — A car carrying five young men went off a road on the east side of Santa Rosa yesterday and struck a utility pole, killing a passenger.

He was Paul Norman Dorsey, 20, Santa Rosa.

The driver, Bob. J. Nickerson, 19, Vallejo, suffered major injuries. The other three occupants received less serious injuries, the highway patrol said.

Yosemite Park Fights Pollution

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, (AP) — Rangers have taken initial steps to curb air pollution and eliminate traffic tieups in the most scenic reaches of Yosemite National Park.

The open air trailers began carrying passengers over the weekend to the most celebrated of the famous park. Cars were not permitted in the areas.

Park officials hope to eliminate private vehicle from several other areas of the park through use of the 50-passenger trams.

Fares are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. They make four stops and run every 20 minutes.

Westmoreland In London For Visit

LONDON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. Army Chief of Staff, arrived yesterday for a four-day visit.

He will confer with British defense officials, visit the Royal Military Academy at Sandhurst and inspect British military units.

W. Germany Rocked By Wildcat Strikes

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — West Germany, in the midst of a national election campaign, has been rocked by two weeks of unusual wildcat strikes involving more than 500,000 miners and steelworkers.

Wage increases are ending the strikes, but they have unsettled politicians and raised the specter of wage-price spirals and inflation in a country that has become the most stable economic power in Western Europe.

Strikes of any kind are rare in West Germany, where a docile, fully employed work force has been content to follow the lead of its unions. In 1968, only 25,249 work days were lost to strikes in a work force of more than 24 million.

Wildcat strikes, called "wild strikes" by the Germans, are rarer still. Until this summer the last major one was in May 1967 at a cookie factory in a dispute about laying off workers.

Such union officials as Heinz-Oskar Vetter of the German Federation of Trade Unions are issuing assurances that the "English situation" of repeated wildcat strikes won't become common in West Germany. But the success of the miners and steel workers in getting higher pay has triggered demands by 2 million civil servants, leather, textile and transport workers for prompt negotiation of new contracts.

Politicians and others are debating the root causes of the spreading discontent. Some think union members are growing dissatisfied with their leaders. Others consider the unrest part of the radical movement manifested previously in student protests and left-wing demonstrations.

The strikers denied any Communist influence. They said they had agreed to a wage freeze in 1967 to help the country out of an economic slump, and now it was time they got some benefits.

Suspect Booked In Auto Probe

Boyd Lewis Doxtader, 32, of 950 Vernal Avenue, Homestead Valley, was booked early yesterday by sheriff's deputies in suspicion of attempted auto theft.

Deputies said Doxtader was arrested at the scene after Marcy Lee Stone, 20, of 765 Montecillo Road, reported at 1 a.m. that someone was attempting to take her parents' car from their garage.

Doxtader was released under $1,200 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Sen. Allott Is Out Of Leadership Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado stepped aside from the race for Republican leadership today, leaving the field to the three declared candidates to succeed the late Everett M. Dirksen.

"I am not a candidate for the position of minority leader," Allott said. "I have no commitments from any of my colleagues, nor have I asked for such commitments."

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the acting leader; Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska, and Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee are candidates.

Allott said he would not make any personal commitment in the leadership race, but his decision not to run benefits Hruska, whose support is based among the Senate's more conservative Republicans.

But the American Conservative Union, urging the election of a conservative leader, put both Baker and Hruska in that category.

Allott told some Senate colleagues last Thursday that he would run for the leader's post. But Hruska announced his candidacy Saturday, and it was clear they would have had to seek support from the same, generally conservative, Senate constituency.

"My sole personal efforts shall be directed toward assuring that whatever the outcome of the race, we shall have a unified party in the Senate," Allott said in his statement disclaiming candidacy.

However a decision to seek the leadership by Baker, a Senate first-termer, was seen as possibly splitting away some conservative support otherwise figured to go to Hruska.

Whatever the final field it will undoubtedly take more than one ballot to settle the issue.

Scott said Sunday he had indications 20 senators favor him for the job with seven or eight other possibilities.

The Pennsylvanian also said a possibility exists of avoiding a fight altogether for the post if GOP senators decide such a battle might split the party.

Scott was interviewed Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" radio-television program.

200 Injured As Stand Collapses

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — A platform crowded with fans watching the running of the bulls collapsed in a nearby village Monday and police reported nearly 200 persons were injured.

They said their own reports earlier that six persons were kille dwere erroneous.

"As far as we know there are no dead," said one official.

The accident occurred in the village of Moita do Ribatejo.

It was learned that a steel scaffolding built to sustain a wooden platform suddenly gave in under the weight of hundreds of spectators.

Scores of ambulances were rushed to the scene. All the casualties were Portuguese, police said.

Moita do Ribatejo is across the Tagus River near Lisbon.

The incident occurred as thousands of villagers and many foreigners were watching the traditional bull running event.

A spokesman for the Moita do Ribatejo fire brigade said the stands "folded down like paper toys."

A 16-year-old Fairfax youth was injured yesterday when the car in which he was riding swerved to avoid a dog in the road and slammed into an embankment, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Tim Maroney, of 450 Cascade Drive, was treated at Marin General Hospital for back sprain after the 5:20 p.m. accident on Raven Road in Sleepy Hollow.

Kerr Sees Education In 'Deepest' Crisis

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Higher education in the United States is in "the deepest crisis in all the 333 years since the founding of Harvard," Clark Kerr, chairman of the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education said today.

"This is a sad commentary to make when it has also just completed its decade of greatest advance," Kerr told the opening session of the Southern Governors' Conference.

To resolve the crisis Kerr suggested several "constructive roles" that governors and other political leaders can perform:"

Creation of additional places to match the continued surge of students in the 1970s, particularly by spreading community colleges throughout the nation and establishing more urban-located state colleges.

Careful scrutiny of proposals for supporting additional institutions to offer the doctorate degree.

Encouragement of private sources of support for higher education with the hope of maintaining the current 50-50 private-public ratio.

Shifting the public burden more heavily to the federal government to reflect the federal proportion of tax revenues, which is two-thirds.

Acceptance of the expectation that the campuses may be more of a center of dissent indefinitely in the future than it has been historically in the past.

—Placing the primary responsibility for prevention of violence on academic discipline while providing protection against intrusion from the outside.

—Protection of the autonomy of institutions of higher education "for their own sake and for the sake of society."

The 5:45 p.m. accident occurred when a car driven by Sara Suzanne Lowey, 16, of 60 Mount Tenaya Court, San Rafael, hit the rear of a car driven by Thomas Jeffrey Houth, 16, of 144 Mabry Way, San Rafael, the patrol reported.

Western Airlines introduces a new concept in service to Hawaii

To set the mood, authentic Hawaiian music welcomes you aboard the jet. And suddenly–you're in the Islands. Flower-laden stewardesses in exotic muumuus greet you and help make you comfortable. (The girl in the longest muumuu is the Executive Hostess. Her main job is to do all those pleasant little extras you probably don't expect to have done for you.)

During the flight, the stewardesses will answer any questions you have about Hawaii. Because all of them have had training in the culture, history and high-spots of our 50th State.

The food on "The Islander" is a story in itself. It starts with complimentary Islander Champagne Punch...offered from an imposing carved bowl to everyone aboard.

Coach passengers will then have a problem: they'll have to choose among three luscious entrees (dishes like Steak Teriyaki, Two Princess Chicken and Pork Loin Oahu)...accompanied by exotic Chinese vegetables ...and followed by a mouth-watering dessert.

They'll have to make personal selections throughout a seven-course Islander feast! For the main dish alone, there are five choices, including Polynesian Roast Tenderloin, cooked and carved to order.

"The Islander" jets to Honolulu from major cities in the West. You can take it from San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Anchorage, Las Vegas, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, Denver and Minneapolis/St. Paul. Or make easy connections from almost anywhere in Western's World.

Call Western or your Travel Agent. Ask about reserving a seat on "The Islander"...and get details about a wide range of complete vacation tours and packages to fit every budget.

If you've never visited Hawaii, "The Islander" is your perfect introduction. And if you have been to Hawaii before, you'll especially appreciate the entirely new standards of service that await you.
"The Islander" is your prevue of paradise!

Haynsworth Bench Nod Most Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite opposition from civil rights and labor leaders, all signs now indicate President Richard M. Nixon's nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. for the Supreme Court will be confirmed by the Senate.

Senate Judiciary Committee hearings starting Tuesday could change the picture, but so far no organized effort has developed within the Senate to block approval of the 56-year-old South Carolinian.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., who indicated he probably will vote against the nomination, has nonetheless predicted Haynsworth will be confirmed—and others not enthusiastic about the appointment agree.

NOT OVERJOYED

The Haynsworth nomination also has picked up the far-from-enthusiastic support of Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., who spearheaded last year's successful fight to keep Abe Fortas from becoming chief justice.

"If you think my silence until now has been interpreted as meaning that I am not overjoyed by the appointment," Griffin said Sunday at Mackinac Island, Mich., "you're absolutely right."

"But on the basis of all the knowledge I have today, I predict that Judge Haynsworth's appointment will be confirmed with my support."

Acting Senate GOP leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania also indicated yesterday he might back the nomination.

He spoke on the NBC TV-radio interview program "Meet the Press."

WANT TO TALK

More than a score of witnesses have asked to be heard at the committee hearings Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he expects to take two or three days.

Haynsworth has been a judge on the Fourth U.S. Appeals Court in Richmond, Va., since 1957.

The White House, in announcing Aug. 18 the nomination to fill the court vacancy created by the resignation under fire of Fortas, said Nixon feels Haynsworth "has demonstrated judicial temperament, balance, impartiality and fairness."

However, in a letter to all senators, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP and chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, said "the constitutional rights of millions of Americans will be less secure" if Haynsworth is confirmed.

Car Makers Defending Price Stickers

DETROIT (AP) — Auto makers readied a sharp rebuttal today to a government charge that the price stickers on new cars may deceive buyers.

General Motors, Chrysler, Ford and American Motors—which sell more than 8 million cars a year—are expected to tell the Federal Trade Commission, in hearings opening tomorrow in Washington, that the window stickers carrying manufacturers' suggested retail prices actually improve the bargaining position of new car buyers.

The FTC says that under present practice "manufacturers may be engaged in direct misrepresentation of prices as well as placing in the hands of dealers the means and instrumentality for deceiving consumers as to savings at the retail level."

The sticker price notices required by a 1958 law, the Monroney Act, purport to show a base price for the car plus itemized prices on equipment.

Automakers formulate their suggested retail prices on a base factory cost of a car, adding a percentage to give an annual return on capital and another sum for a dealer discount. The dealer discount usually ranges between 17 and 25 per cent, depending on the car model.

Chrysler Corp., in a 38-page brief filed with the commission, said that "if, as the commission's notice suggests, the sticker price is to reflect in every instance the 'prevailing price' in each market, the consumer no longer will be able to bargain over the price of the new vehicle or his trade-in."

Some units are sold above sticker prices, Chrysler said, adding: "As to sales at other prices, the retail purchaser realizes that the manufacturer's suggested retail price is merely the starting point from which the bargaining will begin, as the Congress expected it to be."

A lawsuit charging that sticker prices are misleading was filed in July by the State of California against General Motors.

U.S. Cracking Down On Border Dope Flow

WASHINGTON (AP) — With stiffer border inspections, specially equipped airplanes and by closer cooperation with Mexican officials, the government is hoping to stem a growing flow of illegal drugs and narcotics from below the Rio Grande.

Dubbed "Operation Intercept," the drive to halt smuggling of marijuana, cocaine and heroin from Mexico was made public by Deputy Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst this weekend.

The primary goal is to cut off the source of the contraband at its source: marijuana and poppy fields in remote corners of Mexico, Kleindienst said.

"Our entire objective is to get to the source of the problems, not to make thousands of arrests," he said.

Resources of several federal agencies are being called upon to help, he said. The Federal Aviation Agency is keeping a closer watch on small planes crossing the border; Coast Guard and Navy vessels are watching small boats, and Customs and Border Patrol units are pulling "blitz" inspections of travelers.

But the most important phase of the project is a series of conferences with Mexican officials to pursuade them to intensify efforts to cut the drug and narcotic flow off at its source, Kleindiest said.

Among cooperative U.S.-Mexican projects will be aerial spraying of marijuana fields with chemicals designed to kill the crop he said.

Motorcycle Stolen From Fairfax Home

A 1966 model motorcycle, owned by Charles E. Gast of 71 Forrest Terrace, Fairfax, was reported stolen at 9:30 p.m. yesterday and found a short time later by San Anselmo police.

Fairfax police said the bike was taken between 11 p.m. Saturday and the time it was reported missing yesterday. It was found parked on Lansdale Avenue in San Anselmo.

Trio Suffers Minor Injuries

Three persons suffered minor injuries Saturday morning when a flat tire caused their car to overturn after veering off the southbound connector to Highway 101 from Highway 37, Ignacio.

The California Highway Patrol reported that the car driven by Michael B. James, 43, of 114 Louisiana Street, Vallejo, struck an embankment along the west side of the roadway after the left rear tire blew out and overturned at 8:50 a.m.

Sailor Beats Debbie, But Not Officialdom

SAN SALVADOR, Bahamas (AP) — A lone sailor missing for a month has turned up after a 114-day Atlantic crossing from Ireland undertaken to prove that a legendary monk known as Brendan the Bold could have done it 1,400 years ago.

Bill Verity, a brawny, 43-year-old Irishman who braved Hurricane Debbie en route, said he was "damn glad to be back."

The former Fort Lauderdale, Fla., boat builder put wobbly sealegs ashore Sunday after accepting a brief tow from an oil tanker.

Once on the island, the first Columbus claimed for his sovereigns in 1492, Verity encountered officialdom. His papers weren't adequate to satisfy Bahamian authorities he should be allowed into the British colony of Nassau.

But the barrel-chested Irishman said he hoped to get the red tape untangled and sail for Nassau on Tuesday.

Verity's 20-foot-boat, named Brendan the Bold after the legendary Irish monk, put into Cockburn Harbor, about 200 miles southeast of Nassau.

He had not been seen since Aug. 14, when a Coast Guard cutter helped the sunburned sailor repair a rudder battered by heavy seas 400 miles northeast of Puerto Rico.

At that time, Verity was near Debbie's predicted path but he declined to abandon his journey.

Debbie apparently passed about 150 to 175 miles to the north of him, he said.

Verity said he borrowed five days' food supplies from the crew of a passing Russian freighter on Aug. 30 and borrowed more food from a Dutch ship six days later.

He said he asked both crews to notify authorities of his position, but apparently no word from them reached shore.

Verity spent two years in Ireland overseeing construction of Brendan the Bold.

He also crossed the Atlantic three years ago in a 12-foot boat.

Youth Reports Robbery Attempt

A Strawberry youth reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday morning that two men he had given a ride from San Francisco attempted to rob him when he let them off at Waldo Point.

Renaldo Raphael Batz, 22, of 101 Carlota Circle, told deputies the men demanded his wallet and one started to hit him at 4:40 a.m.

Batz grabbed his car keys and ran, and the two men ran into the Marin City area, deputies said.

BARRICADE FEUD—Armed British troops man a barbed wire barricade that separates Catholic and Protest sections in Belfast. New fighting broke out yesterday and the British peace team described the situation as "pretty frightening." (UPI Telephoto)

Belfast Catholics Demanding Immunity

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Leaders of one of Belfast's biggest Roman Catholic areas are demanding a written guarantee of immunity from arrest before bringing their barricades down.

A communique from the Central Citizens' Defense Committee said this demand was put to the British Army during talks yesterday.

"We can give no guarantees," said the army, adding that this is a matter for the home ministry.

Home Minister Robert Porter gave assurance last week that he had no intention of ordering the arrest of barricade leaders unless they had broken the criminal law. But this apparently did not satisfy the Catholics.

The Catholic committee issued a communique after a meeting of delegates claiming to represent 70,000 persons in barricaded Catholic areas. It said the "overwhelming majority of people want the barricades to stay until precise agreement is reached on adequate military protection between local army commanders and the respective citizens defense committees."

Six days ago, Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark told the nation that the barricades were "strangling the whole community" and must come down.

Scores of Protestant barricades erected as a protest against the Catholic barricades have been removed voluntarily. More than 150 Catholic barricades remain, and there are fears that the Protestants may soon carry out threats to bring back their own barricades unless the army acts.

Meanwhile, army authorities and civil detectives were investigating the deaths of two British soldiers who were shot while on guard duty early Sunday.

The army now is satisfied that one man was accidentally shot by another soldier. The other victim was found dead with head wounds. Police say they have ruled out foul play, but the army says it has reached no conclusion.

Woman Is Fair From Car Crash

Patricia Ann Martin, 34, of Palo Alto, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with facial cuts and a fractured nose, suffered in a two-car accident at 6:20 p.m. yesterday on North San Pedro Road and La Pasada, according to the California Highway Patrol.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Richard Urban Laine, 39, of Menlo Park, who was treated at Marin General for multiple cuts.

The patrol said Laine's car hit a car driven by Verna Arabella Cassell, 55, of 555 Tarraon Drive, San Rafael, as she was turning left from San Pedro onto La Pasada. She was cited for failure to yield to traffic while making a left turn.

Fleeing Cubans Get A Lift To Freedom

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Two young Cubans who hoped to make the 90-mile crossing to Florida in a tiny rubber raft have reached the U.S. mainland in a rescuing cargo vessel.

Juan Manuel, 21, and Raul Quintana, 22, completed their trip to freedom yesterday in the U.S. steamship Giddes Lykes, which plucked them from the Gulf of Mexico 75 miles southwest of Key West.

The raft was only 6 feet 3 inches long and their only supplies were several tins of condensed milk and three cans of water. They were at sea four days.

The two said they were employed drawing maps in the Havana City Planning Department.

"We were paid 160 pesos a month," said Quintana, "and on the black market 12 pesos are equivalent to one American dollar."

They said money was of little value in Cuba anyway because there was little or nothing to buy.

"Rice, which appears to be plentiful, is rationed at six pounds per month per person," said Manuel.

They said that when given vacations from their regular jobs young men are forced to labor in the sugar cane fields and young women are forced to pick potatoes and other field produce.

Manuel said they had obtained the raft in exchange for a watch that had cost him 1,500 pesos.

Quintana said he left a wife and small son behind. Manuel said he was not married.

They plan to live in Miami where Quintana said he has relatives.

Both were cleared for admission to the country by U.S. emigration and naturalization officials last night.

More Smokers Think It Is Morally Wrong

WASHINGTON (AP) — An increasing number of cigarette smokers believe there is something morally wrong about smoking cigarettes, according to a survey commissioned by the Public Health Service which is the federal government's principal antismoking advocate.

The percentage of male smokers surveyed who believed it is morally wrong rose from 16.4 in 1964 to 45 in 1966, the agency reported. The percentage of women smokers who believed it rose from 13.2 in 1964 to 47.4 in 1966.

The results of the two surveys on public attitudes on the smoking problem are just being released by the PHS to researchers and analysts.

The question arises as to what people mean when they say cigarette smoking is morally wrong.

Dr. Daniel Horn, director of the National Clearing House of Smoking and Health, said he believes it encompassed a feeling about taking care of the body.

"You have a certain responsibility for your body," Horn said in an interview. "If you do something that harm it . . . you really don't have the right to treat yourself that badly.

"It's an old religious concept that it's wrong to abuse your body."

Why are more thinking it's morally wrong?

"I guess it would be as you begin really to accept the fact that this (cigarette smoking) is seriously a harmful thing . . . I suppose people thought it was one of those minor vices, wasn't good for you but wan't any catastrophic sort of thing; then as you realize the damage can be pretty appreciable---."

The first survey was made in 1964, several months after the government report on the dangers of smoking and is based on a sampling of 5,794 adult American smokers and nonsmokers. The second, in 1966, covered 5,770 smokers and nonsmokers to determine any changes in attitude and behavior. A third is planned within the next 12 months. The first two were conducted for PHS by National Analysts, Inc., of Philadelphia, and the Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, N.J.

Six Persons Injured In Two-Car Collision

Six persons were injured and two of them hospitalized yesterday as a result of a two-car collision on the Sausalito lateral off Highway 101, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Listed in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today was Julie K. Borello, 19, of 38 Corte Marada, Greenbrae. She was being treated for a back sprain, multiple internal injuries and a separated right shoulder.

Another passenger in the same car, Leslie Galler, 19, of 202 Princeton Avenue, Almonte, suffered a bruised forehead and scrapes on the left knee and right ankle. He was transferred to Letterman General Hospital where a report on his condition today was not available.

Mining has been important in the Andes since the Incas extracted the gold and silver that excited the avarice of the Spanish conquerors. Today, however, copper and tin are more important commercially.

THE PENNEY STORY

Mrs. Penney's answer to her husband

By ROBERTA NASH

One day we were up in Mr. Penney's office talking about how hard it is to get "the Penney difference" across to people outside the company. Mr. Penney told this anecdote:

"Once after a very inspiring meeting with store managers, I said to Mrs. Penney, 'You know, I am not yet satisfied that I have ever been able to tell the real story of this company. Why?'

"Mrs. Penney turned to me. 'Because you cannot define the soul,' she answered."

WANTED — Joseph Lloyd Thomas, convicted bank robber sought on suspicion of violating federal parole and bank robbery, has been added to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted fugitives. Thomas, 57, is wanted in connection with the robbery of the Merchants National Bank in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Suit, Cash Taken From Room At Inn

Ronald Lawrence Nolan of Columbus, Ohio, reported to San Rafael police yesterday that someone took a suit valued at $150 and $30 cash from his room at Holiday Inn 1010 Northgate Drive, San Rafael.

Nolan, who was in Room 106, said the burglary occurred sometime between 11 p.m. Saturday and 3 a.m. yesterday.

Assembly Chambers Will Get A New Coat Of Paint

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assembly Republican leaders have decided the drab green lower house chamber needs about $75,000 worth of "modest" renovations before the beginning of the 1970 legislative session.

"This is certainly not going to be an extreme remodeling job," said Assemblyman Eugene A. Chappie, R-Cool, chairman of the Rules Committee.

"It's just cleanup-fixup. Routine maintenance," he said.

This year Chappie said the renovations will include:

A new paint job for the apple green walls.

New draperies to replace the present bleached-out beige and gold curtains.

Better lighting than present fluorescent tubes.

"I think we can accomplish the whole thing for less than $75,000," said Chappie. "I think that's a pretty modest figure when you consider the general appearance of the chambers as opposed to what the Senate recently did."

In 1965, the Senate elaborately redid the upper house chambers at a cost estimated by Chappie at "a quarter of a million."

Three Killed In Crash Of Plane

TRUCKEE, Nev. (AP) — Three persons were killed when a single-engine plane crashed into Martis Peak and burned shortly after taking off yesterday from Tahoe-Truckee airport.

Authorities in Reno identified two of the victims as Charles R. (Rocky) Reynolds, 44, manager of the commercial sales department of the Sears, Roebuck Co. in Reno, and his wife Edna, 35. Sheriff deputies in Truckee said the third victim, a man, had not been identified late yesterday.

Deputies said the Cessna 172 failed to clear the peak and, about five minutes after take-off hit two trees, fell to the ground and burned. The peak at about 7,000 feet, is five miles southwest of the airport.

The fire burned trees in the immediate area and its heat melted the plane, deputies said.

Student Back To Post At Sonoma State

The student directors had refused to approve his appointment Thursday, but the next evening voted to reinstate him. The main bone of contention had been his advice concerning the use of drugs in the 26 page "Kiosk," freshman handbook.

In the brochure Hamburg, a senior sociology major, said, "The use of mind-altering drugs adds a new dimension, enhancing creativity while blocking memorization." He warned against the use of destructive drugs in which he listed speed, heroin, tobacco, excessive alcohol and barbiturates.

Some of the student directors objected to the list and said that marijuana and LSD should also have been included. Hamburg said his failure to include them on the list was not meant as an endorsement of their use.

In reconsidering his appointment, the students heard Joyce Gillette, senate member and wife of student body president James G. Gillette, admonish that the group had vowed not to become a censoring board.

Gillette, who had offered Hamburg's appointment, said that failure to approve the appointment would be a slap against him and his authority.

Discipline Report Among Agenda Items

Reports from committees in transportation and discipline will be heard tonight by Tamalpais High School District trustees when they meet at 8 p'clock in the district office at Redwood High School.

The board will also consider asking Mill Valley police to help with traffic control on the Tamalpais High School campus and will discuss entering into an agreement with San Francisco State College to provide student teachers for the coming academic year.

In this age of gimcracks and chrome, is there a place for a car so masterfully engineered that 90 percent of its value is invisible?

Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

Yesterday's dreamboats had enormous tail fins.

Obviously, there are millions every year who are willing to buy a car that's "in vogue"—even though they know newer gimcracks and styling quirks will soon erode their investment.

At Mercedes-Benz, iron-willed engineers, not stylists, rule the roost. And they insist on putting value where they think it belongs: at the heart of their machines.

That's why Mercedes-Benz motor cars can cost anywhere from about $4,600 to $27,000 without, to some tastes, "looking" it.

Form follows function

Make no mistake. The perfectionists at Mercedes-Benz do not apologize for those classic lines—free of faddish touches—that will still be handsome years from now. They simply think form should follow function instead of fashion.

The contours of that 250 sedan at right were dictated by the need to provide proper headroom, hiproom, legroom and protective packaging for five adults. Dictated by the proportions required for nimble maneuverability.

The car is both shorter and leaner than its overweight rivals. Yet it bristles with sophisticated, ultra-performance features that simply do not exist on domestic sedans.

A superb machine

Too sophisticated, some critics say. Nonsense, retort Mercedes-Benz engineers. If a man can afford to invest thousands of dollars in a superb driving machine, he is entitled to get something superb.

What he gets in a Mercedes-Benz is legendary in automotive circles.

An expert from Car and Driver tested the "new" 250 when it was released early in 1968 after an incubation period of five years. His verdict: "Offhand, I can't think of any other 4-door sedan in the world—with the possible exception of the Maserati Quattroporte—that handles, steers and stops like the Mercedes."

Scrapping the solid rear axle system of most domestic cars, the 250 uses an all-independent suspension—plus anti-sway bars front and rear. This endows it with the agility of a scrambling quarterback.

You can blast it over rutted and potholed gravel lanes. It behaves with almost eerie calm. You can thread it through the corkscrew turns of a mountain road, and enjoy yourself.

There's no sloppy play in the steering. No mushiness. When you hold the wheel, you "feel" the road. When you turn the wheel, the car responds instantly. Suddenly, you are a more confident driver.

Heroic stopping power

Stopping? Unless you have driven a 180-mph Grand Prix racing car or a Mercedes-Benz, chances are you have never experienced the security that comes from having really good brakes.

Disc brakes.

A few domestic sedans have front-wheel disc brakes, and others offer front-wheel discs as an option. But every Mercedes-Benz comes with massive disc brakes on all four wheels. Standard.

Result: You get more stopping power than you may ever need. But you sleep better at night.

The pinnacle of safety

As for safety, Mercedes-Benz engineers applaud the intent of the U.S. Government regulations, and carry their protective measures beyond the letter of these laws.

The 250's best defense against blundering drivers is, of course, its almost uncanny evasive ability. But, if the worst happens, your Mercedes-Benz is designed to shield you.

The entire passenger compartment is built as a sturdy "safety zone." Doors are designed to stay closed on impact. The front and rear sections of the car are engineered to crumple in a violent crash at a controlled rate, absorbing shock and reducing the threat of serious injury.

Car and Driver's sober conclusion: Of all the world's motor cars, the current Mercedes-Benz line "represents the present pinnacle in safe car engineering."

Value. All of it concealed from the casual eye. But there.

And there's more. Construction of every Mercedes-Benz begins in a shower of sparks. Where conventional cars use bolts to tie body and chassis together, Mercedes-Benz uses thousands of welds to create a single unit of immense strength. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 250 will ever rattle.

When welding stops, the raw body is dunked whole, like a taffy apple, into a gigantic vat of primer. It emerges with 24 pounds of rust protection.

More hidden value

Every car gets 20 more pounds of primer and paint. Even the insides of the hub caps are coated. As a final flourish in its armament against corrosion, each car gets a 24-pound factory slathering of undercoating.

The six-cylinder, overhead-cam engine of every 250 is bench tested before installation, for more than 60 minutes. A hint of trouble in this gruelling test and the engine is torn down and rebuilt. Mercedes-Benz finds the lemons—not you.

Revealing showroom tests

Run a finger along the body of the 250. No "orange peel" texture. Slide in and open the glove compartment. Fully trimmed. Close the car door. Ka-chunk.

Now flex your back. This is no marshmallow seat. It supports you, mile after mile. It should: it was designed with the guidance of orthopedic physicians.

Crank the window and fiddle with some knobs. "Everything worked with delightful precision, eliciting the same sort of satisfaction that comes when the shutter mechanism crackles shut on a good reflex camera," reported Car and Driver's expert.

That's the beauty of the 250. It's built as if it were a 3,000-pound Hasselblad camera!

An unconventional car? Defiantly so. Mercedes-Benz does not make conventional cars—and never will.

24-page brochure

Of course, the quickest way to verify the 250's virtues, both visible and invisible, is simply to drop by the showroom and arrange a test drive.

220 Diesel—the only diesel-powered automobile Mercedes-Benz makes, gives you small-car economy in a big, safe sedan that may well endure for decades, $4,780*.

300SEL—an understated limousine, $9,849*.

MOPPETS INVADE CENTRAL PARK

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

To Avoid Accidents Drivers Need More Testing, Less Pride

DEAR HELEN:

It's time legislators tightened rules governing automobile driving licenses.

Three cases which touched me recently provoke this letter. A young neighbor riding with a man subject to diabetic blackouts was killed when the man cracked up the car.

Last weekend a 78-year-old, slightly inebriated to boot, ran into a vehicle in which the daughter of a friend of mine was riding. She got a broken arm, but her father, on hearing of the accident, had a heart attack.

Another friend of mine whose hearing and sight are impaired has had a few minor accidents. She always said, "I like to live dangerously." When it was pointed out that perhaps others on the road did not share her philosophy, she finally began to consider giving up her license.

It seems to me that frequent physical re-testing of drivers might spare some lives and much heartache — and I mean in-depth testing if there is a history of any defect. Disabled people sometimes try to minimize their defects — and that goes for older people too. Pride often goes before a crash! — ELEANOR

DEAR ELEANOR:

How frighteningly true. Legislators, take note! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I had a freezer full of meat, and only recently started buying meat at the market again. The prices floored me! Round steak that I had gotten for not over 89 cents a pound six months ago, is now up to $1.09 — and that's on sale! Usually it's higher. All meat seems to have jumped at least 20 per cent in just a few months. Groceries have gone up just about as much — and when I bought our kids' school clothes this year I went flat broke. They were several dollars per article higher.

What I can't understand is: The government is trying to curb inflation by raising the interest rate — which means we can't buy a new house, and when we get furniture or anything on time, we pay at least 18 per cent per year. But how is inflation being curbed when prices on necessities keep right on skyrocketing? Ever since the new interest rates were announced, we've had nothing but higher prices. — WHAT GIVES?

DEAR W. G.:

I'm not an economist, but I agree: There's something awfully wrong with anti-inflation measures which result in higher prices! Why don't we all write to our Congressmen and get some answers?

(And while we're about it, let's demand the income tax reform they've been promising us for lo, these many years. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you have any more of those proverb quizzes left? I believe you called them governmentese, as in "Precipitancy creates prodigality," ("Haste makes waste.") How can we get copies? — PARTY GIVER

DEAR P. G.:

Yes, I have a few such mimeographs on hand. Anyone wishing copies may send a long stamped, self-addressed envelope to Helen Bottel, care of the Independent-Journal. Mark your request, "Governmentese Quiz."

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen Help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Hot Water To Relieve Itching

NEW YORK (UPI)—Try hot water to alleviate itching caused by such summer hazards as poison ivy and insect bites.

The water, hot enough to be painful, should be applied briefly but repeatedly with a wash cloth. The itchy skin also can be exposed to very hot running water. However, the high temperature—120 to 130 degrees—is too high to be used safely in bath or shower. If a large area of skin is involved, it should receive the hot water treatment bit by bit. Women's Medical News Service reports the method of treatment.

A graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School, the bride attended the University of California at Davis and California State Polytechnic College. She is the sister of Frederick W. Macondray of Oakland and now attends the University of Nevada.

"NINETEEN YEARS ago one of the most lovable, cheerful and hard-working residents of Mill Valley took over the managing of the Salvage Shop of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church."

Such was the description of Mrs. Frances Ferrario by one of the long-time parishioners. Now Mrs. Ferrario has decided to slow down a bit and has resigned as manager of the shop. Mrs. Anthony J. Almada will be her successor.

During her tenure Mrs. Ferrario turned the shop not only into a profit-making venture but frequently made it a source of clothing and furniture without cost to needy families, regardless of their church affiliation.

Mrs. Ferrario says she was able to set up a very smooth-working operation in the early days because of the large group of volunteers. She has been a resident of Mill Valley for "57 years, from the day that I was married." A widow for the past 36 years, she is the mother of Charles and Rose Ferrario of Mill Valley and Mrs. Edward Massen of Napa.

Mrs. Ferrario will continue to be a board member of the Mount Carmel Women's Club.

THE FAMILY Service League of Marin will hold its first fall meeting 10 a.m. Wednesday at Sabella's of Marin. Following the general meeting there will be a luncheon and fashion show. Mrs. Raye Murray, vice president, is chairman.

Mrs. Thomas Wynn, a league member, will be the fashion commentator and reservations chairmen are Mrs. F. K. Coburn and Mrs. John Bricker.

CABBAGES AND kings? — perhaps not, but many things will be sold at the St. Luke Presbyterian Church rummage sale at Loch Lomond Shopping Center in San Rafael Friday and Saturday. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A "nearly new" booth will feature finer articles. Mrs. Wendell Reilly is sale chairman.

"NURSES' ROLE in Planned Parenthood" will be Dr. William C. Langford's address to the meeting of the Marin Nurses Association at Marin General Hospital at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Dr. Langford is the medical director and clinician of Planned Parenthood Association of Marin.

THE OPENING assembly beginning the 50th anniversary year of the Katharine Branson School will be Wednesday at 8 in the School Study Hall. Following the assembly, alumnae, parents, and friends of the school are invitto a coffee hour in the residence.

H. Leonard Richardson, headmaster, will give a short welcoming address to the students who come from five foreign countries, 13 states and 40 California cities.

Thursday, the official NASA film of the lunar landing will be shown for students and their parents.

PATH FINDERS at Marin Art and Garden Center have set tomorrow as the opening date for their current season of luncheon service at the Magnolia Room in the Center grounds in Ross.

This year, the group of volunteers will offer Tuesday and Thursday luncheon service open to the public, and party arrangements on other days of the week.

Size Sets Price

Size rather than quality usually determines the price of oysters. Eastern oysters come in several sizes. The Counts or extra large, contain not more than 44 oysters per quart. The very smalls have about 68 oysters per quart.

Fudge

One way to prevent graininess in homemade fudge: Grease the sides of the pan with some of the butter or margarine called for in the recipe. This helps keep sugary crystals from forming while the candy cooks.

The first major presentation of the chorus and philharmonic will be Handel's "Messiah" in December.

Sprung said soloists are needed for the December program as well as chorus members including soprano, contralto, tenor and bass singers.

San Francisco Opera Will Take The Spotlight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco will usher in America's major opera season tomorrow night.

Jeanette Pilou will sing Violetta in Verdi's "La Traviata."

The Metropolitan in New York City was to have opened the American opera season as usual tonight, but the house will be dark until sometime in October because of a labor dispute.

Miss Pilou, as Violetta, will be singing the role in which she made her opera debut in Italy 10 years ago.

Senator Seen As Nominee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic majority leader, predicts his party's presidential nominee for 1972 will be a senator.

On the ABC televison-radio program "Issues and Answers" Sunday, Mansfield said Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine is leading at the moment.

He added: "former vice president Hubert Humphrey is right behind him. There is Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma to consider and there will be others."

Mansfield said he was assuming that Humphrey, the nominee in 1968, would run for the Senate from Minnesota in 1970 and would be elected.

Some Trading Barriers Off

LONDON (AP) — The United States and 14 allied countries are lowering their barriers on exports of strategic products to the Soviet bloc. But the bans are staying up for trade with the Asian Communist governments and Albania.

Diplomats reported yesterday that concessions to be announced next month will not be extended to Communist China, to Albania, its only European ally, or to North Vietnam and North Korea.

The embargo on munitions and other war weapons remains.

Informants said the previously banned items which the Soviet bloc now will be able to buy include certain types of computers, rare metals and their alloys, chemical and petroleum equipment.

Opera Auditions

Auditions for the College of Marin opera workshop will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesday in Room 72 of the college's fine arts building. Operas by Joseph Haydn and Ethel Smyth are planned for this semester.

LADY RACER MAKES RESPECTABLE TIME

Tachy Dunham, 15, nervously awaits the starter's gun in the Orange Crate Derby on San Marino Drive in Peacock Gap. Tachy was the only girl Saturday among the five entries and clocked a respectable one-tenth of a second slower than winner Brad Frager, 13, who had a 7.6-second time for the 65-yard course. Brad, who won a $25 savings bond and trophy, now is eligible to compete in the state race in Novato Oct. 5. The race was sponsored by the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce. A Slight Drop In Marin School Enrollment Noted

Enrollment in Marin County public schools has dropped by 768 students this year from opening registration of last year, reversing a growth trend that has been accepted as normal by school administrators for years.

First day enrollment in public schools this year totaled 45,640.

Sausalito School District showed the sharpest percentage decline, 20 per cent. The new enrollment of 705 was down 171 from last year.

John F. Plank superintendent of the San Rafael Elementary and High School District, and Robert D. Torrey, acting superintendent of the Tamalpais High School District, agreed that housing costs and highway improvement have been factors in downward enrollment.

Most of the cheap land for construction in southern Marin, where the Tamalpais district is located, has been developed and prices of houses are rising, forcing many parents with children to move to another area, Torrey said. Freeway improvements have allowed parents to live in Northern Marin and commute to San Francisco, he added.

Torrey and Plank both said they thought the nation-wide "tight money" situation makes it too costly for many parents to purchase expensive homes in the county.

Nationally, the enrollment trend is down, said the two largely because the children of the post World War II baby boom are in or past hight school. Plank thinks the rate will rise again in the late 1970s when the children of the war babies reach elementary and high school age.

Wide-spread use of birth control pills in recent years probably also has contributed to the national down trend, they said.

Other elementary districts that enrolled fewer pupils were Dixie, 4,709, down 158; Fairfax, 1,078, down 54; Laguna, 16, down seven; Lagunitas, 479, down 25; Larkspur, 1,697, down 31; Mill Valley, 3,539, down 19; Nicasio, 47, down four; Reed, 2,036, down eight and Ross, 497, down 12.

Novato Unified School District's elementary schools enrollment declined 131 to 6,667, but the district's junior high enrollment rose 131 to 2,640 students and those in high school increased by three to 2,235.

The only other unified school district, brand new Shoreline, also showed a gain, with Tomales High School up 50 to 251 and the component elementary schools gaining 25 for a total of 619.

Other school districts that had more pupils were San Rafael High with 3,972, up 56; Kentfield, 1,488, up 15; San Anselmo, 2,157, up 15; Bolinas-Stinson, 151, up eight; Lincoln, 14, up two; Union, 12, up two.

Cotati district has 1,661 elementary students up 17 from last years, and Old Adobe 1,268, up 203. Petaluma Elementary School District has 3,379 up 212; Petaluma High School District has 4,868 up 159.

Among private schools the trend was generally up, Clairbourn Marin School at 35, up 17; Marin Country Day School, 361, up 61; San Rafael Military Academy, 185, up 6; Katharine Branson School, 141, up one; Shasta School 35, down 10; Three R Schools, 211, up 10; Meadowsweet School 15, no change, and Corey School, 54, up eight.

Parochial school figures for Marin County will not be compiled until the end of the month, but Marin Catholic High School reported an enrollment of 789, a drop of 15, and San Domenico School for Girls has 454 students, an increase of 14.

In southern Sonoma, St. Vincent De Paul High School has 242, down two, and the elementary school has 367, down 20.

In most schools, public and private the figures change somewhat after the first month as final figures are compiled and late enrollments are tallied.

Narcotic Remedy Held Death Cause

A home remedy for a narcotic reaction apparently caused the mysterious drowning death of James Michael Letsos last Wednesday, authorities said today.

Lt. Guido Battaglia said the death appears to have been an accidental drowning in the youth's shower.

Battaglia said Letsos, 21, came home early Wednesday morning, apparently suffering from a reaction to heroin.

Shouts of "Come on down, I need some help," brought Letsos's roommate, Robert G. Wright, 20, to the patio area of the Sausalito apartment house where the youths lived. Letsos was unconscious. A 17-year-old companion — Thomas Ayres of Fairfax — by his side.

Battaglia said Wright and another roommate, Charles W. Bischoff, 19, told sheriff's deputies Letsos had previously reacted badly to a heroin injection and they had taken him to Marin General for treatment.

After he recovered, he told them never to take him to the hospital again, the roommates told officers.

This time, Wright and Bischoff put the youth in the shower and sprayed hot and cold water alternately for times varying from five to 15 minutes. Battaglia said.

After that, the roommates said, he seemd to be all right so they put him to bed and went out to eat. When they returned they decided to give him another shower treatment and also poured a jug of ice water on him, Battaglia said.

The roommates told officers he again seemed to revive and they put him back to bed, Battaglia said. They discovered him dead about 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Battaglia noted the story given earlier by the roommates, that they had been out all evening, had returned about 4 a.m. and hadn't noticed whether Letsos was home, was proved false by other residents of the Eden Roc Apartments.

Actually, Battaglia said, there had been a party at the apartment and it broke up about 11:20 after a fight between Letsos and his brother, Mathew M. Letsos, 18.

After that, the elder Letsos and another youth went into Sausalito for a time, Battaglia said.

Battaglia reported Letsos died less than six hours prior to the beginning of the investigation at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. A needlemark on his inner arm was believed made within 24 hours of the start of the investigation.

Pathology reports on the type of water that caused the drowning and on the possibility of drugs in the youth's body have not been returned, Battaglia said.

Check Writing Suspect Booked

A Southern Marin man was arrested Friday by Mill Valley police on suspicion of forgery after he allegedly cashed $122 in checks on another man's bank account.

David Eugene Schaeffer, 26, of 120 Marin View Avenue, Mount Tamalpais, was booked into Marin County Jail. He was scheduled to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Police said that Martin C. Beard, a past resident of the house in which Schaeffer now lives complained that someone was using a check book he apparently had left behind when he moved.

Employees of the Village Music Store in Mill Valley where some checks were cashed identified Schaeffer as the person who had written the checks, police said.

101 Crash Is Fatal To Marin Driver

Richard Charles Franz, 58, of 904 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, a cabinet maker, was killed Saturday when his car crashed into a guard rail at the southbound Highway 101 offramp to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that Franz apparently was making a lastminute attempt to take the offramp when his car crashed into the guard rail at 9:20 p.m.

The front end of his car was imbedded in the guard rail and he was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 9:41 p.m.

Dr. R. L. Tuckey of 16 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, a dentist, who was driving southbound behind Franz, told officers Franz's car swerved toward the off ramp "at the last minute" and hit the guard rail head-on. Franz's car had been weaving from the top of California Park hill, Tuckey said.

Officers said Franz had been driving under the influence of alcohol and misjudged the offramp.

Franz's death was the 22nd traffic fatalis this year as compared to 24 at this time last year.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Sebastian's Church, Greenbrae, with burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Novatan, 18, Arrested In Marijuana Case

An 18-year-old Novato man was arrested on suspicion of various drug charges and two minor girls were cited to juvenile authorities at 11:09 p.m., Friday, Novato police reported.

Booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of possession of marijuana, possession of narcotics paraphernalia, and contributing to the delinquency of minors, was Valient Gale Nims III of 94 Washington Street. He was released on $625 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

The two minor girls with him were cited to juvenile authorities for violation of curfew and being in a place where marijuana was used.

Police found the three in a car in the back of the lot of the Short Stop market at South Novato Boulevard and Rowland Boulevard, police reported. A search of Nims showed several hand rolled cigarettes thought to be marijuana, a pipe, cigarette papers, three pink tablets and loose marijuana seeds, police reported.

Patrol Pursues Teen Driver At 130 MPH

A 17-year-old Corte Madera youth who said he wanted to see how fast his car would go, according to the California Highway Patrol, was cited to Juvenile Hall early today after he led patrolmen on a chase with speeds reported up to 130 miles per hour.

Gerald Clair Crane, 17, of 2 Palm Avenue, was cited at 1 a.m. for reckless driving, evading arrest and having no driver's license in his possession.

The patrol said a squad car began pursuit of Crane's sports car at the Richardson Bay Bridge. The pursuit car accelerated to 110 miles per hour, the patrol said, but Crane's car was pulling away. The patrol car finally moved up on Crane when it went to 130 miles an hour.

When the siren and red light went on, the patrol said Crane accelerated, then slowed to 90 miles per hour and went off the Irwin Street exit into San Rafael. He went through the light at Irwin and Second streets at a speed of about 55 m.p.h. the patrol said. The youth tried to turn onto Second but instead bounced into a service station, raced through the pump area and skidded back onto Irwin before spinning out.

Neither Crane nor a passenger was injured.

Crane told patrolmen "he was going nowhere and just wanted to see how fast the car would go." He also, according to the patrolmen, said he tried to get away because of a bad driving record which included a court-ordered restriction of his driving to trips to and from work.

The other youth was released to his parents.

Sewer Area Annex Vote Tomorrow

Residents in a northeast section of Tiburon will vote tomorrow on whether to annex to the Corte Madera Sanitary District and hook up to the Corte Madera sewer system.

Residents on Taylor Road and Antoinette Drive, above Paradise Drive and west of Paradise Cay will vote on the annexation at the sole polling place, the Bertram H. Hirsch garage at 4949 Paradise Drive, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. The area has 79 registered voters.

Residents are now served by septic tanks and a Marin County public health official said last spring that "sewage is running all over the place." The election was ordered after 18 of 72 registered voters then in the area objected to the proposed annexation. The objectors said the septic tanks are adequate and that sewering expenses will be too great.

Sewering costs, Corte Madera Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher said, will be $2,000 to $3,000 per property, with additional annexation fees of $250 per acre and $156 connecting fees. In addition, each owner would pay for lines on his own property to meet the public sewer.

School Enrollment On Hub's Agenda

A report on initial enrollment for 1969-70 will be presented to the San Anselmo School District board when it meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Red Hill School library.

Some first graders who attended kindergarten at Yolansdale School, will be transferred to other schools, Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said, because Yolansdale has two kindergarten classes but only one class in each higher grade.

Gunfire Report Leads To Arrest Of Two Petalumans

Two Petaluma youths were arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon after an argument erupted in gunfire late last night.

Stanley L. DeMartinis, 20, of 408 Fair Street, and Donald R. Chassereau, 20, of 180 Cherry Street, were scheduled for arraignment today in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court. Police said they would also be charged with possession of alcoholic beverages.

Police were called at 11:43 p.m. yesterday to 513 Jefferson Street, Petaluma, where the youths were having an argument with Jerry and Barbara Guyer. Guyer said that DeMartinis and Chassereau threatened them with knives and a gun.

Police said a .22-caliber rifle found in their car had been fired twice either into the house or into the air. A 17-year-old girl with the youths was arrested for violation of curfew and possession of alcoholic beverages and sent to Sonoma County Juvenile Hall, Santa Rosa.

An Oil Tanker Opens The Northwest Passage

A huge ice-breaking oil tanker, forcing its way through Arctic seas toward Alaska, may bring to reality a dream five centuries old: that of the Northwest Passage.

The Manhattan, financed principally by Humble Oil Co., sailed on Aug. 24 from Chester, Pa. It is to reach Point Barrow, Alaska, on Saturday — if it can force its way through the ice on schedule.

If it reaches its destination, the Manhattan will be the first commercial vessel ever to negotiate the Northwest Passage, in search of which generations of explorers suffered and died when the New World was really new.

EARLY IN THE 16TH Century, it became apparent to European explorers and their backers that Christopher Columbus and the men who followed him had not reached the Indies as they believed, and that Giovanni Caboto, the Italian who sailed from Bristol under the Anglicized name of John Cabot, had not reached the Asian mainland as he thought when he made a landfall at Cape Breton in 1497.

As other explorers inched their way around Africa and South America, the search was pressed for a shorter route to the fabulous wealth of the East — via the northern seas, the Northwest Passage.

IN 1527, the English merchant Robert Thorne wrote: "There is only one way to discover, which is into the north. For out of Spain they have discovered all the Indies and seas occidental, and out of Portugal all the Indies and seas oriental."

Martin Frobisher thought he had found the passage when he sailed the Gabriel into Hudson Strait in 1576. John Davis followed Frobisher's route three times in the following decade, but only succeeded in wandering up the west coast of Greenland into Baffin Bay.

HENRY HUDSON was sure he had found the passage when he sailed his little vessel, the Discovery, through Hudson Strait in 1610 and saw a vast expanse of water extending south and west before him. But his mutinous crew set him adrift in an open boat and sailed the Discovery back to England.

The mutineers' story revived the dream of a Northwest Passage anew. Instead of being hanged, they were sent out with new expeditions to trace Hudson's route to what he thought was the Pacific but was only Hudson's Bay.

Then, after a series of searches still farther north for a route, the last by Luke Foxe and Thomas James in 1631, the hunt for a Northwest Passage was abandoned. The trade of East and West continued the long way around Cape Horn or the Cape of Good Hope until the Panama Canal was cut through in 1913.

NOT UNTIL 1906 did any vessel thread the ice through the Arctic seas from east to west around America. Then explorer Roald Amundsen accomplished it in a three-year voyage of exploration, wintering on the ice.

This was far from putting a commercial vessel over the dreamed-of route, however. Even the voyage of the nuclear submarine Nautilus under the polar ice in 1958 was far from accomplishing what Cabot and those who followed him sought to do centuries ago.

The Air Age brought the polar route into use, with planes flying from Los Angeles and San Francisco via Greenland to Europe. But it has remained for the tanker Manhattan to make what may prove to be the first commercial sea voyage over the short route from east to west.

BEHIND THE MANHATTAN'S effort is not only 20th Century technology, but also the discovery of a vast oil pool on the north slope of Alaska — riches under the ground which call for transportation to the markets of the world more quickly than by the long way around.

This oil discovery — from which the State of Alaska benefited by nearly a billion dollars in the sale of leases last week — may prove the final spur to open up the great north to waterborne commerce and make the old dream of a Northwest Passage at last come true.

"Just as I thought—PRINTER'S INK!. The whole Santa Barbara channel oil spill was exaggerated by the press!"

New Grab For Federal Money —Out Of Taxpayers' Pockets

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Federal fund grabbing in California has long been a habit, and like most habits, it gets worse with the passage of years.

Now, the habit appears to be reaching the ultimate, with the passage by the Senate and Assembly during the veto legislative session of a resolution by none other than the speaker of the Assembly, Robert T. Monagan, R-Tracy.

The resolution memorializes Congress to amend the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968 specifically to permit state legislatures to receive funds to carry out studies for the federal government.

Speaker Monagan, immediately after adjournment of the veto session, hopped a plane for Washington, D.C., armed with the resolution and testimony he planned to submit to the Muskie Senate subcommittee on intergovernemnt relations, to "help bolster the case for state legislatures."

CALIFORNIA already has had a taste of federal money allocated specifically to the Legislature. This was the first state to receive such an appropriation.

It so happens that this first grant to a state legislature for research was for a highly worthy cause — $750,000 for a study of the feasibility of steam-propelled buses as an anti-air pollution effort.

The study is under way in the Lear plant north of Reno, Nev., which has a bus torn down to receive a steam engine which as yet has not been constructed. At least, they're working on it, which is a hopeful sign in the war against smog.

HOWEVER, the worthiness of this particular research project is more than likely to set the pattern for research projects which may or may not be vital or important to the welfare of the states.

Already, the federal government on its own has expended hundreds of millions of dollars on research of various types, the over-all value of which is questionable.

IT IS ALWAYS a pleasure for a state politician to say the federal government's paying the bill, and for a local politician to point out the state's paying the bill for some local research project.

This process, however, merely avoids mention of the fact that the taxpayer is paying the bill.

The long list of projects for which federal money is used in California, including highways, education, welfare, agriculture, and many others, is no more than California's due, considering the amount of money Washington siphons out of this state.

On the other hand, adding a new category in directly appropriating to a legislature opens the door for the disposal of more millions in direct allocations to the legislature, which ultimately, the taxpayer must provide.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

National Heritage Of Genuine Value

In all the publicity I have read, or heard about, pertaining to discussions of high school and college curriculum, nobody has mentioned a study of national heritage; therefore, I shall be so presumptuous as to suggest a study of — the value of a national heritage — the key word of which is "value."

In relation to "a national heritage" it is an abstract value that cannot be measured in money; or, in terms of self aggrandizement; or, something to barter for another value; or, in any way associated with the modern concept that value indicates material wealth. To some persons, a national heritage may have no significance whatsoever, nor any value. To others, it may be cherished as a very personal asset. . . .

Were I to be asked for a definition of the "value of a national heritage," it could be stated in three, simple words — inspiration and pride. Pride in their record of setting high standards of manhood and womanhood; pride in their lofty goals, attained in creating a strong nation; pride in their resourcefulness and industry; pride in their field of liberal arts; pride in their favorable standing in the council of nations; pride in the contribution they have made in the cause of human relations, understanding and social justice; pride in their economic, political, academic and social foundations. . . .

The fusion of these traits and characteristics into a national heritage, of which I have an attachment, is a profound inspiration. Their exemplary family and community life, is inspiring. By their devotion to the principles of integrity and Christian moral conduct, I have derived inspiration. And finally, I am inspired and proud of a national heritage that gave liberties to freemen, by people who are proud of what they are and the ideals for which they stand. These historic achievements of progress and excellence, brightly reflects the real value of "a national heritage."

Nixon's Administration Again Humbles Itself

(Reprinted from St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

Once again the Nixon administration has humiliated itself in public through lack of fortitude to stand up to opposition in key appointments. As in Secretary Finch's celebrated fumble in the Knowles case this one is in the sensitive field of public health, and it carries the additional discredit of political interference by the White House with an independent and quasi-judicial regulatory agency.

Dr. John Adriani's appointment as director of the Bureau of Medicine in the Food and Drug Administration has been withdrawn under pressure on the president's office three weeks after he accepted it. A source close to the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee which has been investigating the drug industry said Deputy Commissioner Rankin of FDA told Dr. Adriani that pressure from the drug industry against his appointment was too great for the administration to ignore.

The Food and Drug Administration is not supposed to be the President's boy; it is supposed to be its own man. If the FDA commissioner cannot appoint his key staff members except at the pleasure of the industry the agency is charged with regulating, why an FDA at all?

Dr. Adriani had, it is true, expressed an extreme position about the labeling of drugs. In his testimony May 20 to the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee he quotes himself: "I said brand names should be abolished; they were aliases and deceptive and confusing and served no useful purpose."

We cannot blame the pharmaceutical industry for disagreeing with this view of brand names, nor do we agree with it ourselves. Brand names are private property, many of them exceedingly valuable private property; we suspect that any attempt to deprive their owners of them would be unconstitutional, and in any event we do not believe Dr. Adriani would have had the slightest chance of bringing it about. We agree with him that every drug should be labeled with its generic name, so that physicians will not be made parties to price-gouging and patients can avail themselves of the lowest among competitive prices for the same drug.

In any case, Dr. Adriani's disagreement with the drug industry on brand names does not warrant the shameful decision to let the industry veto his appointment. He possesses impressive credentials for the FDA post. He is professor of surgery and pharmacology at Louisiana State University, at Baton Rouge, professor of surgery at Tulane University, at New Orleans, and chairman of the Council on Drugs of the American Medical Association.

It would in our opinion be the most advantageous for all concerned if the Nixon administration quit trying to play politics with the regulatory agencies, if the FDA revived the spirit of independence, and if Dr. Adriani were restored to the post for which he is the agency's choice.

Fear Of Freedom Drives Russ Leaders Into New Excesses

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

They aren't afraid their regime will be overthrown by force.

They are afraid it will be overthrown by freedom.

THE REPRESSION Moscow is forcing the new and pliant Czech government to impose on its people reveals a Russian colonialist mentality blatantly at variance with its anticolonial propaganda.

If the Soviet Union wanted to end colonialism — as it says it does — it could do its share by ending it in Czechoslovakia, and elsewhere in Eastern Europe.

The strongest evidence of Russian fear of freedom of thought, let alone freedom of expression and action, is the series of steps taken to pretend that the Red army occupied Czechoslovakia at the request of a legitimate Czech government and is now helping a legitimate Czech government suppress anti-Communist and anti-Soviet traitors.

This is a fabrication designed to justify the unprovoked invasion. There isn't a single fact which can be dredged up to support it. It is published widely in the Soviet Union and in controlled Czech press and known for what it is in most of the Free World. The number of Russians who doubt its truthfulness may be considerable.

THE LATEST contribution which the Kremlin is making to "protect" the Czech people is to have summoned the Czech prosecutor general to Moscow to blueprint for him how best to get rid of those "Czech traitors" who refuse to proclaim that they wanted the Red army tanks to come in and take over. Apparently Moscow wanted to make sure that Alexander Dubcek and other liberal leaders who wanted to improve communism, not destroy it, would be dealt with as "anti-Socialists and anti-Soviet criminals," not merely as political dissidents.

The Soviet leaders know what they have in mind — and so do the pre-occupation Czech leaders. They weep but they do not cringe.

Obviously the Kremlin can get any of the officials of the Czech regime it brought into being after the invasion to lie for it. But that does it little good as propaganda gloss. These are the Czechs eager to do Moscoe's bidding. But to this day there is not a single Czech authority in power at the time of the occupation who has been either cajoled or coerced to say that anyone in the government wanted the Russian army to save Czechoslovakia from the Czechoslovakians. After ousting the Czech-chosen government and having installed the Russian-chosen government, the Kremlin then directed the obedient Czech regime to turn on the Czech students who dared to show thatt hey didn't like the Red army invasion. Whereupon the Czechs who wanted their nation to have the independence which Russian officials, three days before the invasion, claimed they totally respected, suddenly became "traitors" and have to be bludgeoned into submission.

WHY DO the Russians feel they have to go to such lengths to erect such a make-believe facade behind which their military colonialism is played out?

Do they expect to fool the Czechs? Hardly. Do they expect to befuddle the Free World? Not likely. Do they expect to persuade the Russian people the occupation was a fraternal act which the Czechs asked for? They almost certainly do because while the Kremlin is apparently determined to crush Czech liberalization, it is afraid to let its own people fully understand what it is doing.

Some Russians have dared to protest openly in Red Square against the Soviet Union's invasion of Czechoslovakia, and when a people begin to lose their fear of a dictatorship, the dictatorship is in danger.

Today the Soviet leaders in the Kremlin are exhibiting a double fear. They are afraid of freedom — even a neighbor's freedom — and they are afraid to let the Russian people know they are afraid of freedom.

Anti-Inflation Boys Are At It Again

I recently heard on a radio show the boys in Washington approved $36 million to refurbish the White House. Our anti-inflation champions are at it again! Still no loud outcry from the public yet. I guess pocketbooks don't hurt enough yet. It seems to me that the only thing our senators and congressmen on state and federal levels are champions of are their own bank accounts.

House Democrats Eye End Of McCormack's Reign

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Speaker John W. McCormack already has established that he can lick any man in the House. Many members assume he won't feel the need to prove it again by seeking election as speaker for a sixth time. So the question now is, who will succeed him?

At the moment the liberal bloc looks to pint-sized Rep. Carl Albert, D-Okla., now the Democratic floor leader, as the heir apparent and duly entitled successor. Conservatives are pushing Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. Others have their lightning rods up.

McCORMACK is 77. He will be 79 at the start of the 92nd Congress. He has been speaker since 1962. But when popular Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., who is 46, challenged him this year on the ground the job demanded a younger man, House Democrats gave Udall only 58 votes to McCormack's 178.

Since January, with the rebellion quelled, the veteran speaker has continued to demonstrate the kind of stamina that makes men decades his junior groan as the House legislates into the night.

BUT AFTER analyzing January's unsuccessful uprising, the activist liberals now conclude that as long as McCormack offers himself for the job he can have it — assuming continued Democratic control of the House. They are planning now on a belief he will not again ask for what is generally considered to be the nation's second most responsible job.

So the maneuvering has begun on behalf of possible successors.

Mills, a solid conservative, is mentioned prominently among them. Once thought to have forfeited his chance at the speaker's post when he signed an anti-integration "southern manifesto" after the 1954 Supreme Court school ruling, Mills confounded the liberals recently when he drafted, sponsored, and pushed through the House a tax reform bill embracing such long-sought liberal goals as a reduced depletion allowance on oil.

The liberals are by no means happy with Albert. They say that as leader, the traditional stepping stone to the speakership, he has failed to take a vigorous grip on the job — possibly because of a heart attack he suffered in 1966 and a slow recovery.

WITH 125 to 140 votes of the current Democratic House strength of 244, the organized liberal bloc can't elect a speaker on its own. What it can do is block an election. That would appear to let out Mills. It gives Albert a leg up on the job.

Current liberal strategy is to go along with the "escalator" and help elect Albert. At the same time the liberals will concentrate on putting their own man in as leader, thus installing him on the road to the top.

'Save Our Seashore' Luckier In Initials Than Predecessor

The determined drive to have the federal government buy all 54,000 acres of Point Reyes National Seashore is spearheaded by a lively group which calls itself "Save Our Seashore."

It's similar to the recent Save Our Bay group that bombarded Sacramento with protests against indiscriminate filling of our shorelines.

One big advantage that the Save Our Seashore group has over the Save Our Bay organization is the catchy contraction "SOS," which is not only a contraction of the organization name but also can be interpreted to mean: Help, save the seashore before the bulldozers chop it up.

Not so with the Save Our Bay group. Unfortunately, the name did not lend itself to any graceful contraction, at least not by its supporters.

POLITICAL ASPIRANTS need a good springboard from which to launch their campaigns for public office. Save Our Seashore may be just the thing for former County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, who is the driving force behind the SOS signature and petition campaign. Behr, as you know, has been frequently mentioned for higher public office, notably the state Senate seat held by Sen. John F. McCarthy.

Another man you can't count out is former Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, who is also rumored to be interested in the state Senate.

MANPOWER TRAINING and hiring in Marin has been handled by so many different agencies, many overlapping, that it's been one confusing mess.

But order may be coming out of the chaos. Robert Lomax, new executive director of the Economic Opportunity Council, is reported quietly at work to coordinate all manpower activities — a central list of the unemployed, a list of job opportunities, and how to match up the two. It's going to be quite a job, but he may be the man to do it.

PETER FARB, author of a series of books on ecology, forests, insects and wildlife in North America, was prowling around the Civic Center the other day, conferring with supervisors and other county officials.

Frank Torr, retired Air Force colonel who took over as airport manager at Gnoss Field, is an ambitious guy. He's been taking night courses at Golden Gate College in San Francisco for several years and is just about ready for a master's degree in business administration.

Traffic Jam Is Caused By Fair Goers

The Renaissance Pleasure Faire in Santa Venetia Wood drew such a crowd yesterday that it caused a major traffic tie-up on Highway 101.

The California Highway Patrol reported that northbound traffic was brought to a halt from the North San Pedro Road offramp, leading to the fair, to California Park Hill.

At about 2 p.m. there were cars lined up from Highway 101 to the fairgrounds, more than three miles away. Officers said there were about 850 cars lined up and only about 300 parking spaces left at the fair parking lot.

At 2:15 p.m. the patrol broke the log jam on Highway 101 closing the North San Pedro Road offramp, advising motorists there was no room at the fair.

The fair reportedly had 5,000 parking spaces available.

Inquiring Minds Of The Young Vs. Closed Predilections Of Elders

One of my favorite pastimes is conversing with young people. Not the very young but those between the ages of 12 and 20 or so. I don't mean talking to them. I mean conversing, which I define as the pleasurable exchange of ideas.

This, for me, is a thoroughly enjoyable experience for I find these young minds, for the most part, infinitely more interesting than the placid, unimaginative and obtuse minds in which so many adults seem to take so much pride.

And I confess I'm a bit envious of the young, for they are far more sophisticated and more aware, generally, than I was at their age. As I painfully recall, I was frightfully naive and particularly uninformed. I didn't really begin thinking about things or attempt to consciously relate and dovetail ideas with facts until I was about 17.

WHAT A JOLT that was!

I discovered that many adults had been lying to me all along — that is, they had been telling me that which they themselves did not believe, didn't practice, and had not thought through or examined.

The second jolt, the unkindest jolt of all, came when I realized they had been deluding themselves as well!

I'm sure it would have been easier for me to take had I found they knew they had been lying all the while. They could have easily explained, saying I had been too young to understand, or my mind wasn't ready yet for the hard truths and so on. But to come to the realization they had genuinely believed the tripe they were passing on — well, it was too much!

I wonder if the young of today will become the liars of tomorrow. If so, what causes such an intellectual about-face? What causes an active, curious mind to lose its adventurous spirit and deaden its dynamism? What makes a mind accept a particular idea without examination, without evaluation, and to hold to it dearly regardless of devastating arguments against it?

It's depressing when this occurs, as it so often does; it's a forfeiture of one's self.

WHEN YOU CEASE wondering, when you cease exploring the vast regions available to the human mind, you cease being human, human in the true and complete sense. For it isn't two legs and walking upright that stamps you human, nor is it building roads or having thumbs. It is thought, thought probing deeply into the meaning of concepts that removes the human from the brute and moves him toward the divine.

I believe this is the genuine significance of being human.

I am not suggesting that everyone should be a mental giant — some of us simply do not have the equipment — nor am I saying that every man should be a Newton, an Einstein or a Bach. The hewers of wood and the carriers of water are needed too. But I do think every man owes it to himself to use his mind to the very best of his ability all of his life. That's all.

But then, that's enough.

Not to do so, to use a crude analogy, is like owning a Rolls Royce and not fueling it to make it go. To let it sit in the backyard and have it used as a chicken coop is a criminal waste. To permit the ideas of others to come and roost indiscriminately is a depravity.

Pond Cleared Of Dead Fish

BERKELEY (UPI) — Work crews have removed thousands of fish who died mysteriously and floated to the surface of the salt water pond in Berkeley's Aquatic Park.

Striped bass, smelt and perch had washed up on the shores or floated in the pond and caused a heavy ordor in the area during the weekend.

The city's public health and park officials believe the fish were killed by a lack of oxygen in the water as a result of warm weather, low tides and algae.

State fish and game investigators think industrial pollution caused the deaths. But city manager William Hanley said recent completion of drainage improvements would not have allowed the waters to be polluted.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Forms Of Bronchitis Can Start From Odd Hobbies, Occupations

cynczcforms of bronchitis

Many forms of allergic bronchitis stem from unusual occupations or hobbies. Bird handlers, especially pigeon breeders, are known to develop pneumonitis due to a hypersensitivity to pigeons or their droppings. Most of the victims have been exposed, often daily, to this material for many years.

VAN DELLEN

During the acute phase of the disease, there are chills, fever, cough, and shortness of breath lasting up to 18 hours after exposure to the birds. Muscular aching also is noted. The severity and duration of the attack depend upon the degree of sensitivity. The chest X-ray may be abormal and a skin reaction to an injection of pigeon serum usually is positive.

MOST of the breeders suspect allergy because respiratory distress occurs whenever they are exposed to pigeon material. A blood test also helps to confirm their suspicions. On avoiding the pigeons, the symptoms disappear. The disease is worth mentioning, considering that there are 75,000 pigeon breeders in the United States.

Farmer's lung is a related disorder in which cough and shortness of breath follow exposure to hay and grain at a time when the crops are moldy. Fungi are suspected but there is no proof that an association exists. An allergy to bagasse, a fibrous material used in the manufacture of wallboard and paper may trigger the same symptoms. Maple bark disease and sequoiosis stem from sensitivity to the dusts produced by these trees. Mushroom pickers may develop cough and shortness of breath after inhaling certain actinomyces in the mushroom compost.

PIGEON breeders' disease should not be confused with psittacosis, a viral infection acquired from infected parrots, parakeets, pigeons, chickens, and other birds. The latter resembles a severe influenza and is not due to an allergy.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

WEIGHT AND ARTHRITIS

Mrs. T. T. writes: I have arthritis and my doctor has me on a starvation diet to lose weight. I'm hungry and weak all the time and the pain in my back and hips is no better. Should I continue this treatment?

REPLY

Give it a fair trial. Slight alterations in the diet may help you to avoid hunger and weakness.

ECZEMA AT 58

REPLY

Yes, but be thankful you did not develop it earlier in life. The word eczema includes a hodgepodge of of skin diseases, but the most common cause is allergy to foods or chemicals. It may persist until culprit is found and elminated.

LEG ULCERS

Mrs. N. T. I. writes: What can be done for open sore son the legs of an oldster who is confined to a wheelchair?

REPLY

Leg ulcers require professional treatment. Meanwhile, the legs should be elevated to minimize congestion. Healing is promoted by eliminating inflammation and improving circulation.

RECOVERING FROM RF

Mrs. C. B. writes: If a young adult contracts rheumatic fever, can complete recovery be expected?

REPLY

Fifty per cent recover completely. Twenty-five per cent develop residual scars of a heart valve and in 25 per cent, the heart damage is severe enough to cause symptoms.

Today's Health Hint—

19 Killed In Airliner Crash

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — A Brazilian airliner crashed in southern Brazil yesterday, killing 19 persons, according to reports reaching Sao Paulo.

Authorities said there was only one survivor, the pilot, who was badly wounded.

All aboard were believed to have been Brazilians.

The DC3 was operated by Companhia Aviacion Aerea Sao Paulo . It was en route from Londrina to Sao Paulo when it developed mechanical trouble and the pilot decided to turn back.

Authorities said the plane crashed and burned before it reached Londrina.

Progress Sign, Not Festival

The sign on the back wall of the Mobil Service Station on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Pacheco Avenue in Fairfax advertises the Fairfax Congress for Community Progress, not the Fairfax Festival.

Priscilla Gray, publicity director for the festival which will be held Saturday and Sunday, reported complaints about the sign have been coming to the festival committee.

The congress, a town meeting to be held Oct. 11, has no connection with the festival.

What this country needs is a little less piggyness.

Do you know what could happen if everyone were just a little less piggy? We'd cool inflation. Inflation can be stopped.

Of course, Government must do the big part. But, as shoppers, voters, wage earners, and businessmen, each of us can help just by being a little less piggy.

So let's do it, let's all stop inflation. Find out more about this problem and what you can do about it.

TV REVIEW

Cosby Is Above Par At Start

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Bill Cosby's new half-hour NBC-TV series, which arrived last night to open the television season, gave an indication of intelligent thinking behind it.

The actor-comedian knows precisely who he is, and what he does that is unique, and therefore it obviously would have been wrong for him to do the standard situation comedy, with dumb routine plot, snickering cuteness and giggles.

His chief talent is as a superb storyteller, contemporary in flavor, and with tales that often offer warmth and human insight. How, then, to beat the situation comedy obstacle?

Cosby's premiere overcame the hurdle by simply not being a "situation" comedy. The press releases had billed him as playing a high school physical education teacher, and surely this will come more to the fore in future episodes.

But in the opener, the special qualities of Cosby were achieved by essentially making the show an extended monologue in plot form—so that what emerged was, rather than situation comedy, a show that could be described as "incident" comedy, with vignette as the crux. If this can be maintained in the future episodes, it will open the door to a more adult and satisfying form of video series humor.

All that happened in the premiere was that Cosby was out jogging, chatting with himself amiably (monologue) as he went along. Real streets. No laugh track. Confident of the force of his personality. Establishing immediately a sense of the absurdity of the human comedy.

He answers an outdoor pay phone when it rings. A Good Samaritan, before he knows it he is tracking down a guy for his wife, who placed the call to find her spouse. He finds the guy, gets involved in his problems, and doesn't want to.

He finally breaks off from the guy, resumes jogging, and is mistaken by patrol car cops for a wanted thief. The more he opens his mouth, the deeper he puts himself in trouble. He's funny, and the easy assumption of guilt adds a wry effect. His only alibi is the guy he broke off from.

Cosby is cleared, of course. And the sense of "incident" is small but well rounded off.

More standard was another NBC-TV debut last night, "The Bold Ones," an hour trilogy about doctors, lawyers and cops, alternating weekly in the same time slot. The opener dealt with a possible transplant operation and an old-style doctor who fought for the life of his potential donor patient. You could tell he was old-style; he knew his patient's first name.

Marin Elevens 'Baptized'

Sports

FOURTH SECTION Monday, Sept. 15, 1969 31

All the Marin County Athletic League football contenders got their feet wet in scrimmages Saturday and it seems nobody found the water too cold.

San Marin got its first taste of any kind of varsity competition when the Mastangs took on Kennedy High of Richmond, a strong, experienced team expected to be tough in the Alameda Athletic League. The Mustangs did not faint dead away or roll over.

THREE BREAKWAYS

"They scored four times on us," coach Bob Martin said. "But three of those were on breakaways. They had only one sustained drive of any kind."

"We were a little disappointed offensively," Martin said. "We scored only once, but on the whole, I thought we looked pretty good."

San Marin's close relative at Novato High School also had a fairly tough time of it, failing to score against a big San Leandro team, but the results were not that disappointing. There were some real standouts for the thin, defending, champion Hornets.

Dave Perron, an all-league linebacker last season, showed his offensive muscle, catching six passes as he and Dave Judnick turned out to be the main targets in a strong passing showing by quarterback Brett Bilsboro, making his first try at varsity competition.

The Hornets also got outstanding blocking from San Rafael transfer Dennis Reece, a fullback, and good running out of halfback Ray Bresnan.

Art Herrnberger, a tackle, suffering a neck injury and is awaiting X-rays to determine the extent of the injury while guard Bob Larsen suffered a bruised calf.

"They were pretty big and pretty good," Trojan coach Don Lucas said. "We made two mistakes and it cost us a couple of touchdowns."

As it was, both teams scored twice and Terra Lindans Matt Bowman and Mike Bridges nailed down first-string jobs, Bowman as tailback and Bridges as fullback.

Drake, another contender for the loop crown, flexed its muscle a little, blanking Encinal of Alameda while scoring three touchdowns, with two more scores called back.

Sophomore tackle John Se-

Old Man Wilhelm's Magic

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

When, 25 years or so from now, they finally write Hoyt Wilhelm's pitching epilogue, they can call it The Old Man And The Knuckleball.

Wilhelm, who makes a baseball do tricks by digging his carefully-filed nails into its seams, came to Atlanta last week and in three appearances with the pennant-conscious Braves, he has one victory and two saves.

The victory for the 46-year-old reliever who is in his 18th major league season, came yesterday when Rico Carty rifled a pair of home runs that gave the Braves a 3-2 triumph over Houston.

It was the sixth straight victory for Atlanta and left the Braves 1½ games in front of both Los Angeles and San Francisco in the sizzling National League West race.

KEEP PACE

The Dodgers and Giants both kept pace with the front-running Braves, who haven't lost since acquiring Wilhelm on waivers from California. Los Angeles knocked off San Diego 3-1 and San Francisco took Cincinnati 5-3.

New York retained its 3½-game lead in the East Division. The Mets lost to Pittsburgh 5-3 but lost no ground to Chicago, which dropped a 2-1 decision to St. Louis in 10 innings. Montreal ripped Philadelphia 7-2 in the other N.L. game yesterday.

In the American League, East Division champion Baltimore beat Cleveland 7-3, Chicago took a doubleheader from Oakland 12-8 and 9-8, Kansas City clipped Minnesota 4-3, California took Seattle 4-2, Detroit beat Washington 7-4 in 12 innings, and Boston edged New York 3-2.

MARVELS

Paul Richards, the Braves' vice president who picked up Wilhelm from the Angels, marveled at the old pitcher.

"Lee MacPhail (general manager of the New York Yankees) said Wilhelm would pitch until he's 50 and it looks like he will," said Richards.

A LOSING RUN

Oakland running back Charley Smith was hauled down for a loss by Houston Oiler Elvin Bethea during the Raiders' AFL opener at the Coliseum yesterday. Smith wound up in the plus column with his running, scoring in the first quarter on a sweep in a 21-17 Oakland win. (AP Wirephoto)

Big Blow To A's Chances

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP)—The Oakland A's finally lost their first doubleheader of the season and it couldn't have come at a more inopportune time.

The A's stumbled before the White Sox 12-8 and 9-8 as their chances in the American League West all but ended.

It could have been different had the A's taken the doubleheader. Instead of falling eight games behind the Minnesota Twins, who dropped a 4-3 decision to Kansas City, a sweep would have put the A's only six games behind.

"It was a big loss for them," said Sox Manager Don Gutteridge "because if they had won two they'd at least be going into Minnesota all charged up and maybe the Twins would hear footsteps."

As things now stand even if the A's sweep a pair at Minnesota they'll still be six games out with the season rapidly drawing to a close.

The Athletics plan to lead off tonight's game with Lew Krausse, 7-7, or Rollie Fingers, 6-5, against Dave Boswell, 16-11.

Oakland fell behind 10-0 in the first game and fought back to get within two runs of Chicago following a five-run rally in the sixth touched off by Bob Brooks' first major league homer.

Ed Herrmann's two run double in the eighth inning put the game out of Oakland's reach.

'All Must Games,' Says King

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"It'll be a must game today, but I hate to use that term because it's getting to the point where they're all important," Giants manager Clyde King said today before the start of a two-game series with the Atlanta Braves.

"We've had five so-called must games the last two weeks and have managed to win four of them," added the San Francisco skipper. One of those four was yesterday's 5-3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds in the final 1969 meeting between the clubs.

2-1 EDGE

The victory gave the Giants a 2-1 series victory over the Reds and jumped San Francisco past Cincinnati and into third place in the National League's western division scramble, 1½ games behind Atlanta and .001 behind Los Angeles.

Southpaw Mike McCormick, 9-9, was to oppose Pat Jarvis, 11-10, in today's series opener. Juan Marichal, 18-10, takes on Ron Reed, 16-9, in the finale tomorrow night. The Braves have a 9-7 edge over the Giants entering the crucial set.

Veterans Willie Mays and Don McMahon played key roles in yesterday's success. Mays knocked in the go-ahead run with a seventh-inning single and McMahon retired the seven batters he faced for a 2-1 record as a Giant.

TYPICAL

But the club had to survive a typical frantic finish by erratic relief specialist Frank Linzy, who worked out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth and left two runners on base in the ninth before registering his 11th save.

"Boy, the Reds are tough," declared King. "You just can't catch your breath against them because the bottom of the batting order can kill you.

"McMahon was great," he added. "He's only pitched two bad games since we got him. The game left me fatigued and speechless. The way Linzy was struggling, I was just hoping he wouldn't ease up—and he didn't."

Willie McCovey's single and Dick Dietz' 11th homer gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second off loser Jim Merritt, 16-8. Bobby Tolan's two-run single and Alex Johnson's run-scoring bloop single chased starter Bob Bolin and made it 3-2 for the Reds in the fifth.

TIE IN SIXTH

Cincinnati cinched the season series with a 6-4 victory Saturday. The Reds finished with a 10-8 edge, the first over the Giants since 1961. The Reds won the pennant that year.

Lamonica Calls It 'My Worst Game'

Raiders Still Tip Houston

OAKLAND (AP) — "It was," said Daryle Lamonica, "as bad a game as I've ever had."

That the Oakland Raiders managed to survive a shaky offensive showing yesterday and beat the Houston Oilers 21-17 in the American Football League opener for both clubs was more a tribute to their fortitude than their skill.

The underdog Oilers appeared to be out of the running early when the Raiders converted two interceptions by Dave Grayson into touchdowns.

TAKE LEAD

But suddenly the Raiders found themselves unable to move the ball and the Oilers had taken the lead 17-14.

With 5:28 left in the game and the Raiders on their own 36-yard line Lamonica hit Warren Wells over the middle with a pass at the midfield stripe. Wells picked up a block from Billy Cannon and sprinted to the end zone untouched.

"I got hit on the chin as I threw it," said Lamonica. "I took a pretty good lick on it, but I was glad to see the result."

The 49,361 fans were relieved to see that their favorites, defending Western Division champions in the AFL, still could come back when they had to. They had begun to boo Lamonica because of his poor showing.

10 OF 31

The No. 2 quarterback in the AFL last year, Lamonica completed just 10 of 31 passes for 148 yards and had three passes intercepted.

"It was just one of those days," he said. "But we won and that's the big thing. I always believe in myself and that I'll come up with the big play. That's the kind of team we are. We don't fold or give up."

The Oilers nearly took the lead again after Wells' scoring catch. Quarterback Pete Beathard found rookie receiver Jerry Levias open at the 35 and with an open field ahead of him.

But Levias, whose 15-yard scoring catch had given the Oilers the 17-14 lead earlier, dropped the ball.

Celts Name Heinsohn New Coach

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics announced today appointment of Tommy Heinsohn, former Celtics scoring star, as coach of the National Basketball Association champions.

General Manager Red Auerbach announced the appointment at a news conference. Heinsohn succeeds defensive star Bill Russell who announced his resignation earlier this summer as player-coach.

Auerbach said, "Tommy has been intimately involved with the Celtics since his retirement. He has consulted with me often. He knows our personnel, and he has scouted for us."

Auerbach, who has been trying unsuccessfully to persuade Russell to return for one more season, said, "It is necessary for us to move forward for this season. We cannot wait any longer for Bill."

The general manager did indicate he was leaving the door open for Russell to return as a player, if he wants.

Heinsohn, 35, has been an insurance executive since his retirement but has kept close ties with the team.

Luke Jackson Changes Mind

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Luke Jackson has changed his mind about skipping to the American Basketball League's Carolina Cougars, deciding to continue with the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association.

Jack Ramsay, general manager and coach of the 76ers, said yesterday that the 6-foot-9 center had signed a three-year contract with the NBA club. He said that Jackson would report tomorrow at the team's pre-season training camp in Margate, N. J.

A SHORTAGE

Tars On Lookout For Big Linemen

With the start of the 1969 football season only a few days away, a desperate refrain is beginning to be heard out of the vicinity of College of Marin in Kentfield.

"I need more linemen," College of Marin coach Dick Read is wailing, and he certainly does.

Read, who has led the Tars to two titles in the past two seasons, needs some of those big fellas desperately, if all the otherwise good pieces are going to fit together.

INTRA-SQUAD

He saw the need again Saturday when the Tars knocked heads in an intra-squad scrimmage that exposed the problem all over again.

"It's going to be a little tough without a few more linemen," Read said. "You know, you get in junior college competition, people are going to take about eight plays to find out your weak spots."

Read was pleased, however, with almost all aspects of the team, and with the few (15) linemen that he does have to work with.

Kevin Wilson, the smallish former Redwood High School scrapper, will have the inside track at quarterback, where some severe pushing by another Redwood flash has made him a better quarterback.

"Kevin has worked real hard," Read said. "He's getting pushed hard by Jim Peters and he's about four times the quarterback that he was last year."

TOUGH RACE

Read is worried about "little things" like the line because he sees a tough, tough race in the Camino Norte Conference.

"It was real tight last year," Read said. "Everybody has a bunch of people coming back. We'll be right in there, but it's going to be real tough."

The Tars open play Saturday against San Jose City College, hopefully at Marin Catholic High School. Hopefully, but not altogether definitely.

"They've got the scoreboard up, and they're going to get the bleachers up early this week," Read said. "As far as I know now, we'll be playing there."

If they do play at Marin Catholic, the turf ought to feel just like the green grass of home. As a matter of fact, that's just what it is. It's the same grass that had been growing on the Tars' old field in Kentfield, cut out and transplanted to Marin Catholic. And the grandstands are the same ones that were used at Kentfield.

Wilhelm seems a cinch to make it. He's allowed just two hits in 4 2-3 innings in three appearances for the Braves. He was 5-7 with California.

Carty hit his 13th and 14th homers of the season—the second one a two-run shot with two out in the eighth that erased a 2-1 Houston lead.

It was the fourth straight loss for Houston and dropped the Astros 5½ games behind the Braves.

AHEAD

Sutton, who won his first game in a month, was touched only for a two-out ninth inning homer by Ollie Brown. The victory left the Dodgers one percentage point ahead of the Giants.

Pittsburgh ended the Mets' 10-game winning streak with pitcher Steve Blass singling home the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning and Matty Alou following with another hit for an insurance run.

Al Oliver had tripled two runs home and scored on infield out as the Pirates rushed into a 3-0 lead. But New York came back, finally tying the score on pitcher Nolan Ryan's single.

BIG HOMER

The Cubs were beaten by Lou Brock's 10th inning homer and lost their 10th game in the last 11 starts. Bob Gibson pitched the seven-hitter for the victory while Ken Holtzman was tagged with the loss.

New York's magic number for clinching the East Division pennant is 13. Any combination of Met victories or Chicago losses totaling 13 wraps it up for New York.

St. Vincent Gridders Triumph

PETALUMA — Chis Bacher ran for two touchdowns and scored 16 points to spark the St. Vincents Mustants to a 28-7 win over Justin of Napa in a non-league football game here Saturday night.

Bacher scored on runs of 2 and 16 yards as the Mustangs relied heavily on a tough ground game for the win.

Justin jumped out front 7-6 early in the second quarter, but the Mustangs scored twice in the final three minutes of the first half for a 20-7 advantage.

Santa Clara Gridders Win

After St. Mary's took a quick 7-0 lead on a 57-yard touchdown pass from Greg Huarte to Bob Vallon, the Broncos came back with 22 points in the first quarter.

Santa Clara quarterback Dan Pastorini threw three touchdowns, two of them to Bart Jenks, to lead the Broncos to a 21-point second half.

The victory brings the off-and on series dating back to 1896, to a 16-15 standing in favor of St. Mary's.

Driver Second

Race Car Drivers To End Boycott

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — Drivers who work the rich NASCAR Grand National circuit planned to return to their cockpits this week after walking out of yesterday's first Talladega 500 at the new Alabama International Speedway.

The drivers, members of the newly formed Professional Drivers Association, voted to boycott the race late Saturday, charging the speedway was unsafe for speeds they were capable of running and that the tires they were using were coming apart at high speed. Thirty of them joined the boycott, including all but one of those with factory-backed cars.

TO RETURN

PDA President Richard Petty said the drivers planned to return to their cars for a 100 mile race at Columbia, S.C., Thursday night, and a 250-miler at North Wilkesboro, N.C., next Sunday.

However, NASCAR President and Founder Bill France Sr. said yesterday he plans to require the drivers who boycotted his race at Tallageda to post a "substantial" appearance bond before he will let them run.

He would not specify the amount of the bond, nor would he say whether it would apply to car owners as well as drivers. The car owners hauled their machines away from the track when the drivers left, but many of the owners were known to favor the stand taken by the drivers.

SALTY

France had some salty philosophical advise for the drivers who walked out on him during his first racing weekend at his giant new $6 million facility in central Alabama.

"Winners never quit and quitters never win," he said. "As far as I am concerned those boys (the PDA members) quit. The boys who raced Sunday saved Talladega and the boys who didn't owe their future to those who raced."

The drivers, including $165,000-winner LeeRoy Yarbrough and $150,000-winner David Pearson, had already qualified their cars for Sunday's field—at speeds in the 195-200 miles per hour bracket—before deciding the race should be postponed to allow more work on the racing surface and to give tire companies a chance to develop a better racing compound.

AS SCHEDULED

France refused to postpone the race, saying the 500-mile event would be run as scheduled and the $120,600 in prize money paid. With all but five of his top cars gone, the 57-year-old France put together a field of 37 machines, including 23 from his Grand Touring circuit for smaller cars.

The PDA has said it will press France and NASCAR for a pension plan, better insurance benefits, better working and track conditions and higher purses. It has hired New York attorney Larry Fleisher as its counsel.

SONOMA COUNTY

Football Teams In Final Scrums

The practices become much tougher this week for four Southern Sonoma County high school football teams and Sonoma State College as four of the five squads will be looking to season-opening contests this weekend.

Sonoma State College looked impressive in a Saturday scrimmage against the University of San Francisco and will be drilling for the first football game in the school's history.

The Cossacks host Arizona Western College Saturday.

VS. DRAKE

Petaluma High School is looking toward its Friday night game against Drake of San Anselmo after what head coach Howard Cadenhead termed a "very successful" scrimmage Saturday against Sonoma High.

The Trojans host the Pirates of Drake at 8 p.m. Cadenhead is expected to go with much the same lineup he used Saturday. Fred Klemenok shined at the quarterback post against Sonoma, Steve Hing and Dan Williams turned in good performances at the halfback positions and Bob Garcia shined at split end.

Sonoma High School mentor Bill Leone plans a little more work "on coordinating our passing game" as a result of the Saturday scrimmage. Quarterback Dan Briggs and half Greg Monroe were outstanding on offense against the Torjans.

HOST FAIRFIELD

The Dragons host Fairfield in their season opener Friday. Fairfield defeated Rio Vista 14-6 this weekend in their season opener.

Rancho Cotate of Rohnert Park travels to Cloverdale this weekend as it opens the season against the Eagles.

Coach Hal Janney will start sophomore Steve Wlodarczyk at quarterback in that contest, he said.

St. Vincent High School of Petaluma was the only Southern Sonoma team to open the playing season Saturday as it dumped Justin of Napa 28-7.

JETS TRIUMPH

Huge Crowd Sees Namath And O.J.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They turned out in record numbers—46,165—at Buffalo's War Memorial Statdium yesterday to see Joe Namath's arm and O. J. Simpson's legs. The anatomy left something to be desired, but no one was demanding his money back.

New York's Namath, the pride of Broadway, passed for one touchdown and Buffalo's Simpson ran for one in his pro debut as the world champion Jets turned back the stubborn Bills 33-19 in their American Football League opener.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Oakland held off Houston 21-17, Kansas City trounced San Diego 27-9, Denver walloped Boston 35-7 and Cincinnati topped Miami 27-21.

BLOOD CLOT

The Bengals' victory was marred by the death of 29-year-old linebacker Frank Buncom, who suffered an early-morning heart attack in his hotel room brought on by a blood clot on the lung.

The National Football League, which doesn't open its regular season for another week, finished its pre-season schedule with five games. Yesterday, Baltimore beat Dallas 23-7 and Philadelphia surprised Washington 26-17. Saturday, it was Green Bay 38, Atlanta 24; Minnesota 23, Cleveland 16 and Los Angeles 31, San Francisco 28.

Namath's statistics showed only seven completions in 19 attempts—he was intercepted three times—for 157 yards. Simpson, the rich rookie from Southern Cal, carried 10 times for 35 yards, caught two passes for 64 and returned three kickoffs for 68. His touchdown came on an eight-yard run.

PRAISE

"Make up anything you want to about O.J. and write it," Namath said. "I can't say enough good things about him. He's going to be great."

"I wasn't satisfied," Simpson countered. "I picked up a cold Saturday and it bothered me early in the game. And, I'll tell you, now that they're playing for real it's a lot harder."

Simpson also fumbled once, the Jets recovering.

"I thought the play was over and I sort of relaxed," he said. "I knew I couldn't get any farther and I guess I just didn't hold the ball long enough. No more relaxing for me."

TD PASS

Len Dawson's 55-yard touchdown pass to Otis Taylor and four interceptions powered Kansas City past San Diego. Dawson hit Taylor on the first play from scrimmage after the Chargers had trimmed the Chiefs' lead to 13-9.

Denver quarterback Steve Tensi enjoyed one of his finest days with three touchdown passes as the Broncos jolted the Patriots under new coach Clive Rush. Two of the scoring passes went to Al Denson while Tom Smiley also scored twice.

Rookie Crego Cook passed for two touchdowns and Cincinnati's defense held off a late Miami rally as the Bengals gave Paul Brown his 300th coaching victory in a caree spanning 35 years.

In Sunday's NFL exhibitions, Philadelphia came from behind with 12 points in the third period to beat Washington while in a nationally televised night contest Baltimore intercepted four of Roger Staubach's passes and trimmed Dallas.

Seals Open Training Camp

OSHAWA, Ont. (AP) — The Oakland Seals had their pictures taken and went through a light skate yesterday in their second day of training camp. The heavy work began today.

The team will then be split into two shifts and each shift will spend two periods a day on the ice. Each period lasts 1:45.

"It's impossible to assess the ability of the team to play the game of hockey at this point," said Coach Fred Glover. "But it's the biggest and fastest team we've had open a camp."

The National Hockey League club has 58 players in camp, one less than expected. Only defenseman Dunc McCallu, who played for Providence of the American Hockey League last year, has failed to show up.

START PLAYING FOR KEEPS

49ers, Rams Talk Mutual Respect

ANAHEIM (AP) — Pro football forces of Los Angeles and San Francisco head East this week to open their regular National Football League seasons amid statements of mutual respect.

The 49ers and Rams wound up their preseason slates in a game of reversals Saturday night with Los Angeles escaping with a 31-28 victory after dominating the first half and hanging on in the second.

"We played great football in that first half," declared Coach George Allen, "but, boy, did we have a letdown in the second.

'GREAT JOB'

"The 49ers played improved ball and John Brodie did a great job in the second half. Just because they were 0-6 in the preseason doesn't mean they aren't going to do something now that we're playing for real," Allen said.

On Sunday, the Rams play at Baltimore and the 49ers at Atlanta in a pair of Coastal Division games, and these count.

At Anaheim Stadium before 39,179 in the final 1969 game that didn't count, the Rams built a 31-7 first-half lead highlighted by Clancy Williams' 86 yard touchdown run with the only Brodie pass intercepted all evening.

TRADE HALFS

Los Angeles' defense dominated those opening two periods while Brodie and the 49ers took control of the second half.

After the long runback by Williams, who less than three weeks ago had been suspended five days for "indifference," the Rams immediately collected their second touchdown.

When Kermit Alexander fumbled after his kickoff return, Jim Nettles scooped up the ball and ran 15 yards. Bruce Gossett's second conversion put the count at 14-0. It went to 21-0 and 24-0 in quick order.

First Willie Ellison ran nine yards to score four plays after Maxie Baughan recovered a Ken Willard fumble. Then Gossett booted the longest field goal of his pro career — 50-yards — an indication of longer range for the Rams arsenal.

After Brodie hit Bob Windsor with a 20-yard scoring pass ending a 73-yard march, Ram Coy Bacon blocked a Tommy Davis punt and three plays later Ellison scored from the four.

It put the halftime score at 31-7 and that was that for the Rams.

Brodie, who wound up with 27 completions in 42 passes for 309 yards, hit three second half touchdown throws — six yards to Clifton McNeil, 23 to Gene Washington whose catch was the best of the night, and 12 to Windsor.

Victory escaped when a holding penalty call nullified another 20-yard pass to McNeil in the end zone. After that setback, Davis missed a 32-yard field goal try.

ward also stood out, not too surprisingly. He's a nice 220-pound, growing boy.

Redwood took on Alameda, the top-rated team in Northern California, las season and the Giants of Larkspur found some vulnerable spots, scoring five times. But so did Alameda, which also scored five times.

"We were real pleased with the quarterbacking of Pete Cooney," said Redwood mentor Bob Troppmann. "That was really the highlight of the day. His passing and leadership were outstanding."

Troppmann, in fact, found a pleasant urprise in an offense that wasn't supposed to be all that good.

Cooney scored twice, and threw for two more touchdowns to end Steve Fleischman while Mike Fareley added another score.

Tamalpais knocked heads with Marin Catholic in Kentfield, and not surprisingly, with only a bare handful of lettermen around, the Indians made a few mistakes in a very loose scrimmage.

"We have to really work on our passing game," Tamalpais coach Mike Davlin said. "They intercepted on us about three or four times,"

There were no officials to control the scrimmage, so things like clipping and motion calls were simply not made.

"I was pleased with our offensive blocking," Davlin said. "Our running looked good, especially Clifford Hall, Bill Washington and Mark Costello."

San Rafael looked good in its scrimmage against Pacific of the Alameda Athletic League, but it was nevertheless a disaster.

"That's one boy we couldn't afford to lose," Bulldog coach Bob Muster said. "This was going to be his year. That means a sophomore boy, Mark St. Gaudins, is going to have to grow in one big hurry."

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER

On some bowling nights, everything seems to go wrong. You get to the foul line ahead of the ball and you have trouble staying upright, much less throwing a coordinated ball. On such nights, it's better to reduce your speed considerably. You may not get as many strikes as usual, but you'll at least have a better chance at picking spares.

Holdup Play Useful Chiefly In No-Trump Contract Action

The holdup play is useful chiefly at no-trump contracts, where your object is to shut out an entire suit. The holdup is risky at a trump contract since if you fail to take an ace promptly, it may be ruffed later on. Still, even at a trump contract, the holdup play may help you shut out the setting trick.

Opening lead — ♣ J

CLUB LEAD

West opened the jack of clubs, not knowing that a spade opening lead would have settled declarer's hash in short order. If defenders always made the killing opening lead, we'd all have to bid conservatively.

Declarer won the first trick in the dummy and drew two rounds of trumps with the ace and king. He wisely refrained from taking a trump finesse.

South next led the jack of diamonds for a finesse, losing to the king. East returned the king of spades, and South made the fatal error of taking the ace. South could afford to lose one spade trick, and he should have given it up at this stage to East's king.

LOSES CONTRACT

South led his other diamond to dummy's ace and discarded a spade on the queen of diamonds. West ruffed with the queen of hearts and led his remaining spade, whereupon East defeated the contract with two spade tricks.

Now go back to the first spade trick and see what happens if South refuses to take the ace. This holdup play saves his contract.

CONTINUES SPADES

East continues with the jack of spades, and South must take the ace. South then goes after the diamonds, as before, and West ruffs as soon as he can. But then West has no spades. West must lead a club, for lack of anything else, and declarer wins in the dummy and discards the rest of his spades on dummy's good diamonds.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens the bidding with one spade, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ A 8 6 4
♥ A K 10 9 2
♦ J 6
♣ 6 4.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two hearts.

You plan to jump to four spades at your next turn. The hand is not quite strong enough for an immediate jump to three hearts.

Building Program Will Be Discussed

The high school building program for the next five years will be discussed at a special meeting of the San Rafael Board of Education at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the district administration building.

The board will discuss whether to build a new high school or construct additional classrooms for existing high schools, according to Supt. John F. Plank. The board will also review enrollment trends for the next five years, Plank said.

ALMANAC

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1935, the Nazis established the swastika as the national German flag and launched a program of violent religious persecution against the Jews.

In 1942, German armies began the siege of Stalingrad.

In 1963, a bomb thrown at a Negro church in Birmingham, Alabama, killed four girls and set off rioting in the city. Two Negro boys were shot to death the same day.

In 1966, Gemini-2 splashed down in the Atlantic Ocean 1½ miles from the target ship. The astronauts were in fine shape after a record-breaking three-day space flight..

A thought for the day: British statesman Benjamin Disraeli said, "What we anticipate seldom occurs; what we least expect generally happens."

Slippery Idea Slicks Wheels Of Progress

He spread 100 pounds of bananas and their peels on the floor around the huge machine and it was slid into its new position without trouble. The foreman is now known around the factory as "Slippery McDonald."

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

Two Belvederans Open New Handicraft Store In Tiburon

Principals Mrs. Cherry Noble, Mrs. Joana Horton and Mrs. Patricia Goetz have taken over the former Christian Science Reading Room quarters and have stocked this space with pottery, jewelry, woodcarvings, sculpture, candles, paintings, stitchery, silk screenings, block prints and related items — all from the West Coast and many from local craftsmen.

Hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays.

All three owners live on West Shore Road, Belvedere — hence the name Shorebirds.

Mrs. Goetz is an interior designer and formerly had a shop in Orinda. All have been involved in art work and have been associated with several galleries.

No imports are handled but some may be added later.

DAVID MOORE, owner of the House of Samples at 831 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has established a new apparel shop at 210 Sansome Street in San Francisco's financial district. It is being managed by his daughter Judy and carries the name of Judy's Fashions.

RONALD WREN ADVERTISING, San Francisco, has two new vice presidents from Marin: Stanford Raymond Jr. of Mill Valley and Richard R. Rojas of Marinwood.

Raymond is Wren's creative director. Before joining the firm he was an art director with Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, San Francisco, and with N. W. Ayer and Son, Philadelphia.

Rojas formerly was an account executive with KGO Radio and most recently with KGO-TV. Prior to this he was a salesman with the special products division of National Biscuit Co.

JOHN F. COVER of San Rafael has been promoted to manager, western research, of the Schwabacher Division of Blair and Co., Inc. He joined Schwabacher in 1967 as a security analyst before it was merged into Blair. His investment career began in 1960 when he founded a weekly investment service.

REAL ESTATE: San Rafael broker B. D. Schulz will hold his class on real estate at Sir Francis Drake High School's evening sessions again this fall. First class is tomorrow night from 7:30 to 9:30. . . . Kay Noah and Associates in Tiburon is moving to larger quarters, taking over the former office of Donald P. Geddes. The address remains the same — 1680 Tiburon Boulevard. Now with the Noah sales staff is Mrs. Eleonora Kushner of Strawberry, who was formerly with the Geddes office five years.

A LECTURE SERIES on investments and the stock market starts tonight at Tamalpais High School as part of the adult evening program. Time is 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and the series will continue for seven Mondays through Oct. 27. Registration is $6.

Another series — on mutual fund investment — will be held at Sir Francis Drake High School, San Anselmo, on four Thursdays, Sept. 25 through Oct. 16. Same hours. Registration fee is $4.

Instructor for both programs will be Ernest L. Martin of Capital Funding.

STEPHEN ROWLEY of Corte Madera is the winner of a 1969 Oldsmobile Tornado in a drawing held recently among 17 Bay Area Oldsmobile dealerships. Van Ness Oldsmobile, San Francisco awarded the prize.

KORET OF CALIFORNIA has named Charles R. Cain president. He was formerly director of marketing.

HYATT CORP. will have a 420-room luxury hotel. Ground has been broken in Knoxville, Tenn., for a $10 million, 14-story structure.

Research Laboratory Sees $5 Million Sale

PALO ALTO (BW) — Behavioral Research Laboratories expects to show pretax earnings of approximately $1.5 million on sales of about $5 million for the year ending Sept. 30.

The forecast includes recently acquired Sullivan Press of Los Altos on a pooling-of-interests basis. BRL doesn't expect to pay federal income taxes this year because of a tax loss carry forward.

Financial Plans

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Pacific Power & Light Co. has announced a $105 million financing program. The company will offer $20 million of bonds and $20 million of preferred stock on Oct. 27. It also will negotiate a short-term credit agreement for $45 million in renewal of a current program and sell up to $20 million of commercial paper in the form of unsecured promissory notes.

Rubber Employment

NEW YORK (UPI)—Nearly 500,000 Americans earn their livelihoods in various phases of rubber and plastics manufacturing, according to an estimate by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Big Glamour Stock No Longer In Favor

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I purchased First Mortgage Investors when it first came out in 1961. After an 8-for-5 split in 1968 it went to 33 early this year. The dividends are good but the price is now about 20. A friend tells me to sell as it won't go that high any more. What do you advise me to do? — G. F.

A. Unlike your friend, I claim no positive knowledge of the future price of your — or any other — stock.

First Mortgage Investors, the oldest in its group, has compounded its earnings growth at a better-than-average rate. First-half 1969 results of 63 cents a share were up 57 per cent from the like 1968 period. For the full year, $1.20 to $1.30 a share is a reasonable expectation. About 65 per cent of company assets are invested in high-return construction and development loans, the remainder in VA/FHA long- and short-term paper, cash and governments. As of April, 1969, FMI had a leverage ratio of 4.4 to 1, high even for a mortgage trust.

Unbridled proliferation of new trusts since late 1968, high cost of obtaining credit, decreasing rate of new construction and a generally poor market have pushed down the entire group from highs scored early this year when the group was a speculative favorite. Yours is a well-established company and a worthwhile long-term growth investment.

Q. I purchased Executone, Inc. shares about eight months ago. Although earnings are holding, the price has steadily decreased. Should I buy more? — I. L.

A. President N. A. Karr of Executone stated that sales should exceed $14 million, up from $11.6 million in 1968. Earnings, he expects, will rise to more than $1.30 a share fully diluted. Last year $1.06 was reported. In the first half of this year earnings rose 44 per cent to 55 cents a share on a 15 per cent gain in sales.

POPULAR PONTIAC CATALINA FOR 1970

Front of the Catalina this year features the classic vertical center grille, with exposed horn outlets exposed on either side adjacent to the headlamps. A new plastic fuel tank will be installed on Catalina station wagons sold in California. Cars will go on sale Sept. 18 at Dexter Pontiac GMC in San Rafael.

By FRANK FARARA

Punishment isn't the lone solution to the drug problem, according to Holger Romander, chief prosecutor of Sweden.

Dealers should be punished, but "not users principally," he said yesterday during a brief visit to Tamalpais Valley with members fo the First Standing Committee on Legislation of the Swedish Parliament.

Romander, whose job is equivalent to that of the U.S. attorney general, stressed the value of a strong information program about drugs and adequate care of drug abusers.

The committee, on a tour of the U.S. to study the administration of justice, toured San Quentin today.

Swedan in recent years has had a problem of narcotics use by youths, from 14 to 25, Romander reported.

Youths aren't using marijuana, but amphetamines and hashish, with the problem primarily in large cities, but also cropping up elsewhere, he said. "Our situation is rather similar to the United States and Great Britain." Romander said, "I think we have a lot more humanitarian approach."

Dealers are sent to prison, but users aren't prosecuted for a first offense, and given a fine on a second offense, Romander said.

"This year there has been a strong police drive against narcotics," he pointed out.

Hashhish is smuggled into Sweden from the Middle East and amphetamines from other European countries.

There is a large program under way to provide information about drugs, and it has strong backing throughout Sweden, Romander said.

San Quentin was a tour highlight for the committee, which will be in California five days. The largest prison in Sweden has about 450 inmates.

The Swedes said that fully one third of Sweden's prisons have no more than 120 prisoners and are without walls.

Romander said that there has been a regular increase in Swedish crime since World War II, though crime has decreased slightly in the last six months.

The misuse of drugs in increasing, he said, but Swedish sentences are lighter.

Erik Alexanderson, committee chairman, said the committee will be especially interested in juvenile justice and facilities during its stay in the state.

The committee, 19 persons, including three women members of parliament, was greeted yesterday at a reception at the home of Sten J. Ericson, acting counsel general in San Francisco, 1207 West California Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

Before arriving it had visited New York, Minnesota and Utah. Its U.S. stay is scheduled to end Friday at Los Angeles after visits to correctional institutions in Alameda County, Sacramento, Santa Cruz Mountains, Ventura County and Los Angeles.

Crime Rate Shows Drop In New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—For the first time in three years, the city's monthly crime rate has declined.

Police Department figures for July released Sunday show a 2.27 per cent drop in major crime over the same month in 1968.

The decrease follows a declining trend in the rate of crime increase, but it is the first time in more than 36 months that actual crime totals were lower. The police said 42,974 crimes occurred during July, compared to 44,172 last summer in July.

Four crime totals declined: murder, aggravated assault, burglary and thefts of goods worth $50 or more. There were more rapes, forcible thefts and auto thefts.

Despite the July statistics, the city's crime rate for the first seven months of this year has increased 3.9 per cent.

Police said that owner Gordon Dixon said the thief had ransacked several rooms and that he had not yet determined what else might be missing or the value of the items known stolen.

Common Market Set Summit On Britain

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — The six countries of the European Common Market agreed today to hold a summit meeting on letting Britain and other candidates join.

Ireland, Denmark and Norway have also applied for membership. Sweden is interested too.

The summit meeting will be held at The Hague, Nov. 17-18.

Joseph Luns, the Dutch foreign minister, announced the decision at a brief news conference after a lunch with his five colleagues at a Brussels restaurant. French Foreign Minister Maurice Schumann stood smoking a cigar and nodding occasionally at the door of the room where Luns was speaking.

Former President Charles de Gaulle of France twice vetoed Britain's efforts to join the organization.

It is expected that President Georges Pompidou will attend the summit meeting for France, as well as Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas. The other member countries, where the head of state holds more of a ceremonial position, probably will send their heads of government.

Foreign Minister Willy Brandt of West Germany told reporters, "We'll make an effort to let the applicants know the result of our meeting as soon as possible."

He added that the Common Market Executive commission, which favors the acceptance of the candidates, would attend the session that deals with the question. France had been reported trying to keep the commission out.

A MARCH FOR MORE JOBS — With Black Coalition flags in front, demonstrators marched through downtown Pittsburgh this morning in protest to the lack of Negroes in the construction industry. There were about 3,000 marchers (AP Wirephoto)

Pittsburgh Jobs March By Negroes

PITTSBURGH (AP) —Hundreds of demonstrators strung over 10 city blocks marched from the Negro Hill District into the downtown today-a day they called "Black Monday"-to press demands for more Negro jobs in the construction industry.

The marchers walked around the U.S. Steel building, clapping their hands and chanting, then marched back to the Hill District where the crowd disbanded.

March leaders said they would stage similar demonstrations.

"We will have a black Monday next Monday and the Monday after that, and a black Monday and a black Tuesday if necessary, and we will shut down the entire city until these injustices are ended," said Michael Dismond, one of the march leaders and member of the Black Construction Coalition, which organized the march.

In an impromptu news conference, Dismond said, "We feel

Bagley, Z'berg Urge State To Provide Seashore Fund

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

SAN FRANCISCO — A $10 million state appropriation to help the federal government complete purchase of Point Reyes National Seashore was proposed today by two assemblymen.

The $10 million would buy surplus federal land along the Southern California coast, which then would be exchanged with the federal government for seashore land under the proposal made today by William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento.

The state appropriation could not be sought until the Legislature reconvenes in January, and would need the approval of Gov. Ronald Reagan to get the money in time to save the seashore, Z'berg said at a press conference in the State Building.

Under state law, all appropriations must await passage of the state budget, which comes in late June or early July, unless the governor issues a letter authorizing the advance appropriation.

Two wait until after passage of the budget would mean "critical lands would be sold by then," Z'berg said.

He said he had not yet discussed the appropriation with the governor's office.

The appropriation, he said, would be consistent with the state's earlier gift of 11,000 acres of state tidelands to the federal government as part of the seashore.

Z'berg said the proposal was designed to spur congressional action on a bill to authorize an additional $38,265,0 00 to complete acquisition of the seashore. Congress appropriated $14 million to acquire the 53,850-acre seashore in 1962, and four years later hiked the amount to $19,136,000. Only 22,-540 acres have so far been bought.

Z'berg said that the proposal linked Southern California and Northern California seashore property to avoid the traditional split between Southern and Northern California politicians.

He explained the $10 million figure would plug a gap between the $57.5 million needed to complete the purchase and the $47 million asked by the National Park Service.

Park Service officials proposed the lower figure on the ground that $10 million could be saved by leasing some of the seashore for private development. Z'berg said the lease proposal should be considered only after the entire park was purchased.

Z'berg and Bagley, in a letter to California congressmen released at the press conference, said, "We have been stimulated to take this action by this year's history of delay, procrastination and lack of distinct policy on the part of the national administration, in stating its intentions with respect to Point Reyes. In addition, we are convinced that the private development of Point Reyes lands is bound to accelerate if public purchase of these lands does not occur soon."

They discounted a decision last week by Bureau of the Budget Director Robert Mayo to withdraw administration opposition to the Point Reyes authorization bill. Mayo's action was termed, "hardly encouraging," by Bagley and Z'berg.

"According to Budget Director Mayo, the White House's position, without a dollar figure, is merely to stay neutral and do nothing to actually finance any Point Reyes acquistion program," their letter said. "This is faint support, if it is such at all."

Their letter also noted that more than three million people live within a 2-hour drive of the seashore, a figure that will jump to more than six million by 1980. The population increase from 1960 to 1975 for the nine Bay Area counties alone will be equivalent to three additional San Franciscos, they said.

Z'berg stressed that the National Park Service's request for only $47 million made it

Israeli Planes Hit Suez Again

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli planes attacked Egypt's Gulf of Suez coast for the fifth time in six days yesterday, keeping up a campaign to force the Egyptians to shift forces from the Suez Canal front.

An Israeli military spokesman said the air force bombed and strafed positions at Ras Za'farana, 55 miles south of the southern end of the canal, and Ras Gharib, an oil center 120 miles farther south. He said all the planes returned safely.

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency said Egyptian antiaircraft gunners forced the Israeli planes "to flee eastwards after they attempted to raid coast guard posts in these areas."

The Cairo statement also said there was an eight-hour artillery duel Sunday near Port Taufiq, at the southern end of the canal. It gave no further details.

Ras Za'farana, the target of heavy Israeli raids for the past week, is 100 miles southeast of Cairo. When Israeli troops landed on the Gulf of Suez coast for their unopposed armored sweep last Tuesday, they began by hammering radar installations and army camps at Ras Za'farana.

Informants ni Tel Aviv said the air attacks are continuing to keep Egypt from rebuilding these installations.

Nixon Set To Order Another Troop Cut

Ky Springs Word About Viet Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Richard M. Nixon will announce the next stage of American troop withdrawals from Vietnam tomorrow morning, the the White House said today.

Asked about a statement by South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky that 40,500 more American GIs would be pulled out by the end of November, White House press secretary Ronald Ziegler said "actual figures" would come from the President.

He said Nixon would make public the "actual figures" in a written statement at about 9:30 a.m. (EDT) tomorrow.

FIRST ACTION

The first withdrawal, involving 25,000 men, was completed by the end of August. Nixon had indicated he would announce the second phase of U.S. troop replacement by Aug. 31.

But on Aug. 24, the President announced he was delaying a decision and called for more reports on intensified communist attacks which occurred in mid-August following a long summer lull on the battlefield.

PRIOR TO FRIDAY

Ziegler revealed that Nixon decided on the second phase of the withdrawal prior to Friday's big strategy session at the White House with top diplomatic, military and intelligence advisers.

Ziegler said that decision included actual figures.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he assumed Ky's report was true but added, "it seems odd that Ky would make such an announcement."

Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-14th District, said, "I welcome the news," but added: "I am concerned that this nation's policy is being announced by South Vietnam."

Following the Friday conference Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, U.S. combat commander, returned immediately to Saigon and within two hours after his arrival, he reported personally to President Nguyen Van Thieu.

LEES ADVISERS

Thieu met with his security advisers today between another meeting with Abrams. After the security council meeting, Ky told of the planned 40,500-man pullout.

Last May 14, Nixon enunciated three principles on which he would base pulling out American forces:

Capability of South Vietnamese troops to take over more of the fighting.

Nixon sad ameeting set for mid-afternoon today with members of a special task force on space goals which was expected to recommend that any plans for a Mars landing be put off at least until the 1980s.

SINCE WITHDRAWALS

Hanoi Builds Up Troops In Delta

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops in the Mekong Delta doubled in number—to between 2,000 and 3,000—as U.S. forces moved out of the area to comply with President Richard M. Nixon's withdrawal order, U.S. military spokesmen said today.

One North Vietnamese regiment of 1,000 to 1,500 men moved into the delta in April, while a second regiment slipped into the area during the summer months as two brigades of the U.S. Ninth Infantry Division were pulling out to go home. These were the only American Army forces in the delta other than advisers to South Vietnamese units.

"The infiltration into the delta of these units may not have been just to provide a threat once we withdrew," said one military spokesman. "It's a shaky business. It's hard for the North Vietnamese to operate in the delta. It's a move you wouldn't think they'd want to make if there were not pressure on them.

"They are probably there to shore up the Viet Cong or provide some stability and motivation for the Viet Cong local forces who have taken a bad beating and are having difficulty in local recruiting."

The spokesman said there had been no large-scale attacks by the two regiments in several weeks.

The units are the 273rd Regiment of the Viet Cong Ninth Division and the 18B Regiment of the North Vietnamese 1st Division. Both had been operating along the Cambodian border, in Tay Ninh province northwest of Saigon.

The 273rd Regiment is said to be operating in Kien Giang Province along the Gulf of Siam

U.S. Tanker Conquers The Northwest Passage

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly five centuries after sailors began the search for a Northwest Passage above Canada, the SS Manhattan has become the first commercial vessel to negotiate the icy waters.

But the historic voyage of the massive tanker, specially fitted with icebreaking equipment, hasn't proved that the treacherous northern route is feasible for shipping.

The 1,005-foot, 115,000-deadweight-ton ship smashed through heavy ice north of the Arctic Circle yesterday to hit open water at the mouth of Prince of Wales Strait.

"There's nothing in her way now," said a spokesman for Humble Oil Co., the ship's owner. Her final destination, Point Barrow, Alaska, is a week away.

As far back as 1498, when John Cabot explored the eastern end of the route, Europeans sought the Northwest Passage as a shortcut to the riches and spices of the Far East. The great trading companies sponsored several attempts to find the route.

Now the treasure isn't spices, but oil, the vast supply on Alaska's northern slope. A Northwest Passage open to huge tankers would cut thousands of miles and dollar from the trip around South America.

But Wednesday, as the Manhattan jousted with ice flows near Banks Island, a Humble Oil official said no decision on

Biggest Construction Cut Suggested For Highways

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Cutbacks in state construction projects were proposed by Gov. Ronand Reagan today by his inflation fighting task force.

Gordon C. Luce, secretary of business and transportation and chief of the task force, indicated the biggest cuts would come in the huge highway construction program and the smallest in the $2.75 billion State Water Project.

He declined to give dollar amounts of the cuts or reveal any details until he reported personally to the governor.

The task force was formed by Reagan after he decided to go along with President Richard M. Nixon's request that state governments follow Washington's example of cutting construction projects by 75 per cent to fight inflation.

Luce said cuts in the water project will be "less drastic than in any other area."

The project is designed to carry water from Northern California to Southern California. Construction of water facilities has already been slowed by strikes and is threatened by the state's failure to sell construction bonds in the tight money market.

And estimates of its eventual total cost have risen $500 million in the last three years.

Luce declined to answer directly when asked what areas would be hardest hit. But he said the highway program would require more public

Thant Asks Disarm Spots For Red China And France

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant today called for serious efforts to bring Red China and France into disarmament talks with the other nuclear powers.

He deplored what he called the lack of progress in disarmament negotiations during the past year and the continued differences between Peking and the two big super-powers.

Thant told a news conference that the association of the five world nuclear powers in direct disarmament negotiations is "an indispensible step to fashion a world free from fear."

He expressed hope that rela-

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

35 Ferry Victims

DACCA, East Pakistan, (AP) — Officials fear that 35 persons were drowned in the sinking of a ferry in the Rupsa River at Khulna Saturday.

The boat hit the anchor of a barge as it was crossing the river and capsized. The current was very strong, and so far searchers have found neither bodies nor the wreckage of the boat.

Fifteen persons swam ashore. One survivor said about 50 persons were aboard the boat, including two handcuffed convicts.

Kennedy Backed

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's performance in office continues to receive strong approval from Massachusetts residents interviewed by a newspaper poll.

Kennedy's support, however, has slipped from 87 per cent last March to 78 per cent in the Boston Globe's latest figures, released today.

According to data compiled by Becker Research Corp., the dominant theme among those expressing disapproval of Kennedy's performance was his auto accident on Chappaquiddick Island that claimed the life of a 28-year-old secretary and Kennedy's conduct immediately afterward.

Ho Memorial Riot

BANGKOK (AP) — Thai police broke up a rock-throwing battle between more than 1,000 Thais and North Vietnamese refugees today at memorial services for the late North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh in the northeast Thai town of Nongkhai.

The demonstration started when Thais objected to Ho's portrait being displayed at two Buddhist temples where the services had been held since Friday.

Thai townspeople, singing patriotic songs and shouting that their troops were fighting North Vietnamese in Vietnam, attempted to tear the portraits down.

257 Flood Deaths

SEOUL (AP) — The worst floods in Korea since 1959 left 257 persons dead, 81 missing, 90 injured amd more than 60,000 homeless in the southern coastal areas, national police reported today.

Nine to 14 inches of rains pelting the coastal areas since Sunday afternoon caused the floods, the worst since Typhoon Sarah hit the area in September 1959, police officials said.

Censorship Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Communications Commissioner Nicholas Johnson says television networks censor programs, including news broadcasts, to favor big business.

Johnson said yesterday he was "concerned by censorship being done by networks in behalf of big business interests to keep from the people information they need."

Johnson spoke on CBS'S "Face the Nation."

Oil Lease Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will lose about $300 million in expected oil leasing revenues this year because of a six-month shutdown in offshore leasing near Santa Barbara and competition from state-owned oil leasing land in Alaska.

The Department of Interior says revenues from oil leases on federal lands will be $295 million during the current fiscal year, rather than the $595 million forecast some time ago.

Korean Deaths

SEOUL (AP) — South Korean troops killed three armed North Korean agents and captured a fourth on the eastern front yesterday afternoon, the counter-infiltration command announced today.

A South Korean soldier was also killed and four others were wounded in the gun battle, the announcement said.

Equal Rights

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — The women of the Swiss Canton of Zurich have been given equal political rights in local affairs in a country where male supremacy has long prevailed.

Almost 60 per cent of the all-male electorate went to the polls Sunday to accept the proposal to grant their women the vote in local elections and the right to hold local offices. The vote was 92,402 to 67,192

The proposal was defeated three years ago.

Airport Opens

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria today inaugurated a new international airport, calling it "the biggest and most modern" in the Middle East.

The field is designed and equipped to receive supersonic airliners, jumbo jets, and two million passengers per year.

Patterened after Orly Field in Paris, the $40-million airport was built in 51 months by Batignolles, a consortium of the same French companies which built the Paris airport. It was France's biggest contract in Syria since World War II.

Fighting Denied

TEHRAN (AP) — Iran's Foreign Ministry said yesterday a report by the Iraqi government about border fighting between the two countries was a "100 per cent lie."

Baghdad Radio said Saturday that Iraqi troops killed 30 Iranians captured 14 who were trying to slip across the northern border to join the rebel Kurdish forces led by Mustafa Barzani. The broadcast did not say when the battle took place.

The Kurds are a tribe in northern Iraq who have been fighting the government for years over territory and self-government.

Life Says Thurmond Made Money In Deal

NEW YORK (AP) — When Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., and his partner sold land condemned for a South Carolina highway last year, they received more than twice the price of other landowners along the route, Life magazine says.

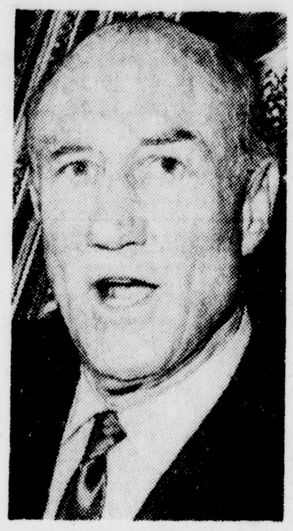
In its current issue, Life said Thurmond and his former law associate, now a federal judge, received $492 an acre for 66 acres, while others got an average of $200 an acre.

Thurmond issued a statement in Washington last night, terming the article "just another in a series of attempted liberal smears."

He said, "The entire transaction is a matter of public record, as I knew it would be from the beginning."

Life said it interviewed Thurmond, who said he thought the land was worth more than $750 an acre, but that he and his partner, U.S. District Judge Charles E. Simons Jr., accepted less to avoid going to court "because of the positions we held with the public."

The magazine said the 66 acres was part of a 3,000-acre tract of scrub timber land that Thurmond and Simons bought in 1953 for about $14.53 an acre.



SEN. STROM THURMOND
Says it's a smear

Simons said yesterday, in Aiken, S.C., "We received no more than a fair price for the land—there is no question about that. I don't know what the other landowners got."

Thurmond, in his statement added, "I did not and will not surrender my right as a citizen to own property and to ask for a jury decision on its true value if the government condemns it."

Officials in the South Carolina Highway Department declined comment. Chief Highway Commissioner S. N. Pearman was out of town.

Senate Defense Critics After Bomber Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon critics hope to shoot down plans for a multibillion dollar Air Force bomber as the Senate enters what leaders say may be the last week of debate on the $20 billion military procurement bill.

An amendment cutting back funds for the Advanced Manned from $100 million to $20 million has been introduced by Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D. Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield says he hopes to bring it up for a vote tomorrow.

Noting the defeat of other amendments seeking major cutbacks in the bill, Mansfield said the odds are against McGovern's proposal. He said critics of Pentagon spending hit a high point with the 50-50 vote on the Safeguard ABM system and "we haven't been able to get within striking distance since." That amendment died because it lacked a majority of votes.

Army Using BB Guns In Quick Kill

FORT ORD (AP) — The Army is using BB guns to teach recruits to shoot the way the movie cowboys do—without taking time to aim.

The soldier starts the exercise in a relaxed position with his arms slack and the BB rifle at his waist. A buddy spins a disc in the air about six feet down range, the recruit raises the gun to his shoulder and shoots without aiming.

Attackers hide in bushes, bunkers and holes ahead of "Target" groups. The ambushers fire at will and a hit soldier drops to his knee to signal he is out.

Brig Brutality Is Charged Again

BERKELEY (AP)—An attorney for 15 enlisted men who accuse guards at the Treasure Island Naval Base brig of brutality asserts that beatings have continued despite a court order.

Donald Jelinek, the lawyer, told newsmen yesterday he will ask U.S. District Court Judge William T. Sweigert to "hold specific guards in contempt of last Monday's order preventing them from 'assaulting plaintiffs and others in the brig. . .or intimidating them with threats of violence.'"

Judge Sweigert ordered a hearing today for the Navy to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued.

He had issued a temporary restraining order on the basis of 15 affadavits filed by men who are in or had been in the brig. Each of the men claimed at least one beating by Marine Corps guards.

Jelinek said he took additional statements from 30 former and present prisoners on Saturday.

Four of them detailed beating since the court order, he said.

Jelinek said one witness said he saw "a 260-pound guard beat a 115-pound prisoner. . . .only one and one-half hours after the court order was served on the brig."

Government and Navy officials refused to comment on the charges pending the hearing.

Heart, Kidneys Transplanted By Stanford Teams

STANFORD (UPI) — The heart and kidneys of an anonymous suicide victim were used in three transplants yesterday at Stanford University Hospital.

The hospital declined to disclose the method of suicide used by the victim, whose family made the donations.

A retired airline pilot, Herman Joslyn, 64, Seattle, Wash., was the heart recipient. It was the eighth heart transplant by a surgical team led by Dr. Norman E. Shumway.

Joslyn had suffered from heart disease for the past year. He was referred to Stanford in August and his condition was deteriorating Saturday when the suicide victim was found.

The kidney transplants were performed by a separate team of surgeons. the recipients were to Californians, Robert Green, 22, San Jose, and James Santos, 49, Mountain View.

Military Man To Succeed Ailing Brazilian Leader

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazil's military chiefs are expected to name a replacement shortly for President Arthur da Costa e Silva. The junta set the stage for such action with an announcement yesterday that his stroke last month left him partially paralyzed with a speech deficiency.

Men being mentioned as presidential possibilities include Gen. Emilio Garrastazu Medici, an army commander in southern Brazil; Gen. Antonio Carlos Muricy, the army chief of staff; Gen. Orlando Geisel, head of the armed forces general staff, and Gen. Alfonso Augusto de Albuquerque Lima, former minister of the interior.

When the military junta took over after Costa e Silva's stroke, it said it would govern "only for the duration of the incapacity of the president." The generals bypassed the constitutional successor, civilian Vice President Pedro Aleixo.

The medical bulletin released Sunday was the first official report of the effects of the stroke. It said Costa e Silva had a "deficiency of mobility on the right side of the body and of speech." It added that he was in satisfactory condition but needed complete rest.

Mansfield Clears CIA In Viet Death

Eight members of the Army's Special Forces, the Green Berets, are being held in the slaying. The Army has not yet announced whether the men will be prosecuted.

"From what I know about it, the CIA is in the clear," Mansfield said in a weekend interview.

Mansfield said he does not know enough about the case to say whether Green Berets—one of them a former commander of Special Service Forces in Vietnam—should face prosecution.

"This situation has received so much publicity and so many conflicting opinions that it will have to be cleared up" the Montana senator said.

"I'm sure it will be, by the appropriate committees and at the appropriate time," he added.

In the Senate, that would include the Armed Services Committee and two subcommittees of the Appropriations and Armed Services Committees which meet secretly to oversee CIA operations.

The Vietnamese victim, Thau Khac Chuyen, reportedly was slain about June 20. His body has not been found.

Office Raided After Park Forces Win

SEOUL (AP) — Two groups of angry opposition lawmakers raided the office and residence of National Assembly Speaker Rhee Hyo-sang today, protesting passage of the controversial presidential succession amendment.

Rhee was in a hospital being treated for exhaustion following passage of the constitutional amendment allowing South Korean President Chung Hee Park to seek a third term.

The New Democrats, who have 44 seats in the 171-member assembly, decided to file court complaints charging Rhee and two assembly secretariat officials with "neglecting official duties and obstructing official duties of opposition lawmakers."

In Tokyo, 45 South Korean residents of Japan scaled a six-foot wall and broke into the South Korean Embassy, which was closed because of a Japanese holiday. They claimed they wanted to deliver a protest note on the constitutional amendment bill. Only a few embassy personnel were present and they summoned police who arrested all 45 protesters, among them 11 women.

Evans Skipper Pleads Innocent To Charges

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (AP) — Lt. Cmdr. Albert S. McLemore, skipper of the U.S. destroyer Frank E. Evans, insisted on being awakened if his ship was ordered to make a change of station, witnesses at his court-martial testified today.

McLemore, 40, of San Pedro, was asleep in his cabin June 3 when the Evans was cut in half by the Australian carrier Melbourne in a collision that killed 74 American sailors. The destroyer was changing station from a position ahead of the carrier to a position astern.

McLemore pleaded innocent to charges of negligence and dereliction of duty at the opening of the court-martial today. The charges say McLemore failed to give specific night orders that he be awakened and that he therefore allowed the Evans to maneuver without his supervision in difficult night operations.

Two witnesses — Lt. (j.g.) Jeffrey W. Covert of Glenview, Ill., and Lt. (j.g.) Ronald T. E. Bowler of Annapolis, Md.—testified that McLemore was very strict about being awakened major maneuvers at night.

Other witnesses, who included Lt. (j.g.) James A. Hopson of Kansas City, Kan., the junior officer of the watch the night of the collision, said they knew of no occasion that McLemore had not been on the bridge when he knew thes hip would have to change stations.

The strategy of the defense counsel, Cmdr. Robinson Lappin of the U.S. Naval Justice School in Newport, R.I., appeared to be to put the blame for the collision on Hopson and on Lt. (j.g.) Ronald C. Ramsey of Long Beach, the officer of the deck when the collision occurred. Both got off with letters of reprimand and Ramsey also was put back into the seniority listing, making it unlikely that he will ever get a command.

In his opening statement, Lappin said Hopson and Ramsey "were fully aware of their duty to awaken their commander and they failed to carry out their duty."

Sweeney's Used Cars of 439 Francisco Boulevard reported to San Rafael police Saturday that a radio, valued at $150, was taken from a car on the firm's lot.

The burglary occurred sometime between 7 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. Saturday, police said.

Steven Willard Fesler of 17 Corrillo, Rafael Meadows, a student at Terra Linda High School, reoprted to police Friday that someone stole stereo equipment and tapes, valued at $146, from his car while it was parked at the school parking lot, sometime between 7:45 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Hearing Set On Apartment Zone

The San Anselmo Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. today in the city hall on a request by Anna Ghezzi and John Komo to rezone 158 Tunstead Avenue from a duplex to apartment zone.

The commission will also hear the recommendation of the reconnaissance report steering committee for the selection of a planner to prepare a general plan for the city.

A use permit application by Alfred Nannizzi to operate a drive-up Fotomat business at 5 Red Hill Avenue will also be heard.

Ex-Envoy Beating Sleeping 'Bug'

GENEVA (AP) — Former U.S. Ambassador William True Davis is steadily recovering from sleeping sickness and should be able to leave hospital in two weeks, a spokesman for Geneva's state hospital said today.

Davis, 50, of St. Joseph, Mo., came down with sleeping sickness in Switzerland Sept. 5 after a family safari in Africa. His wife died of the disease Sept. 6 in hospital at Kampala, Uganda.

A hospital spokesman said the main "bug" has been cleared from Davis' system, and treatment is now mainly preventive.

Panmunjom Talks May Be On Copter Crew

SEOUL (AP) — U.S. and North Korean officers talked privately for nearly two hours at Panmunjom today, presumably over conditions for the release of three Americans held prisoner since their helicopter was shot down Aug. 17 over North Korea.

It was the second private talk reported held.

The U.S. State Department had no comment after the first meeting on when or whether the North Koreans might release the prisoners.

The three crewmen are Capt. David H. Crawford of Pooler, Ga.; WO Malcolm V. Loepke of Richmond, Ind., the pilot; and Spec. 4 Herman E. Hofstatter of Lowpoint, Ill.

North Korea has told Military Armistice Commission meetings that Crawford and Hofstatter were seriously injured and Loepke suffered slight injuries.

After the Sept. 8 meeting, State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey said "There is reason" to believe the health of the three crewmen "has improved."

In Seoul, it was speculated that the United States might have handed over to the North Koreans a letter of apology during the meeting Sept. 8 in order to win the release of the prisoners.

During the last armistice commission meeting Sept. 4, North Korea demanded the United States admit "a criminal military mission" by the helicopter, apologize and insure that there will be no recurrence of such a "hostile act."

Candidate Drought Continues

With deadline for filing for 53 positions in 25 sanitary, fire, water, and other community services districts at 5 p.m. today, only 32 candidates had filed by noon, said Peter C. Meyer, county election officer.

There must be one more candidate than there are openings and in districts where there are not enough candidates, the county board of supervisors will appoint board members.

The Bolinas Public Utilities District, with two openings and four candidates, is the only district which can hold an election. Charles G. Hadley was the latest to file for one of the posts.

the route's commercial possibilities would be made until the early 1970's.

Stanley B. Hass, Humble's project manager, told newsmen aboard that mountains of data gathered on the voyage would be fed to computers later this month. The number of times the ship became stuck in ice and the ice pressure it encountered would be two key factors, Hass said.

Another problem, ship officers said, was that the Manhattan couldn't generate full power in reverse. Thus, it needed open water astern to back up and take a running start at huge ice blocks.

But Hass pointed out that the Manhattan was picked "as the best ship we could find in the short time span given us to gather the data we needed." He said the Manhattan "is not anywhere near the new ships we would design to sail these seas."

The Manhattan became stuck only once, on Sept. 9 off Melville Island. She was freed by her escort, the Canadian icebreaker John A. MacDonald.

Since then, the Manhattan has plowed through ice ridges twice as thick as the usual 4-to-12 foot ice commonly encountered. At one point, she ripped through a 15-foot-thick ridge almost from a dead start.

The Manhattan was unsuccessful in trying to sail the McClure Strait, north of Banks Island. Instead, she turned to a more southerly and longer route through the Prince of Wales Strait.

MARCH

this morning's demonstration will illustrate to the people of Pittsburgh the total feeling of the black community to the injustices that have been caused by the trade unions," Dismond said.

He added that the orderly and peaceful march would "have a major part in the negotiations" to get more Negroes jobs in the construction industry.

While the marchers filed through the downtown, negotiators trying to settle the dispute made preparations for a meeting later in the day.

The demonstrators met at what they dubbed "Freedom Corner," a main intersection in the Hill District, walked past the Civic Arena and went on to Pittsburgh's city hall-the City-County Building.

Los Angeles Arrest

He was freed on $1,650 bail following booking at Los Angeles City Jail. A Marin County court date was not set.

Closed Board Talks Tonight On Schneider

The Sausalito School District board will meet in closed session at 7 p.m. today at the district offices to discuss Phillip W. Schneider's job as superintendent of the district.

Board members James E. Muldoon and C. Gerald Clear have questioned whether Schneider withheld information about the past activities of Sidney F. Walton Jr. when Schneider recommended Walton be hired as principal of Martin Luther King School.

Muldoon has indicated he may seek action. In addition, several parents in the district have stated at recent board meetings that they have lost confidence in Schneider's handling of the district and that educational quality in Sausalito schools is too low.

The board held a short closed session on Schneider last week but decided to postpone consideration of the matter until tonight.

Blaze Guts Apartment

Fire gutted one room of an apartment house at 428 Turney Street early this morning after Steven Heinecke, tenant of Apartment 3, left a candle burning in his room, according to Sausalito firemen, while he went next door to watch television.

Damage to the living room was estimated at $800 to $1,000 according to Fire Chief Charles E. Masten. The apartment building is owned by Dr. Smith Ketcham III of San Francisco.

Firemen said Heinecke left the candle burning on a trunk in the room at approximately 1 a.m. The candle burned down igniting the trunk lid which, in turn, ignited drapes in the room.

Fireman John Flystra was injured during the blaze, Masten said, when he slipped and fell while carrying a smoke ejector up a ladder. He was treated at Marin General Hospital for back strain.

"extremely unlikely" that the $57.5 million ever would be appropriated by Congress.

Z'berg also reported that the federal government is attempting to trade surplus federal land in Nevada for land in the seashore. He said the government has a buyer for Lake Ranch property at Point Reyes, who then would turn the ranch over to the National Park Service in exchange for the surplus land in Nevada.

An Independent-Journal check of this report last week found that no such buyer existed.

"There will be some deferrals in the highway projects," he said.

Luce said some $1 billion in construction contracts are scheduled to be awarded in the next year, with up to $400 million of them ready to go to contractors in the next four months.

The task force proposed that the administration take steps to ease the unemployment to be caused by the cutbacks. Luce said there should not be cutbacks in sections of the state already suffering from unemployment.

U.S. headquarters reported 12 enemy rocket and mortar attacks during the night, the lowest number since the Viet Cong's cease-fire for the funeral of Ho Chi Minh ended last Thursday morning.

One barrage of three rockets hit Hue, South Vietnam's third largest city and the old imperial capital. First reports said two Vietnamese civilians were wounded.

American B52 bombers flew seven missions during the night, dropping 1,000 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese troop concentrations and base camps 80 to 90 miles north of Saigon and south of Da Nang.

Woman Is Attacked And Then Robbed

A Novato mother of three was bound and raped in her bedroom and then robbed early this morning by two men who made their escape in a car, Novato police reported.

She is the wife of a serviceman who is serving overseas, according to police.

The three children, a boy of about 12, a girl of about 6 and an infant were not awakened until the mother later roused the boy to have him call police.

Officer Richard H. Rudy Jr. who received the call at 4:37 a.m., reached the house before a neighbor and untied the woman, he reported.

REFUSE TO EXAMINE

He took her to Novato General Hospital where two doctors's refused to examine her, he said. He then took her to Marin General Hospital where the county physician Dr. Frederick Hass would not examine her. A private physican, Dr. David Cunningham, finally made the examination, according to Lawrence Malcolm, assistant manager of Marin General Hospital.

The woman told Rudy that she has gone to sleep about 11:30 p.m. in her house in East Novato. The next thing she knew, the two men held something, a knife or similar object, to her throat. They told her that if she screamed, they would harm her children.

They tied her arms behind her back, threatened her if she made noise and tied a pillow case over her eyes and placed a sweat shirt over her head, so that she could not see them.

Both men forced her to have intercourse and forced her to submit to unnatural acts, she told police. One of them had a fuzzy beard, she said.

They asked if she had any money and she told them her wallet was on the dining room table. They took a $10 and $5 bill. They then left. There was no sign of forced entry into the house, police said.

ONE COMMENTS

At Novato General Hospital, Dr. Wayne L. Campbell, the first doctor called, said that was not his type of case and that if he had responded, he would have had to call in another doctor.

The other doctor called, Dr. John T. Korn, was not available for comment.

Milton Scott, manager of Novato General Hospital, said he had not talked to the doctors yet to find out the details on the case.

Dr. Donovan O. Cooke of the Marin County Health Department, said that Dr. Hass would not examine the woman because she was not an indigent and was a military dependent, so technically she did not come under the county health department.

Moshe Dayan said Saturday the purpose of the strikes was "to immobilize (Egyptian) troops to guard those places ... If they don't do it, that front will remain vulnerable and it will be possible to hit it again."

In other military action over the weekend, two Israeli soldiers were wounded when Arab guerrillas ambushed an army patrol on the occupied Golan Heights of Syria yesterday morning. An Israeli spokesman said one of the attackers was killed.

The Israelis reported another attack in the Golan Heights early today, by two squads of guerrillas on the Nahal Golan settlement. A spokesman said one Arab squad moved to within 220 yards of the settlement's perimeter and opened up with bazookas and a machine gun, while another group inside the Syrian lines fired mortars at the post.

The spokesman said one guerrilla was killed and one Israeli wounded.

The spokesman also reported that Arab gunners fired mortars at an Israeli settlement south of the Sea of Galilee but added there were no casualties.

At the United Nations, new talks seeking an Arab-Israeli settlement are expected to begin by the end of the week. Officials who have taken part in previous talks are arriving for the 24th U.N. General Assembly which opens tomorrow.

Secretary General U Thant will meet with the foreign ministers of the Big Four powers Saturday night to discuss the Middle East. The Big Four's ambassadors to the United Nations held talks through the spring on a settlement, but suspended them July 1 to await the outcome of separate U.S.-Soviet talks which later also were suspended.

THANT

tions between Peking and Moscow—and also between Peking and Washington—would be restored "to normalcy—even if they are not cordial."

The secretary-general said he was glad to note the meeting between Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Chinese Premier Chou En-lai in Peking last week.

He expressed thanks to President Richard M. Nixon for his decision to address the 24th session of the U.N. General Assembly Thursday and said the decision showed Nixon's desire to demonstrate his support to the world organization.

Thant repeated his call for Big Four talks on the Middle East crisis during the assembly session opening tomorrow, but said he had been told that the time was not ripe for a summit session on this subject. The big powers, he said, felt that preliminary preparations had to be made before a top-level meeting on this or other problems.

Thant said that, in his view, there was no conflict between four power talks on the Middle East and the bilateral talks which have been going on between the United States and the Soviet Union.

He said, however, that he believed it would be useful for the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union to get together on the issue while they are in New York.

Thant's special representative, Gunnar V. Jarring, is arriving in New York tonight, he said, and would be available to consult with the Big Four representatives.

He said he did not believe it was necessary at this time to bring Arab and Israeli representatives into direct talks, noting that at the time of the 1949 truce negotiations there was no direct confrontation until basic agreements had been reached.

The secretary-general made these other points:

Vietnam—He did not believe the death of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh would have any effect on Hanoi's policies. A cease-fire is not practical in a war where there are no defined battle lines. Continued de-escalation is the best course at this time.

Red China—He rejected the so-called two-Chinas concept of seating both the Chinese Nationalists and the Peking government in the United Nations.

Kosygin: He said he had no information on the possibility that Kosygin might come to New York during the coming assembly session.

$10,000 Pledged For Rec Project

The San Rafael Canal area's new Project REC already has received more than $10,000 in private pledges, but more is being sought, Robert Schoen, originator of the plan, said today.

Papers seeking a nonprofit, tax-exempt status are now in the works, Schoen said. The community recreation project is attempting to obtain a lot on Belvedere Street for its teen-age recreation center.

The board of directors includes Schoen, Bernice Eastmen, William T. Healey, Corine Simkins, and Patricia Green, whose name was omitted in a previous Independent-Journal story.

Schoen, a barber, said, "There are more than 2,000 kids of all ages in the area and they have nothing to do but hang around the bowling alley steps."

Principal Is Hired For Kent School

The Kentfield School District board chose a new principal yesterday for Adaline E. Kent School after closed interviews with candidates, but withheld announcing the successful applicant's name until official appointment at the open board meeting next Monday.

The new principal will replace Robert E. Shore, who plans to resign because of ill health. Supt. Anthony G. Bacich said the board received 15 applications for the post, asked 10 other persons if they were interested in the post, screened through records of 60 persons and interviewed six candidates.

Suspected Abductor Caught As Detective Plays Victim

BEVERLY HILLS (UPI) — A police detective, who for eight hours played the part of a kidnap victim handcuffed to a tree, captured the suspected abductor during the weekend when he walked into the trap.

Alan Ramo, 19, son of millionaire Simon Ramo, vice chairman of the $1.6 billion aerospace company TRW Inc., was freed unharmed when a caretaker heard his cries for help. The $200,000 ransom was never paid.

Detective Richard Rodriguez, 37, took the place of young Ramo on a brush-covered hillside overlooking a water reservoir in a valley about two miles northwest of the city.

Nothing happened for eight hours. Then, at 6:20 Saturday evening, John J. Santen 23, a merchant seaman from San Lorenzo, approached Rodriguez through the brush. He was armed with a .38- caliber pistol.

Rodriguez fired once, narrowly missing Santen's head. Other officers hidden in the brush closed in and Santen surrendered.

Santen, who was to be formally charged with kidnaping today, waived his right to remain silent and was talking with detectives, police said, but the nature of his statement was not disclosed. Authorities believed Santen worked alone but they did not rule out the possibility of accomplices.

Ramo, a student at Stanford University, was unharmed and was reported resting today somewhere other than at his family's mansion in the exclusive Trousdale Estates.

Young Ramo was returning home from a date shortly after midnight Friday when he was accosted by a gunman near the front door of the palatial house.

The abductor walked Ramo to a secluded section of the estates, bound and blindfolded him, and then left him to get his car. When the kidnaper returned with the car, he threw Ramo into the trunk and headed for the foothills.

The kidnaper later returned to the Ramo home and slipped a note under the door demanding $200,000 ransom. When Ramo found the note Saturday morning, he immediately called police. The note ordered Ramo to place a personal ad in the Los Angeles Times when the money was ready.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, young Ramo managed to loosen the gag and began yelling for help. Russ Kyle, 56, the reservoir caretaker, heard the shouts at his home about 300 yards away. He yelled back.

"Please call the police," Ramo shouted. "I've been kidnaped."

Kyle told his wife to call the police and then started through the dense underbrush to locate the victim. Although Ramo continued to yell, the caretaker was unable to pinpoint the source in the nearly inpenetrable undergrowth.

Three carloads of Beverly Hills police soon arrived on the scene. Det. Rodriguez took Ramo's place and began the wait for the return of the kidnaper.

At dusk, word came from the gate to the reservoir that Santen's car was parked next to it. Rodriguez was appraised of the situation and a few minutes later Santen was in custody.

Dr. Ramo was one of the founders of TRW Inc., which was started as Ramo-Wooldrige Corp. It became Thompson-Ramo-Wooldrige, which eventually was shortened to the initials.

One Killed In Santa Rosa Crash

He was Paul Norman Dorsey, 20, Santa Rosa.

The driver, Bob. J. Nickerson, 19, Vallejo, suffered major injuries. The other three occupants received less serious injuries, the highway patrol said.

Yosemite Park Fights Pollution

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, (AP) — Rangers have taken initial steps to curb air pollution and eliminate traffic tieups in the most scenic reaches of Yosemite National Park.

The open air trailers began carrying passengers over the weekend to the most celebrated of the famous park. Cars were not permitted in the areas.

Park officials hope to eliminate private vehicle from several other areas of the park through use of the 50-passenger trams.

Fares are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. They make four stops and run every 20 minutes.

W. Germany Rocked By Wildcat Strikes

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — West Germany, in the midst of a national election campaign, has been rocked by two weeks of unusual wildcat strikes involving more than 500,000 miners and steelworkers.

Wage increases are ending the strikes, but they have unsettled politicians and raised the specter of wage-price spirals and inflation in a country that has become the most stable economic power in Western Europe.

Strikes of any kind are rare in West Germany, where a docile, fully employed work force has been content to follow the lead of its unions. In 1968, only 25,249 work days were lost to strikes in a work force of more than 24 million.

Wildcat strikes, called "wild strikes" by the Germans, are rarer still. Until this summer the last major one was in May 1967 at a cookie factory in a dispute about laying off workers.

Such union officials as Heinz-Oskar Vetter of the German Federation of Trade Unions are issuing assurances that the "English situation" of repeated wildcat strikes won't become common in West Germany. But the success of the miners and steel workers in getting higher pay has triggered demands by 2 million civil servants, leather, textile and transport workers for prompt negotiation of new contracts.

Politicians and others are debating the root causes of the spreading discontent. Some think union members are growing dissatisfied with their leaders. Others consider the unrest part of the radical movement manifested previously in student protests and left-wing demonstrations.

The strikers denied any Communist influence. They said they had agreed to a wage freeze in 1967 to help the country out of an economic slump, and now it was time they got some benefits.

Suspect Booked In Auto Probe

Boyd Lewis Doxtader, 32, of 950 Vernal Avenue, Homestead Valley, was booked early yesterday by sheriff's deputies in suspicion of attempted auto theft.

Deputies said Doxtader was arrested at the scene after Marcy Lee Stone, 20, of 765 Montecillo Road, reported at 1 a.m. that someone was attempting to take her parents' car from their garage.

Doxtader was released under $1,200 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Sen. Allott Is Out Of Leadership Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado stepped aside from the race for Republican leadership today, leaving the field to the three declared candidates to succeed the late Everett M. Dirksen.

"I am not a candidate for the position of minority leader," Allott said. "I have no commitments from any of my colleagues, nor have I asked for such commitments."

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the acting leader; Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska, and Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee are candidates.

Allott said he would not make any personal commitment in the leadership race, but his decision not to run benefits Hruska, whose support is based among the Senate's more conservative Republicans.

But the American Conservative Union, urging the election of a conservative leader, put both Baker and Hruska in that category.

Allott told some Senate colleagues last Thursday that he would run for the leader's post. But Hruska announced his candidacy Saturday, and it was clear they would have had to seek support from the same, generally conservative, Senate constituency.

"My sole personal efforts shall be directed toward assuring that whatever the outcome of the race, we shall have a unified party in the Senate," Allott said in his statement disclaiming candidacy.

However a decision to seek the leadership by Baker, a Senate first-termer, was seen as possibly splitting away some conservative support otherwise figured to go to Hruska.

Whatever the final field it will undoubtedly take more than one ballot to settle the issue.

Scott said Sunday he had indications 20 senators favor him for the job with seven or eight other possibilities.

The Pennsylvanian also said a possibility exists of avoiding a fight altogether for the post if GOP senators decide such a battle might split the party.

Scott was interviewed Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" radio-television program.

200 Injured As Stand Collapses

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — A platform crowded with fans watching the running of the bulls collapsed in a nearby village Monday and police reported nearly 200 persons were injured.

They said their own reports earlier that six persons were kille dwere erroneous.

"As far as we know there are no dead," said one official.

The accident occurred in the village of Moita do Ribatejo.

It was learned that a steel scaffolding built to sustain a wooden platform suddenly gave in under the weight of hundreds of spectators.

Scores of ambulances were rushed to the scene. All the casualties were Portuguese, police said.

The incident occurred as thousands of villagers and many foreigners were watching the traditional bull running event.

A spokesman for the Moita do Ribatejo fire brigade said the stands "folded down like paper toys."

A 16-year-old Fairfax youth was injured yesterday when the car in which he was riding swerved to avoid a dog in the road and slammed into an embankment, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Tim Maroney, of 450 Cascade Drive, was treated at Marin General Hospital for back sprain after the 5:20 p.m. accident on Raven Road in Sleepy Hollow.

He was a passenger in a car driven by Christopher Henry Hammond, 16, of 183 Scenic Avenue, Fairfax, the patrol said.

Kerr Sees Education In 'Deepest' Crisis

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Higher education in the United States is in "the deepest crisis in all the 333 years since the founding of Harvard," Clark Kerr, chairman of the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education said today.

"This is a sad commentary to make when it has also just completed its decade of greatest advance," Kerr told the opening session of the Southern Governors' Conference.

To resolve the crisis Kerr suggested several "constructive roles" that governors and other political leaders can perform:"

Creation of additional places to match the continued surge of students in the 1970s, particularly by spreading community colleges throughout the nation and establishing more urban-located state colleges.

Careful scrutiny of proposals for supporting additional institutions to offer the doctorate degree.

Encouragement of private sources of support for higher education with the hope of maintaining the current 50-50 private-public ratio.

Shifting the public burden more heavily to the federal government to reflect the federal proportion of tax revenues, which is two-thirds.

Acceptance of the expectation that the campuses may be more of a center of dissent indefinitely in the future than it has been historically in the past.

—Placing the primary responsibility for prevention of violence on academic discipline while providing protection against intrusion from the outside.

—Protection of the autonomy of institutions of higher education "for their own sake and for the sake of society."

Western Airlines introduces a new concept in service to Hawaii

To set the mood, authentic Hawaiian music welcomes you aboard the jet. And suddenly–you're in the Islands. Flower-laden stewardesses in exotic muumuus greet you and help make you comfortable. (The girl in the longest muumuu is the Executive Hostess. Her main job is to do all those pleasant little extras you probably don't expect to have done for you.)

During the flight, the stewardesses will answer any questions you have about Hawaii. Because all of them have had training in the culture, history and high-spots of our 50th State.

The food on "The Islander" is a story in itself. It starts with complimentary Islander Champagne Punch...offered from an imposing carved bowl to everyone aboard.

Coach passengers will then have a problem: they'll have to choose among three luscious entrees (dishes like Steak Teriyaki, Two Princess Chicken and Pork Loin Oahu)...accompanied by exotic Chinese vegetables ...and followed by a mouth-watering dessert.

They'll have to make personal selections throughout a seven-course Islander feast! For the main dish alone, there are five choices, including Polynesian Roast Tenderloin, cooked and carved to order.

"The Islander" jets to Honolulu from major cities in the West. You can take it from San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Anchorage, Las Vegas, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, Denver and Minneapolis/St. Paul. Or make easy connections from almost anywhere in Western's World.

Call Western or your Travel Agent. Ask about reserving a seat on "The Islander"...and get details about a wide range of complete vacation tours and packages to fit every budget.

If you've never visited Hawaii, "The Islander" is your perfect introduction. And if you have been to Hawaii before, you'll especially appreciate the entirely new standards of service that await you.
"The Islander" is your prevue of paradise!

Haynsworth Bench Nod Most Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite opposition from civil rights and labor leaders, all signs now indicate President Richard M. Nixon's nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. for the Supreme Court will be confirmed by the Senate.

Senate Judiciary Committee hearings starting Tuesday could change the picture, but so far no organized effort has developed within the Senate to block approval of the 56-year-old South Carolinian.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., who indicated he probably will vote against the nomination, has nonetheless predicted Haynsworth will be confirmed—and others not enthusiastic about the appointment agree.

NOT OVERJOYED

The Haynsworth nomination also has picked up the far-from-enthusiastic support of Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., who spearheaded last year's successful fight to keep Abe Fortas from becoming chief justice.

"If you think my silence until now has been interpreted as meaning that I am not overjoyed by the appointment," Griffin said Sunday at Mackinac Island, Mich., "you're absolutely right."

"But on the basis of all the knowledge I have today, I predict that Judge Haynsworth's appointment will be confirmed with my support."

Acting Senate GOP leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania also indicated yesterday he might back the nomination.

He spoke on the NBC TV-radio interview program "Meet the Press."

WANT TO TALK

More than a score of witnesses have asked to be heard at the committee hearings Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he expects to take two or three days.

Haynsworth has been a judge on the Fourth U.S. Appeals Court in Richmond, Va., since 1957.

The White House, in announcing Aug. 18 the nomination to fill the court vacancy created by the resignation under fire of Fortas, said Nixon feels Haynsworth "has demonstrated judicial temperament, balance, impartiality and fairness."

However, in a letter to all senators, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP and chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, said "the constitutional rights of millions of Americans will be less secure" if Haynsworth is confirmed.

Car Makers Defending Price Stickers

DETROIT (AP) — Auto makers readied a sharp rebuttal today to a government charge that the price stickers on new cars may deceive buyers.

General Motors, Chrysler, Ford and American Motors—which sell more than 8 million cars a year—are expected to tell the Federal Trade Commission, in hearings opening tomorrow in Washington, that the window stickers carrying manufacturers' suggested retail prices actually improve the bargaining position of new car buyers.

The FTC says that under present practice "manufacturers may be engaged in direct misrepresentation of prices as well as placing in the hands of dealers the means and instrumentality for deceiving consumers as to savings at the retail level."

The sticker price notices required by a 1958 law, the Monroney Act, purport to show a base price for the car plus itemized prices on equipment.

Automakers formulate their suggested retail prices on a base factory cost of a car, adding a percentage to give an annual return on capital and another sum for a dealer discount. The dealer discount usually ranges between 17 and 25 per cent, depending on the car model.

Chrysler Corp., in a 38-page brief filed with the commission, said that "if, as the commission's notice suggests, the sticker price is to reflect in every instance the 'prevailing price' in each market, the consumer no longer will be able to bargain over the price of the new vehicle or his trade-in."

Some units are sold above sticker prices, Chrysler said, adding: "As to sales at other prices, the retail purchaser realizes that the manufacturer's suggested retail price is merely the starting point from which the bargaining will begin, as the Congress expected it to be."

U.S. Cracking Down On Border Dope Flow

WASHINGTON (AP) — With stiffer border inspections, specially equipped airplanes and by closer cooperation with Mexican officials, the government is hoping to stem a growing flow of illegal drugs and narcotics from below the Rio Grande.

Dubbed "Operation Intercept," the drive to halt smuggling of marijuana, cocaine and heroin from Mexico was made public by Deputy Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst this weekend.

The primary goal is to cut off the source of the contraband at its source: marijuana and poppy fields in remote corners of Mexico, Kleindienst said.

"Our entire objective is to get to the source of the problems, not to make thousands of arrests," he said.

Resources of several federal agencies are being called upon to help, he said. The Federal Aviation Agency is keeping a closer watch on small planes crossing the border; Coast Guard and Navy vessels are watching small boats, and Customs and Border Patrol units are pulling "blitz" inspections of travelers.

But the most important phase of the project is a series of conferences with Mexican officials to pursuade them to intensify efforts to cut the drug and narcotic flow off at its source, Kleindiest said.

Among cooperative U.S.-Mexican projects will be aerial spraying of marijuana fields with chemicals designed to kill the crop he said.

Trio Suffers Minor Injuries

Three persons suffered minor injuries Saturday morning when a flat tire caused their car to overturn after veering off the southbound connector to Highway 101 from Highway 37, Ignacio.

The California Highway Patrol reported that the car driven by Michael B. James, 43, of 114 Louisiana Street, Vallejo, struck an embankment along the west side of the roadway after the left rear tire blew out and overturned at 8:50 a.m.

Motorcycle Stolen From Fairfax Home

A 1966 model motorcycle, owned by Charles E. Gast of 71 Forrest Terrace, Fairfax, was reported stolen at 9:30 p.m. yesterday and found a short time later by San Anselmo police.

Fairfax police said the bike was taken between 11 p.m. Saturday and the time it was reported missing yesterday. It was found parked on Lansdale Avenue in San Anselmo.

Sailor Beats Debbie, But Not Officialdom

SAN SALVADOR, Bahamas (AP) — A lone sailor missing for a month has turned up after a 114-day Atlantic crossing from Ireland undertaken to prove that a legendary monk known as Brendan the Bold could have done it 1,400 years ago.

Bill Verity, a brawny, 43-year-old Irishman who braved Hurricane Debbie en route, said he was "damn glad to be back."

The former Fort Lauderdale, Fla., boat builder put wobbly sealegs ashore Sunday after accepting a brief tow from an oil tanker.

Once on the island, the first Columbus claimed for his sovereigns in 1492, Verity encountered officialdom. His papers weren't adequate to satisfy Bahamian authorities he should be allowed into the British colony of Nassau.

But the barrel-chested Irishman said he hoped to get the red tape untangled and sail for Nassau on Tuesday.

Verity's 20-foot-boat, named Brendan the Bold after the legendary Irish monk, put into Cockburn Harbor, about 200 miles southeast of Nassau.

He had not been seen since Aug. 14, when a Coast Guard cutter helped the sunburned sailor repair a rudder battered by heavy seas 400 miles northeast of Puerto Rico.

At that time, Verity was near Debbie's predicted path but he declined to abandon his journey.

Debbie apparently passed about 150 to 175 miles to the north of him, he said.

Verity said he borrowed five days' food supplies from the crew of a passing Russian freighter on Aug. 30 and borrowed more food from a Dutch ship six days later.

He said he asked both crews to notify authorities of his position, but apparently no word from them reached shore.

Verity spent two years in Ireland overseeing construction of Brendan the Bold.

He also crossed the Atlantic three years ago in a 12-foot boat.

Youth Reports Robbery Attempt

A Strawberry youth reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday morning that two men he had given a ride from San Francisco attempted to rob him when he let them off at Waldo Point.

Renaldo Raphael Batz, 22, of 101 Carlota Circle, told deputies the men demanded his wallet and one started to hit him at 4:40 a.m.

Batz grabbed his car keys and ran, and the two men ran into the Marin City area, deputies said.

BARRICADE FEUD—Armed British troops man a barbed wire barricade that separates Catholic and Protest sections in Belfast. New fighting broke out yesterday and the British peace team described the situation as "pretty frightening." (UPI Telephoto)

Belfast Catholics Demanding Immunity

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Leaders of one of Belfast's biggest Roman Catholic areas are demanding a written guarantee of immunity from arrest before bringing their barricades down.

A communique from the Central Citizens' Defense Committee said this demand was put to the British Army during talks yesterday.

"We can give no guarantees," said the army, adding that this is a matter for the home ministry.

Home Minister Robert Porter gave assurance last week that he had no intention of ordering the arrest of barricade leaders unless they had broken the criminal law. But this apparently did not satisfy the Catholics.

The Catholic committee issued a communique after a meeting of delegates claiming to represent 70,000 persons in barricaded Catholic areas. It said the "overwhelming majority of people want the barricades to stay until precise agreement is reached on adequate military protection between local army commanders and the respective citizens defense committees."

Six days ago, Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark told the nation that the barricades were "strangling the whole community" and must come down.

Scores of Protestant barricades erected as a protest against the Catholic barricades have been removed voluntarily. More than 150 Catholic barricades remain, and there are fears that the Protestants may soon carry out threats to bring back their own barricades unless the army acts.

Meanwhile, army authorities and civil detectives were investigating the deaths of two British soldiers who were shot while on guard duty early Sunday.

The army now is satisfied that one man was accidentally shot by another soldier. The other victim was found dead with head wounds. Police say they have ruled out foul play, but the army says it has reached no conclusion.

Woman Is Fair From Car Crash

Patricia Ann Martin, 34, of Palo Alto, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with facial cuts and a fractured nose, suffered in a two-car accident at 6:20 p.m. yesterday on North San Pedro Road and La Pasada, according to the California Highway Patrol.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Richard Urban Laine, 39, of Menlo Park, who was treated at Marin General for multiple cuts.

The patrol said Laine's car hit a car driven by Verna Arabella Cassell, 55, of 555 Tarraon Drive, San Rafael, as she was turning left from San Pedro onto La Pasada. She was cited for failure to yield to traffic while making a left turn.

Fleeing Cubans Get A Lift To Freedom

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Two young Cubans who hoped to make the 90-mile crossing to Florida in a tiny rubber raft have reached the U.S. mainland in a rescuing cargo vessel.

Juan Manuel, 21, and Raul Quintana, 22, completed their trip to freedom yesterday in the U.S. steamship Giddes Lykes, which plucked them from the Gulf of Mexico 75 miles southwest of Key West.

The raft was only 6 feet 3 inches long and their only supplies were several tins of condensed milk and three cans of water. They were at sea four days.

The two said they were employed drawing maps in the Havana City Planning Department.

"We were paid 160 pesos a month," said Quintana, "and on the black market 12 pesos are equivalent to one American dollar."

They said money was of little value in Cuba anyway because there was little or nothing to buy.

"Rice, which appears to be plentiful, is rationed at six pounds per month per person," said Manuel.

They said that when given vacations from their regular jobs young men are forced to labor in the sugar cane fields and young women are forced to pick potatoes and other field produce.

Manuel said they had obtained the raft in exchange for a watch that had cost him 1,500 pesos.

Quintana said he left a wife and small son behind. Manuel said he was not married.

They plan to live in Miami where Quintana said he has relatives.

Both were cleared for admission to the country by U.S. emigration and naturalization officials last night.

More Smokers Think It Is Morally Wrong

WASHINGTON (AP) — An increasing number of cigarette smokers believe there is something morally wrong about smoking cigarettes, according to a survey commissioned by the Public Health Service which is the federal government's principal antismoking advocate.

The percentage of male smokers surveyed who believed it is morally wrong rose from 16.4 in 1964 to 45 in 1966, the agency reported. The percentage of women smokers who believed it rose from 13.2 in 1964 to 47.4 in 1966.

The results of the two surveys on public attitudes on the smoking problem are just being released by the PHS to researchers and analysts.

The question arises as to what people mean when they say cigarette smoking is morally wrong.

Dr. Daniel Horn, director of the National Clearing House of Smoking and Health, said he believes it encompassed a feeling about taking care of the body.

"You have a certain responsibility for your body," Horn said in an interview. "If you do something that harm it . . . you really don't have the right to treat yourself that badly.

"It's an old religious concept that it's wrong to abuse your body."

Why are more thinking it's morally wrong?

"I guess it would be as you begin really to accept the fact that this (cigarette smoking) is seriously a harmful thing . . . I suppose people thought it was one of those minor vices, wasn't good for you but wan't any catastrophic sort of thing; then as you realize the damage can be pretty appreciable---."

The first survey was made in 1964, several months after the government report on the dangers of smoking and is based on a sampling of 5,794 adult American smokers and nonsmokers. The second, in 1966, covered 5,770 smokers and nonsmokers to determine any changes in attitude and behavior. A third is planned within the next 12 months. The first two were conducted for PHS by National Analysts, Inc., of Philadelphia, and the Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, N.J.

Six Persons Injured In Two-Car Collision

Six persons were injured and two of them hospitalized yesterday as a result of a two-car collision on the Sausalito lateral off Highway 101, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Listed in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today was Julie K. Borello, 19, of 38 Corte Marada, Greenbrae. She was being treated for a back sprain, multiple internal injuries and a separated right shoulder.

Another passenger in the same car, Leslie Galler, 19, of 202 Princeton Avenue, Almonte, suffered a bruised forehead and scrapes on the left knee and right ankle. He was transferred to Letterman General Hospital where a report on his condition today was not available.

Miss Borello and Galler were passengers in a car driven by Bruce Furth Mendle, 18, of 50 Via Cheparro, Greenbrae, which collided with one driven by Larry Erich Fischer, 29, of Sunnyvale.

Mendle was treated at Marin General for a bruised forehead and cut right arm and Fischer was treated for two chipped teeth.His wife, Maria, 26, was treated for abdominal pains and their 6-month-old son was not hurt.

A third passenger in Mendle's car was Russell Batt, 19, of 21 Sheridan Court, Mill Valley, who did not require hospital treatment.

The mishap occurred at 3:15 p.m.

Mining has been important in the Andes since the Incas extracted the gold and silver that excited the avarice of the Spanish conquerors. Today, however, copper and tin are more important commercially.

THE PENNEY STORY

Mrs. Penney's answer to her husband

By ROBERTA NASH

One day we were up in Mr. Penney's office talking about how hard it is to get "the Penney difference" across to people outside the company. Mr. Penney told this anecdote:

"Once after a very inspiring meeting with store managers, I said to Mrs. Penney, 'You know, I am not yet satisfied that I have ever been able to tell the real story of this company. Why?'

"Mrs. Penney turned to me. 'Because you cannot define the soul,' she answered."

WANTED — Joseph Lloyd Thomas, convicted bank robber sought on suspicion of violating federal parole and bank robbery, has been added to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted fugitives. Thomas, 57, is wanted in connection with the robbery of the Merchants National Bank in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Suit, Cash Taken From Room At Inn

Ronald Lawrence Nolan of Columbus, Ohio, reported to San Rafael police yesterday that someone took a suit valued at $150 and $30 cash from his room at Holiday Inn 1010 Northgate Drive, San Rafael.

Nolan, who was in Room 106, said the burglary occurred sometime between 11 p.m. Saturday and 3 a.m. yesterday.

Assembly Chambers Will Get A New Coat Of Paint

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assembly Republican leaders have decided the drab green lower house chamber needs about $75,000 worth of "modest" renovations before the beginning of the 1970 legislative session.

"This is certainly not going to be an extreme remodeling job," said Assemblyman Eugene A. Chappie, R-Cool, chairman of the Rules Committee.

"It's just cleanup-fixup. Routine maintenance," he said.

This year Chappie said the renovations will include:

Replacement of the "threadbare" sea green carpet.

A new paint job for the apple green walls.

New draperies to replace the present bleached-out beige and gold curtains.

Better lighting than present fluorescent tubes.

"I think we can accomplish the whole thing for less than $75,000," said Chappie. "I think that's a pretty modest figure when you consider the general appearance of the chambers as opposed to what the Senate recently did."

In 1965, the Senate elaborately redid the upper house chambers at a cost estimated by Chappie at "a quarter of a million."

Three Killed In Crash Of Plane

TRUCKEE, Nev. (AP) — Three persons were killed when a single-engine plane crashed into Martis Peak and burned shortly after taking off yesterday from Tahoe-Truckee airport.

Authorities in Reno identified two of the victims as Charles R. (Rocky) Reynolds, 44, manager of the commercial sales department of the Sears, Roebuck Co. in Reno, and his wife Edna, 35. Sheriff deputies in Truckee said the third victim, a man, had not been identified late yesterday.

Deputies said the Cessna 172 failed to clear the peak and, about five minutes after take-off hit two trees, fell to the ground and burned. The peak at about 7,000 feet, is five miles southwest of the airport.

The fire burned trees in the immediate area and its heat melted the plane, deputies said.

Student Back To Post At Sonoma State

The student directors had refused to approve his appointment Thursday, but the next evening voted to reinstate him. The main bone of contention had been his advice concerning the use of drugs in the 26 page "Kiosk," freshman handbook.

In the brochure Hamburg, a senior sociology major, said, "The use of mind-altering drugs adds a new dimension, enhancing creativity while blocking memorization." He warned against the use of destructive drugs in which he listed speed, heroin, tobacco, excessive alcohol and barbiturates.

Some of the student directors objected to the list and said that marijuana and LSD should also have been included. Hamburg said his failure to include them on the list was not meant as an endorsement of their use.

In reconsidering his appointment, the students heard Joyce Gillette, senate member and wife of student body president James G. Gillette, admonish that the group had vowed not to become a censoring board.

Gillette, who had offered Hamburg's appointment, said that failure to approve the appointment would be a slap against him and his authority.

Discipline Report Among Agenda Items

Reports from committees in transportation and discipline will be heard tonight by Tamalpais High School District trustees when they meet at 8 p'clock in the district office at Redwood High School.

The board will also consider asking Mill Valley police to help with traffic control on the Tamalpais High School campus and will discuss entering into an agreement with San Francisco State College to provide student teachers for the coming academic year.

In this age of gimcracks and chrome, is there a place for a car so masterfully engineered that 90 percent of its value is invisible?

Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

Yesterday's dreamboats had enormous tail fins.

Obviously, there are millions every year who are willing to buy a car that's "in vogue"—even though they know newer gimcracks and styling quirks will soon erode their investment.

At Mercedes-Benz, iron-willed engineers, not stylists, rule the roost. And they insist on putting value where they think it belongs: at the heart of their machines.

That's why Mercedes-Benz motor cars can cost anywhere from about $4,600 to $27,000 without, to some tastes, "looking" it.

Form follows function

Make no mistake. The perfectionists at Mercedes-Benz do not apologize for those classic lines—free of faddish touches—that will still be handsome years from now. They simply think form should follow function instead of fashion.

The contours of that 250 sedan at right were dictated by the need to provide proper headroom, hiproom, legroom and protective packaging for five adults. Dictated by the proportions required for nimble maneuverability.

The car is both shorter and leaner than its overweight rivals. Yet it bristles with sophisticated, ultra-performance features that simply do not exist on domestic sedans.

A superb machine

Too sophisticated, some critics say. Nonsense, retort Mercedes-Benz engineers. If a man can afford to invest thousands of dollars in a superb driving machine, he is entitled to get something superb.

An expert from Car and Driver tested the "new" 250 when it was released early in 1968 after an incubation period of five years. His verdict: "Offhand, I can't think of any other 4-door sedan in the world—with the possible exception of the Maserati Quattroporte—that handles, steers and stops like the Mercedes."

Scrapping the solid rear axle system of most domestic cars, the 250 uses an all-independent suspension—plus anti-sway bars front and rear. This endows it with the agility of a scrambling quarterback.

You can blast it over rutted and potholed gravel lanes. It behaves with almost eerie calm. You can thread it through the corkscrew turns of a mountain road, and enjoy yourself.

There's no sloppy play in the steering. No mushiness. When you hold the wheel, you "feel" the road. When you turn the wheel, the car responds instantly. Suddenly, you are a more confident driver.

Heroic stopping power

Stopping? Unless you have driven a 180-mph Grand Prix racing car or a Mercedes-Benz, chances are you have never experienced the security that comes from having really good brakes.

Disc brakes.

A few domestic sedans have front-wheel disc brakes, and others offer front-wheel discs as an option. But every Mercedes-Benz comes with massive disc brakes on all four wheels. Standard.

Result: You get more stopping power than you may ever need. But you sleep better at night.

The pinnacle of safety

As for safety, Mercedes-Benz engineers applaud the intent of the U.S. Government regulations, and carry their protective measures beyond the letter of these laws.

The 250's best defense against blundering drivers is, of course, its almost uncanny evasive ability. But, if the worst happens, your Mercedes-Benz is designed to shield you.

The entire passenger compartment is built as a sturdy "safety zone." Doors are designed to stay closed on impact. The front and rear sections of the car are engineered to crumple in a violent crash at a controlled rate, absorbing shock and reducing the threat of serious injury.

Car and Driver's sober conclusion: Of all the world's motor cars, the current Mercedes-Benz line "represents the present pinnacle in safe car engineering."

Value. All of it concealed from the casual eye. But there.

And there's more. Construction of every Mercedes-Benz begins in a shower of sparks. Where conventional cars use bolts to tie body and chassis together, Mercedes-Benz uses thousands of welds to create a single unit of immense strength. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 250 will ever rattle.

When welding stops, the raw body is dunked whole, like a taffy apple, into a gigantic vat of primer. It emerges with 24 pounds of rust protection.

More hidden value

Every car gets 20 more pounds of primer and paint. Even the insides of the hub caps are coated. As a final flourish in its armament against corrosion, each car gets a 24-pound factory slathering of undercoating.

The six-cylinder, overhead-cam engine of every 250 is bench tested before installation, for more than 60 minutes. A hint of trouble in this gruelling test and the engine is torn down and rebuilt. Mercedes-Benz finds the lemons—not you.

Revealing showroom tests

Run a finger along the body of the 250. No "orange peel" texture. Slide in and open the glove compartment. Fully trimmed. Close the car door. Ka-chunk.

Now flex your back. This is no marshmallow seat. It supports you, mile after mile. It should: it was designed with the guidance of orthopedic physicians.

Crank the window and fiddle with some knobs. "Everything worked with delightful precision, eliciting the same sort of satisfaction that comes when the shutter mechanism crackles shut on a good reflex camera," reported Car and Driver's expert.

That's the beauty of the 250. It's built as if it were a 3,000-pound Hasselblad camera!

An unconventional car? Defiantly so. Mercedes-Benz does not make conventional cars—and never will.

24-page brochure

Of course, the quickest way to verify the 250's virtues, both visible and invisible, is simply to drop by the showroom and arrange a test drive.

Other models to ponder:

220 Diesel—the only diesel-powered automobile Mercedes-Benz makes, gives you small-car economy in a big, safe sedan that may well endure for decades, $4,780*.

300SEL—an understated limousine, $9,849*.

MOPPETS INVADE CENTRAL PARK

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

To Avoid Accidents Drivers Need More Testing, Less Pride

DEAR HELEN:

It's time legislators tightened rules governing automobile driving licenses.

Three cases which touched me recently provoke this letter. A young neighbor riding with a man subject to diabetic blackouts was killed when the man cracked up the car.

Last weekend a 78-year-old, slightly inebriated to boot, ran into a vehicle in which the daughter of a friend of mine was riding. She got a broken arm, but her father, on hearing of the accident, had a heart attack.

Another friend of mine whose hearing and sight are impaired has had a few minor accidents. She always said, "I like to live dangerously." When it was pointed out that perhaps others on the road did not share her philosophy, she finally began to consider giving up her license.

It seems to me that frequent physical re-testing of drivers might spare some lives and much heartache — and I mean in-depth testing if there is a history of any defect. Disabled people sometimes try to minimize their defects — and that goes for older people too. Pride often goes before a crash! — ELEANOR

DEAR ELEANOR:

How frighteningly true. Legislators, take note! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I had a freezer full of meat, and only recently started buying meat at the market again. The prices floored me! Round steak that I had gotten for not over 89 cents a pound six months ago, is now up to $1.09 — and that's on sale! Usually it's higher. All meat seems to have jumped at least 20 per cent in just a few months. Groceries have gone up just about as much — and when I bought our kids' school clothes this year I went flat broke. They were several dollars per article higher.

What I can't understand is: The government is trying to curb inflation by raising the interest rate — which means we can't buy a new house, and when we get furniture or anything on time, we pay at least 18 per cent per year. But how is inflation being curbed when prices on necessities keep right on skyrocketing? Ever since the new interest rates were announced, we've had nothing but higher prices. — WHAT GIVES?

DEAR W. G.:

I'm not an economist, but I agree: There's something awfully wrong with anti-inflation measures which result in higher prices! Why don't we all write to our Congressmen and get some answers?

(And while we're about it, let's demand the income tax reform they've been promising us for lo, these many years. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you have any more of those proverb quizzes left? I believe you called them governmentese, as in "Precipitancy creates prodigality," ("Haste makes waste.") How can we get copies? — PARTY GIVER

DEAR P. G.:

Yes, I have a few such mimeographs on hand. Anyone wishing copies may send a long stamped, self-addressed envelope to Helen Bottel, care of the Independent-Journal. Mark your request, "Governmentese Quiz."

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen Help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Hot Water To Relieve Itching

NEW YORK (UPI)—Try hot water to alleviate itching caused by such summer hazards as poison ivy and insect bites.

The water, hot enough to be painful, should be applied briefly but repeatedly with a wash cloth. The itchy skin also can be exposed to very hot running water. However, the high temperature—120 to 130 degrees—is too high to be used safely in bath or shower. If a large area of skin is involved, it should receive the hot water treatment bit by bit. Women's Medical News Service reports the method of treatment.

Examples of his work have been featured in many of the home magazines, and Wheatman lectures to professional groups on decoration and home furnishings.

JOHN WHEATMAN

A graduate of the University of Washington, currently an instructor at the University of California extension, he spent many years as designer for a leading furniture company before establishing his own business.

"NINETEEN YEARS ago one of the most lovable, cheerful and hard-working residents of Mill Valley took over the managing of the Salvage Shop of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church."

Such was the description of Mrs. Frances Ferrario by one of the long-time parishioners. Now Mrs. Ferrario has decided to slow down a bit and has resigned as manager of the shop. Mrs. Anthony J. Almada will be her successor.

During her tenure Mrs. Ferrario turned the shop not only into a profit-making venture but frequently made it a source of clothing and furniture without cost to needy families, regardless of their church affiliation.

Mrs. Ferrario says she was able to set up a very smooth-working operation in the early days because of the large group of volunteers. She has been a resident of Mill Valley for "57 years, from the day that I was married." A widow for the past 36 years, she is the mother of Charles and Rose Ferrario of Mill Valley and Mrs. Edward Massen of Napa.

Mrs. Ferrario will continue to be a board member of the Mount Carmel Women's Club.

THE FAMILY Service League of Marin will hold its first fall meeting 10 a.m. Wednesday at Sabella's of Marin. Following the general meeting there will be a luncheon and fashion show. Mrs. Raye Murray, vice president, is chairman.

Models for the show will be Family Service League members Mmes. Donald Sandy, F. K. Coburn, H. Edward Maxwell, and John Hawkens, all of San Rafael; Bernard Weinstein and John Bricker of Mill Valley; Stewart Lyons of Ross, and Leo Souza of Tiburon.

Mrs. Thomas Wynn, a league member, will be the fashion commentator and reservations chairmen are Mrs. F. K. Coburn and Mrs. John Bricker.

CABBAGES AND kings? — perhaps not, but many things will be sold at the St. Luke Presbyterian Church rummage sale at Loch Lomond Shopping Center in San Rafael Friday and Saturday. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A "nearly new" booth will feature finer articles. Mrs. Wendell Reilly is sale chairman.

"NURSES' ROLE in Planned Parenthood" will be Dr. William C. Langford's address to the meeting of the Marin Nurses Association at Marin General Hospital at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Dr. Langford is the medical director and clinician of Planned Parenthood Association of Marin.

THE OPENING assembly beginning the 50th anniversary year of the Katharine Branson School will be Wednesday at 8 in the School Study Hall. Miss Katharine Fleming Branson, headmistress emeritus, will be among the guests of honor. Following the assembly, alumnae, parents, and friends of the school are invit- to a coffee hour in the residence.

H. Leonard Richardson, headmaster, will give a short welcoming address to the students who come from five foreign countries, 13 states and 40 California cities.

Thursday, the official NASA film of the lunar landing will be shown for students and their parents.

PATH FINDERS at Marin Art and Garden Center have set tomorrow as the opening date for their current season of luncheon service at the Magnolia Room in the Center grounds in Ross.

This year, the group of volunteers will offer Tuesday and Thursday luncheon service open to the public, and party arrangements on other days of the week.

Two seatings, at noon and 1 p.m. will be held, with reservations not always required, but advised. These may be obtained by calling the Center office.

Size Sets Price

Size rather than quality usually determines the price of oysters. Eastern oysters come in several sizes. The Counts or extra large, contain not more than 44 oysters per quart. The very smalls have about 68 oysters per quart.

Fudge

One way to prevent graininess in homemade fudge: Grease the sides of the pan with some of the butter or margarine called for in the recipe. This helps keep sugary crystals from forming while the candy cooks.

Senator Seen As Nominee

On the ABC televison-radio program "Issues and Answers" Sunday, Mansfield said Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine is leading at the moment.

He added: "former vice president Hubert Humphrey is right behind him. There is Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma to consider and there will be others."

Mansfield said he was assuming that Humphrey, the nominee in 1968, would run for the Senate from Minnesota in 1970 and would be elected.

Some Trading Barriers Off

LONDON (AP) — The United States and 14 allied countries are lowering their barriers on exports of strategic products to the Soviet bloc. But the bans are staying up for trade with the Asian Communist governments and Albania.

Diplomats reported yesterday that concessions to be announced next month will not be extended to Communist China, to Albania, its only European ally, or to North Vietnam and North Korea.

The embargo on munitions and other war weapons remains.

Informants said the previously banned items which the Soviet bloc now will be able to buy include certain types of computers, rare metals and their alloys, chemical and petroleum equipment.

Opera Auditions

Auditions for the College of Marin opera workshop will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesday in Room 72 of the college's fine arts building. Operas by Joseph Haydn and Ethel Smyth are planned for this semester.

A progress report on logging at the Ethel Righetti Ranch at Bolinas including assurances by loggers that fire hazards will be removed and debris cleaned up will be heard by the board during the afternoon session.

Also scheduled are requests by the operator of an auto wrecking yard on George Kappas' property on Bolinas Street in Richardson bay that the property be filled to prevent flooding at high tide and by Storer Cable TV Inc., of Rohnert Park to operate a community antenna television system at Stinson Beach, Bolinas, Point Reyes Station, Inverness, Tomales and Dillon Beach.

LADY RACER MAKES RESPECTABLE TIME

Tachy Dunham, 15, nervously awaits the starter's gun in the Orange Crate Derby on San Marino Drive in Peacock Gap. Tachy was the only girl Saturday among the five entries and clocked a respectable one-tenth of a second slower than winner Brad Frager, 13, who had a 7.6-second time for the 65-yard course. Brad, who won a $25 savings bond and trophy, now is eligible to compete in the state race in Novato Oct. 5. The race was sponsored by the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce. A Slight Drop In Marin School Enrollment Noted

Enrollment in Marin County public schools has dropped by 768 students this year from opening registration of last year, reversing a growth trend that has been accepted as normal by school administrators for years.

First day enrollment in public schools this year totaled 45,640.

John F. Plank superintendent of the San Rafael Elementary and High School District, and Robert D. Torrey, acting superintendent of the Tamalpais High School District, agreed that housing costs and highway improvement have been factors in downward enrollment.

Most of the cheap land for construction in southern Marin, where the Tamalpais district is located, has been developed and prices of houses are rising, forcing many parents with children to move to another area, Torrey said. Freeway improvements have allowed parents to live in Northern Marin and commute to San Francisco, he added.

Torrey and Plank both said they thought the nation-wide "tight money" situation makes it too costly for many parents to purchase expensive homes in the county.

Nationally, the enrollment trend is down, said the two largely because the children of the post World War II baby boom are in or past hight school. Plank thinks the rate will rise again in the late 1970s when the children of the war babies reach elementary and high school age.

Wide-spread use of birth control pills in recent years probably also has contributed to the national down trend, they said.

Other elementary districts that enrolled fewer pupils were Dixie, 4,709, down 158; Fairfax, 1,078, down 54; Laguna, 16, down seven; Lagunitas, 479, down 25; Larkspur, 1,697, down 31; Mill Valley, 3,539, down 19; Nicasio, 47, down four; Reed, 2,036, down eight and Ross, 497, down 12.

Novato Unified School District's elementary schools enrollment declined 131 to 6,667, but the district's junior high enrollment rose 131 to 2,640 students and those in high school increased by three to 2,235.

The only other unified school district, brand new Shoreline, also showed a gain, with Tomales High School up 50 to 251 and the component elementary schools gaining 25 for a total of 619.

Other school districts that had more pupils were San Rafael High with 3,972, up 56; Kentfield, 1,488, up 15; San Anselmo, 2,157, up 15; Bolinas-Stinson, 151, up eight; Lincoln, 14, up two; Union, 12, up two.

Cotati district has 1,661 elementary students up 17 from last years, and Old Adobe 1,268, up 203. Petaluma Elementary School District has 3,379 up 212; Petaluma High School District has 4,868 up 159.

Among private schools the trend was generally up, Clairbourn Marin School at 35, up 17; Marin Country Day School, 361, up 61; San Rafael Military Academy, 185, up 6; Katharine Branson School, 141, up one; Shasta School 35, down 10; Three R Schools, 211, up 10; Meadowsweet School 15, no change, and Corey School, 54, up eight.

Parochial school figures for Marin County will not be compiled until the end of the month, but Marin Catholic High School reported an enrollment of 789, a drop of 15, and San Domenico School for Girls has 454 students, an increase of 14.

In southern Sonoma, St. Vincent De Paul High School has 242, down two, and the elementary school has 367, down 20.

In most schools, public and private the figures change somewhat after the first month as final figures are compiled and late enrollments are tallied.

Narcotic Remedy Held Death Cause

A home remedy for a narcotic reaction apparently caused the mysterious drowning death of James Michael Letsos last Wednesday, authorities said today.

Lt. Guido Battaglia said the death appears to have been an accidental drowning in the youth's shower.

Battaglia said Letsos, 21, came home early Wednesday morning, apparently suffering from a reaction to heroin.

Shouts of "Come on down, I need some help," brought Letsos's roommate, Robert G. Wright, 20, to the patio area of the Sausalito apartment house where the youths lived. Letsos was unconscious. A 17-year-old companion — Thomas Ayres of Fairfax — by his side.

Battaglia said Wright and another roommate, Charles W. Bischoff, 19, told sheriff's deputies Letsos had previously reacted badly to a heroin injection and they had taken him to Marin General for treatment.

After he recovered, he told them never to take him to the hospital again, the roommates told officers.

This time, Wright and Bischoff put the youth in the shower and sprayed hot and cold water alternately for times varying from five to 15 minutes. Battaglia said.

After that, the roommates said, he seemd to be all right so they put him to bed and went out to eat. When they returned they decided to give him another shower treatment and also poured a jug of ice water on him, Battaglia said.

The roommates told officers he again seemed to revive and they put him back to bed, Battaglia said. They discovered him dead about 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Battaglia noted the story given earlier by the roommates, that they had been out all evening, had returned about 4 a.m. and hadn't noticed whether Letsos was home, was proved false by other residents of the Eden Roc Apartments.

Actually, Battaglia said, there had been a party at the apartment and it broke up about 11:20 after a fight between Letsos and his brother, Mathew M. Letsos, 18.

After that, the elder Letsos and another youth went into Sausalito for a time, Battaglia said.

Battaglia reported Letsos died less than six hours prior to the beginning of the investigation at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. A needlemark on his inner arm was believed made within 24 hours of the start of the investigation.

Pathology reports on the type of water that caused the drowning and on the possibility of drugs in the youth's body have not been returned, Battaglia said.

Check Writing Suspect Booked

A Southern Marin man was arrested Friday by Mill Valley police on suspicion of forgery after he allegedly cashed $122 in checks on another man's bank account.

David Eugene Schaeffer, 26, of 120 Marin View Avenue, Mount Tamalpais, was booked into Marin County Jail. He was scheduled to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Police said that Martin C. Beard, a past resident of the house in which Schaeffer now lives complained that someone was using a check book he apparently had left behind when he moved.

Employees of the Village Music Store in Mill Valley where some checks were cashed identified Schaeffer as the person who had written the checks, police said.

101 Crash Is Fatal To Marin Driver

Richard Charles Franz, 58, of 904 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, a cabinet maker, was killed Saturday when his car crashed into a guard rail at the southbound Highway 101 offramp to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that Franz apparently was making a last-minute attempt to take the offramp when his car crashed into the guard rail at 9:20 p.m.

The front end of his car was imbedded in the guard rail and he was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 9:41 p.m.

Dr. R. L. Tuckey of 16 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, a dentist, who was driving southbound behind Franz, told officers Franz's car swerved toward the off ramp "at the last minute" and hit the guard rail head-on. Franz's car had been weaving from the top of California Park hill, Tuckey said.

Officers said Franz had been driving under the influence of alcohol and misjudged the offramp.

Franz's death was the 22nd traffic fatalis this year as compared to 24 at this time last year.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Sebastian's Church, Greenbrae, with burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Novatan, 18, Arrested In Marijuana Case

An 18-year-old Novato man was arrested on suspicion of various drug charges and two minor girls were cited to juvenile authorities at 11:09 p.m., Friday, Novato police reported.

Booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of possession of marijuana, possession of narcotics paraphernalia, and contributing to the delinquency of minors, was Valient Gale Nims III of 94 Washington Street. He was released on $625 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

The two minor girls with him were cited to juvenile authorities for violation of curfew and being in a place where marijuana was used.

Police found the three in a car in the back of the lot of the Short Stop market at South Novato Boulevard and Rowland Boulevard, police reported. A search of Nims showed several hand rolled cigarettes thought to be marijuana, a pipe, cigarette papers, three pink tablets and loose marijuana seeds, police reported.

Patrol Pursues Teen Driver At 130 MPH

A 17-year-old Corte Madera youth who said he wanted to see how fast his car would go, according to the California Highway Patrol, was cited to Juvenile Hall early today after he led patrolmen on a chase with speeds reported up to 130 miles per hour.

Gerald Clair Crane, 17, of 2 Palm Avenue, was cited at 1 a.m. for reckless driving, evading arrest and having no driver's license in his possession.

The patrol said a squad car began pursuit of Crane's sports car at the Richardson Bay Bridge. The pursuit car accelerated to 110 miles per hour, the patrol said, but Crane's car was pulling away. The patrol car finally moved up on Crane when it went to 130 miles an hour.

When the siren and red light went on, the patrol said Crane accelerated, then slowed to 90 miles per hour and went off the Irwin Street exit into San Rafael. He went through the light at Irwin and Second streets at a speed of about 55 m.p.h. the patrol said. The youth tried to turn onto Second but instead bounced into a service station, raced through the pump area and skidded back onto Irwin before spinning out.

Neither Crane nor a passenger was injured.

Crane told patrolmen "he was going nowhere and just wanted to see how fast the car would go." He also, according to the patrolmen, said he tried to get away because of a bad driving record which included a court-ordered restriction of his driving to trips to and from work.

The other youth was released to his parents.

Sewer Area Annex Vote Tomorrow

Residents in a northeast section of Tiburon will vote tomorrow on whether to annex to the Corte Madera Sanitary District and hook up to the Corte Madera sewer system.

Residents on Taylor Road and Antoinette Drive, above Paradise Drive and west of Paradise Cay will vote on the annexation at the sole polling place, the Bertram H. Hirsch garage at 4949 Paradise Drive, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. The area has 79 registered voters.

Residents are now served by septic tanks and a Marin County public health official said last spring that "sewage is running all over the place." The election was ordered after 18 of 72 registered voters then in the area objected to the proposed annexation. The objectors said the septic tanks are adequate and that sewering expenses will be too great.

Sewering costs, Corte Madera Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher said, will be $2,000 to $3,000 per property, with additional annexation fees of $250 per acre and $156 connecting fees. In addition, each owner would pay for lines on his own property to meet the public sewer.

School Enrollment On Hub's Agenda

A report on initial enrollment for 1969-70 will be presented to the San Anselmo School District board when it meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Red Hill School library.

Some first graders who attended kindergarten at Yolansdale School, will be transferred to other schools, Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said, because Yolansdale has two kindergarten classes but only one class in each higher grade.

Gunfire Report Leads To Arrest Of Two Petalumans

Two Petaluma youths were arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon after an argument erupted in gunfire late last night.

Stanley L. DeMartinis, 20, of 408 Fair Street, and Donald R. Chassereau, 20, of 180 Cherry Street, were scheduled for arraignment today in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court. Police said they would also be charged with possession of alcoholic beverages.

Police were called at 11:43 p.m. yesterday to 513 Jefferson Street, Petaluma, where the youths were having an argument with Jerry and Barbara Guyer. Guyer said that DeMartinis and Chassereau threatened them with knives and a gun.

Police said a .22-caliber rifle found in their car had been fired twice either into the house or into the air. A 17-year-old girl with the youths was arrested for violation of curfew and possession of alcoholic beverages and sent to Sonoma County Juvenile Hall, Santa Rosa.

An Oil Tanker Opens The Northwest Passage

A huge ice-breaking oil tanker, forcing its way through Arctic seas toward Alaska, may bring to reality a dream five centuries old: that of the Northwest Passage.

The Manhattan, financed principally by Humble Oil Co., sailed on Aug. 24 from Chester, Pa. It is to reach Point Barrow, Alaska, on Saturday — if it can force its way through the ice on schedule.

If it reaches its destination, the Manhattan will be the first commercial vessel ever to negotiate the Northwest Passage, in search of which generations of explorers suffered and died when the New World was really new.

EARLY IN THE 16TH Century, it became apparent to European explorers and their backers that Christopher Columbus and the men who followed him had not reached the Indies as they believed, and that Giovanni Caboto, the Italian who sailed from Bristol under the Anglicized name of John Cabot, had not reached the Asian mainland as he thought when he made a landfall at Cape Breton in 1497.

As other explorers inched their way around Africa and South America, the search was pressed for a shorter route to the fabulous wealth of the East — via the northern seas, the Northwest Passage.

IN 1527, the English merchant Robert Thorne wrote: "There is only one way to discover, which is into the north. For out of Spain they have discovered all the Indies and seas occidental, and out of Portugal all the Indies and seas oriental."

Martin Frobisher thought he had found the passage when he sailed the Gabriel into Hudson Strait in 1576. John Davis followed Frobisher's route three times in the following decade, but only succeeded in wandering up the west coast of Greenland into Baffin Bay.

HENRY HUDSON was sure he had found the passage when he sailed his little vessel, the Discovery, through Hudson Strait in 1610 and saw a vast expanse of water extending south and west before him. But his mutinous crew set him adrift in an open boat and sailed the Discovery back to England.

The mutineers' story revived the dream of a Northwest Passage anew. Instead of being hanged, they were sent out with new expeditions to trace Hudson's route to what he thought was the Pacific but was only Hudson's Bay.

Then, after a series of searches still farther north for a route, the last by Luke Foxe and Thomas James in 1631, the hunt for a Northwest Passage was abandoned. The trade of East and West continued the long way around Cape Horn or the Cape of Good Hope until the Panama Canal was cut through in 1913.

NOT UNTIL 1906 did any vessel thread the ice through the Arctic seas from east to west around America. Then explorer Roald Amundsen accomplished it in a three-year voyage of exploration, wintering on the ice.

This was far from putting a commercial vessel over the dreamed-of route, however. Even the voyage of the nuclear submarine Nautilus under the polar ice in 1958 was far from accomplishing what Cabot and those who followed him sought to do centuries ago.

The Air Age brought the polar route into use, with planes flying from Los Angeles and San Francisco via Greenland to Europe. But it has remained for the tanker Manhattan to make what may prove to be the first commercial sea voyage over the short route from east to west.

BEHIND THE MANHATTAN'S effort is not only 20th Century technology, but also the discovery of a vast oil pool on the north slope of Alaska — riches under the ground which call for transportation to the markets of the world more quickly than by the long way around.

This oil discovery — from which the State of Alaska benefited by nearly a billion dollars in the sale of leases last week — may prove the final spur to open up the great north to waterborne commerce and make the old dream of a Northwest Passage at last come true.

"Just as I thought—PRINTER'S INK!. The whole Santa Barbara channel oil spill was exaggerated by the press!"

AFFAIRS OF STATE

New Grab For Federal Money —Out Of Taxpayers' Pockets

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Federal fund grabbing in California has long been a habit, and like most habits, it gets worse with the passage of years.

Now, the habit appears to be reaching the ultimate, with the passage by the Senate and Assembly during the veto legislative session of a resolution by none other than the speaker of the Assembly, Robert T. Monagan, R-Tracy.

The resolution memorializes Congress to amend the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968 specifically to permit state legislatures to receive funds to carry out studies for the federal government.

Speaker Monagan, immediately after adjournment of the veto session, hopped a plane for Washington, D.C., armed with the resolution and testimony he planned to submit to the Muskie Senate subcommittee on intergovernemnt relations, to "help bolster the case for state legislatures."

CALIFORNIA already has had a taste of federal money allocated specifically to the Legislature. This was the first state to receive such an appropriation.

It so happens that this first grant to a state legislature for research was for a highly worthy cause — $750,000 for a study of the feasibility of steam-propelled buses as an anti-air pollution effort.

The study is under way in the Lear plant north of Reno, Nev., which has a bus torn down to receive a steam engine which as yet has not been constructed. At least, they're working on it, which is a hopeful sign in the war against smog.

HOWEVER, the worthiness of this particular research project is more than likely to set the pattern for research projects which may or may not be vital or important to the welfare of the states.

Already, the federal government on its own has expended hundreds of millions of dollars on research of various types, the over-all value of which is questionable.

IT IS ALWAYS a pleasure for a state politician to say the federal government's paying the bill, and for a local politician to point out the state's paying the bill for some local research project.

This process, however, merely avoids mention of the fact that the taxpayer is paying the bill.

The long list of projects for which federal money is used in California, including highways, education, welfare, agriculture, and many others, is no more than California's due, considering the amount of money Washington siphons out of this state.

On the other hand, adding a new category in directly appropriating to a legislature opens the door for the disposal of more millions in direct allocations to the legislature, which ultimately, the taxpayer must provide.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

National Heritage Of Genuine Value

In all the publicity I have read, or heard about, pertaining to discussions of high school and college curriculum, nobody has mentioned a study of national heritage; therefore, I shall be so presumptuous as to suggest a study of — the value of a national heritage — the key word of which is "value."

In relation to "a national heritage" it is an abstract value that cannot be measured in money; or, in terms of self aggrandizement; or, something to barter for another value; or, in any way associated with the modern concept that value indicates material wealth. To some persons, a national heritage may have no significance whatsoever, nor any value. To others, it may be cherished as a very personal asset. . . .

Were I to be asked for a definition of the "value of a national heritage," it could be stated in three, simple words — inspiration and pride. Pride in their record of setting high standards of manhood and womanhood; pride in their lofty goals, attained in creating a strong nation; pride in their resourcefulness and industry; pride in their field of liberal arts; pride in their favorable standing in the council of nations; pride in the contribution they have made in the cause of human relations, understanding and social justice; pride in their economic, political, academic and social foundations. . . .

The fusion of these traits and characteristics into a national heritage, of which I have an attachment, is a profound inspiration. Their exemplary family and community life, is inspiring. By their devotion to the principles of integrity and Christian moral conduct, I have derived inspiration. And finally, I am inspired and proud of a national heritage that gave liberties to freemen, by people who are proud of what they are and the ideals for which they stand. These historic achievements of progress and excellence, brightly reflects the real value of "a national heritage."

Anti-Inflation Boys Are At It Again

I recently heard on a radio show the boys in Washington approved $36 million to refurbish the White House. Our anti-inflation champions are at it again! Still no loud outcry from the public yet. I guess pocketbooks don't hurt enough yet. It seems to me that the only thing our senators and congressmen on state and federal levels are champions of are their own bank accounts.

Nixon's Administration Again Humbles Itself

(Reprinted from St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

Once again the Nixon administration has humiliated itself in public through lack of fortitude to stand up to opposition in key appointments. As in Secretary Finch's celebrated fumble in the Knowles case this one is in the sensitive field of public health, and it carries the additional discredit of political interference by the White House with an independent and quasi-judicial regulatory agency.

Dr. John Adriani's appointment as director of the Bureau of Medicine in the Food and Drug Administration has been withdrawn under pressure on the president's office three weeks after he accepted it. A source close to the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee which has been investigating the drug industry said Deputy Commissioner Rankin of FDA told Dr. Adriani that pressure from the drug industry against his appointment was too great for the administration to ignore.

The Food and Drug Administration is not supposed to be the President's boy; it is supposed to be its own man. If the FDA commissioner cannot appoint his key staff members except at the pleasure of the industry the agency is charged with regulating, why an FDA at all?

Dr. Adriani had, it is true, expressed an extreme position about the labeling of drugs. In his testimony May 20 to the Senate anti-monopoly subcommittee he quotes himself: "I said brand names should be abolished; they were aliases and deceptive and confusing and served no useful purpose."

We cannot blame the pharmaceutical industry for disagreeing with this view of brand names, nor do we agree with it ourselves. Brand names are private property, many of them exceedingly valuable private property; we suspect that any attempt to deprive their owners of them would be unconstitutional, and in any event we do not believe Dr. Adriani would have had the slightest chance of bringing it about. We agree with him that every drug should be labeled with its generic name, so that physicians will not be made parties to price-gouging and patients can avail themselves of the lowest among competitive prices for the same drug.

In any case, Dr. Adriani's disagreement with the drug industry on brand names does not warrant the shameful decision to let the industry veto his appointment. He possesses impressive credentials for the FDA post. He is professor of surgery and pharmacology at Louisiana State University, at Baton Rouge, professor of surgery at Tulane University, at New Orleans, and chairman of the Council on Drugs of the American Medical Association.

It would in our opinion be the most advantageous for all concerned if the Nixon administration quit trying to play politics with the regulatory agencies, if the FDA revived the spirit of independence, and if Dr. Adriani were restored to the post for which he is the agency's choice.

Fear Of Freedom Drives Russ Leaders Into New Excesses

By ROSCOE and GEOFFREY DRUMMOND

They aren't afraid their regime will be overthrown by force.

They are afraid it will be overthrown by freedom.

THE REPRESSION Moscow is forcing the new and pliant Czech government to impose on its people reveals a Russian colonialist mentality blatantly at variance with its anticolonial propaganda.

If the Soviet Union wanted to end colonialism — as it says it does — it could do its share by ending it in Czechoslovakia, and elsewhere in Eastern Europe.

The strongest evidence of Russian fear of freedom of thought, let alone freedom of expression and action, is the series of steps taken to pretend that the Red army occupied Czechoslovakia at the request of a legitimate Czech government and is now helping a legitimate Czech government suppress anti-Communist and anti-Soviet traitors.

This is a fabrication designed to justify the unprovoked invasion. There isn't a single fact which can be dredged up to support it. It is published widely in the Soviet Union and in controlled Czech press and known for what it is in most of the Free World. The number of Russians who doubt its truthfulness may be considerable.

THE LATEST contribution which the Kremlin is making to "protect" the Czech people is to have summoned the Czech prosecutor general to Moscow to blueprint for him how best to get rid of those "Czech traitors" who refuse to proclaim that they wanted the Red army tanks to come in and take over. Apparently Moscow wanted to make sure that Alexander Dubcek and other liberal leaders who wanted to improve communism, not destroy it, would be dealt with as "anti-Socialists and anti-Soviet criminals," not merely as political dissidents.

The Soviet leaders know what they have in mind — and so do the pre-occupation Czech leaders. They weep but they do not cringe.

Obviously the Kremlin can get any of the officials of the Czech regime it brought into being after the invasion to lie for it. But that does it little good as propaganda gloss. These are the Czechs eager to do Moscoe's bidding. But to this day there is not a single Czech authority in power at the time of the occupation who has been either cajoled or coerced to say that anyone in the government wanted the Russian army to save Czechoslovakia from the Czechoslovakians. After ousting the Czech-chosen government and having installed the Russian-chosen government, the Kremlin then directed the obedient Czech regime to turn on the Czech students who dared to show thatt hey didn't like the Red army invasion. Whereupon the Czechs who wanted their nation to have the independence which Russian officials, three days before the invasion, claimed they totally respected, suddenly became "traitors" and have to be bludgeoned into submission.

WHY DO the Russians feel they have to go to such lengths to erect such a make-believe facade behind which their military colonialism is played out?

Do they expect to fool the Czechs? Hardly. Do they expect to befuddle the Free World? Not likely. Do they expect to persuade the Russian people the occupation was a fraternal act which the Czechs asked for? They almost certainly do because while the Kremlin is apparently determined to crush Czech liberalization, it is afraid to let its own people fully understand what it is doing.

Some Russians have dared to protest openly in Red Square against the Soviet Union's invasion of Czechoslovakia, and when a people begin to lose their fear of a dictatorship, the dictatorship is in danger.

Today the Soviet leaders in the Kremlin are exhibiting a double fear. They are afraid of freedom — even a neighbor's freedom — and they are afraid to let the Russian people know they are afraid of freedom.

House Democrats Eye End Of McCormack's Reign

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Speaker John W. McCormack already has established that he can lick any man in the House. Many members assume he won't feel the need to prove it again by seeking election as speaker for a sixth time. So the question now is, who will succeed him?

At the moment the liberal bloc looks to pint-sized Rep. Carl Albert, D-Okla., now the Democratic floor leader, as the heir apparent and duly entitled successor. Conservatives are pushing Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. Others have their lightning rods up.

McCORMACK is 77. He will be 79 at the start of the 92nd Congress. He has been speaker since 1962. But when popular Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., who is 46, challenged him this year on the ground the job demanded a younger man. House Democrats gave Udall only 53 votes to McCormack's 178.

Since January, with the rebellion quelled, the veteran speaker has continued to demonstrate the kind of stamina that makes men decades his junior groan as the House legislates into the night.

BUT AFTER analyzing January's unsuccessful uprising, the activist liberals now conclude that as long as McCormack offers himself for the job he can have it — assuming continued Democratic control of the House. They are planning now on a belief he will not again ask for what is generally considered to be the nation's second most responsible job.

So the maneuvering has begun on behalf of possible successors.

Mills, a solid conservative, is mentioned prominently among them. Once thought to have forfeited his chance at the speaker's post when he signed an anti-integration "southern manifesto" after the 1954 Supreme Court school ruling, Mills confounded the liberals recently when he drafted, sponsored, and pushed through the House a tax reform bill embracing such long-sought liberal goals as a reduced depletion allowance on oil.

The liberals are by no means happy with Albert. They say that as leader, the traditional stepping stone to the speakership, he has failed to take a vigorous grip on the job — possibly because of a heart attack he suffered in 1966 and a slow recovery.

WITH 125 to 140 votes of the current Democratic House strength of 244, the organized liberal bloc can't elect a speaker on its own. What it can do is block an election. That would appear to let out Mills. It gives Albert a leg up on the job.

Current liberal strategy is to go along with the "escalator" and help elect Albert. At the same time the liberals will concentrate on putting their own man in as leader, thus installing him on the road to the top.

'Save Our Seashore' Luckier In Initials Than Predecessor

The determined drive to have the federal government buy all 54,000 acres of Point Reyes National Seashore is spearheaded by a lively group which calls itself "Save Our Seashore."

It's similar to the recent Save Our Bay group that bombarded Sacramento with protests against indiscriminate filling of our shorelines.

One big advantage that the Save Our Seashore group has over the Save Our Bay organization is the catchy contraction "SOS," which is not only a contraction of the organization name but also can be interpreted to mean: Help, save the seashore before the bulldozers chop it up.

Not so with the Save Our Bay group. Unfortunately, the name did not lend itself to any graceful contraction, at least not by its supporters.

POLITICAL ASPIRANTS need a good springboard from which to launch their campaigns for public office. Save Our Seashore may be just the thing for former County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, who is the driving force behind the SOS signature and petition campaign. Behr, as you know, has been frequently mentioned for higher public office, notably the state Senate seat held by Sen. John F. McCarthy.

Another man you can't count out is former Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, who is also rumored to be interested in the state Senate.

MANPOWER TRAINING and hiring in Marin has been handled by so many different agencies, many overlapping, that it's been one confusing mess.

But order may be coming out of the chaos. Robert Lomax, new executive director of the Economic Opportunity Council, is reported quietly at work to coordinate all manpower activities — a central list of the unemployed, a list of job opportunities, and how to match up the two. It's going to be quite a job, but he may be the man to do it.

PETER FARB, author of a series of books on ecology, forests, insects and wildlife in North America, was prowling around the Civic Center the other day, conferring with supervisors and other county officials.

Traffic Jam Is Caused By Fair Goers

The Renaissance Pleasure Faire in Santa Venetia Wood drew such a crowd yesterday that it caused a major traffic tie-up on Highway 101.

The California Highway Patrol reported that northbound traffic was brought to a halt from the North San Pedro Road offramp, leading to the fair, to California Park Hill.

At about 2 p.m. there were cars lined up from Highway 101 to the fairgrounds, more than three miles away. Officers said there were about 850 cars lined up and only about 300 parking spaces left at the fair parking lot.

At 2:15 p.m. the patrol broke the log jam on Highway 101 closing the North San Pedro Road offramp, advising motorists there was no room at the fair.

The fair reportedly had 5,000 parking spaces available.

Inquiring Minds Of The Young Vs. Closed Predilections Of Elders

One of my favorite pastimes is conversing with young people. Not the very young but those between the ages of 12 and 20 or so. I don't mean talking to them. I mean conversing, which I define as the pleasurable exchange of ideas.

This, for me, is a thoroughly enjoyable experience for I find these young minds, for the most part, infinitely more interesting than the placid, unimaginative and obtuse minds in which so many adults seem to take so much pride.

And I confess I'm a bit envious of the young, for they are far more sophisticated and more aware, generally, than I was at their age. As I painfully recall, I was frightfully naive and particularly uninformed. I didn't really begin thinking about things or attempt to consciously relate and dovetail ideas with facts until I was about 17.

WHAT A JOLT that was!

I discovered that many adults had been lying to me all along — that is, they had been telling me that which they themselves did not believe, didn't practice, and had not thought through or examined.

The second jolt, the unkindest jolt of all, came when I realized they had been deluding themselves as well!

I'm sure it would have been easier for me to take had I found they knew they had been lying all the while. They could have easily explained, saying I had been too young to understand, or my mind wasn't ready yet for the hard truths and so on. But to come to the realization they had genuinely believed the tripe they were passing on — well, it was too much!

I wonder if the young of today will become the liars of tomorrow. If so, what causes such an intellectual about-face? What causes an active, curious mind to lose its adventurous spirit and deaden its dynamism? What makes a mind accept a particular idea without examination, without evaluation, and to hold to it dearly regardless of devastating arguments against it?

It's depressing when this occurs, as it so often does; it's a forfeiture of one's self.

WHEN YOU CEASE wondering, when you cease exploring the vast regions available to the human mind, you cease being human, human in the true and complete sense. For it isn't two legs and walking upright that stamps you human, nor is it building roads or having thumbs. It is thought, thought probing deeply into the meaning of concepts that removes the human from the brute and moves him toward the divine.

I believe this is the genuine significance of being human.

I am not suggesting that everyone should be a mental giant — some of us simply do not have the equipment — nor am I saying that every man should be a Newton, an Einstein or a Bach. The hewers of wood and the carriers of water are needed too. But I do think every man owes it to himself to use his mind to the very best of his ability all of his life. That's all.

But then, that's enough.

Not to do so, to use a crude analogy, is like owning a Rolls Royce and not fueling it to make it go. To let it sit in the backyard and have it used as a chicken coop is a criminal waste. To permit the ideas of others to come and roost indiscriminately is a depravity.

Pond Cleared Of Dead Fish

BERKELEY (UPI) — Work crews have removed thousands of fish who died mysteriously and floated to the surface of the salt water pond in Berkeley's Aquatic Park.

Striped bass, smelt and perch had washed up on the shores or floated in the pond and caused a heavy ordor in the area during the weekend.

The city's public health and park officials believe the fish were killed by a lack of oxygen in the water as a result of warm weather, low tides and algae.

State fish and game investigators think industrial pollution caused the deaths. But city manager William Hanley said recent completion of drainage improvements would not have allowed the waters to be polluted.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Forms Of Bronchitis Can Start From Odd Hobbies, Occupations

cynczcforms of bronchitis

Many forms of allergic bronchitis stem from unusual occupations or hobbies. Bird handlers, especially pigeon breeders, are known to develop pneumonitis due to a hypersensitivity to pigeons or their droppings. Most of the victims have been exposed, often daily, to this material for many years.

VAN DELLEN

During the acute phase of the disease, there are chills, fever, cough, and shortness of breath lasting up to 18 hours after exposure to the birds. Muscular aching also is noted. The severity and duration of the attack depend upon the degree of sensitivity. The chest X-ray may be abormal and a skin reaction to an injection of pigeon serum usually is positive.

MOST of the breeders suspect allergy because respiratory distress occurs whenever they are exposed to pigeon material. A blood test also helps to confirm their suspicions. On avoiding the pigeons, the symptoms disappear. The disease is worth mentioning, considering that there are 75,000 pigeon breeders in the United States.

Farmer's lung is a related disorder in which cough and shortness of breath follow exposure to hay and grain at a time when the crops are moldy. Fungi are suspected but there is no proof that an association exists. An allergy to bagasse, a fibrous material used in the manufacture of wallboard and paper may trigger the same symptoms. Maple bark disease and sequoiosis stem from sensitivity to the dusts produced by these trees. Mushroom pickers may develop cough and shortness of breath after inhaling certain actinomyces in the mushroom compost.

PIGEON breeders' disease should not be confused with psittacosis, a viral infection acquired from infected parrots, parakeets, pigeons, chickens, and other birds. The latter resembles a severe influenza and is not due to an allergy.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

WEIGHT AND ARTHRITIS

Mrs. T. T. writes: I have arthritis and my doctor has me on a starvation diet to lose weight. I'm hungry and weak all the time and the pain in my back and hips is no better. Should I continue this treatment?

REPLY

ECZEMA AT 58

REPLY

Yes, but be thankful you did not develop it earlier in life. The word eczema includes a hodgepodge of of skin diseases, but the most common cause is allergy to foods or chemicals. It may persist until culprit is found and elminated.

LEG ULCERS

Mrs. N. T. I. writes: What can be done for open sore son the legs of an oldster who is confined to a wheelchair?

REPLY

Leg ulcers require professional treatment. Meanwhile, the legs should be elevated to minimize congestion. Healing is promoted by eliminating inflammation and improving circulation.

RECOVERING FROM RF

Mrs. C. B. writes: If a young adult contracts rheumatic fever, can complete recovery be expected?

REPLY

Fifty per cent recover completely. Twenty-five per cent develop residual scars of a heart valve and in 25 per cent, the heart damage is severe enough to cause symptoms.

Today's Health Hint—

19 Killed In Airliner Crash

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — A Brazilian airliner crashed in southern Brazil yesterday, killing 19 persons, according to reports reaching Sao Paulo.

Authorities said there was only one survivor, the pilot, who was badly wounded.

All aboard were believed to have been Brazilians.

The DC3 was operated by Companhia Aviacion Aerea Sao Paulo . It was en route from Londrina to Sao Paulo when it developed mechanical trouble and the pilot decided to turn back.

Progress Sign, Not Festival

The sign on the back wall of the Mobil Service Station on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Pacheco Avenue in Fairfax advertises the Fairfax Congress for Community Progress, not the Fairfax Festival.

Priscilla Gray, publicity director for the festival which will be held Saturday and Sunday, reported complaints about the sign have been coming to the festival committee.

Reagan Planning Employee Slashes

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has announced that he will reduce the number of California state employees by 1970 — election year — to the level prevailing when he took office in 1967.

The economy move will involve a cut of 657 jobs. The state now employs 103,122 civil servants.

TV REVIEW

Cosby Is Above Par At Start

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Bill Cosby's new half-hour NBC-TV series, which arrived last night to open the television season, gave an indication of intelligent thinking behind it.

The actor-comedian knows precisely who he is, and what he does that is unique, and therefore it obviously would have been wrong for him to do the standard situation comedy, with dumb routine plot, snickering cuteness and giggles.

His chief talent is as a superb storyteller, contemporary in flavor, and with tales that often offer warmth and human insight. How, then, to beat the situation comedy obstacle?

Cosby's premiere overcame the hurdle by simply not being a "situation" comedy. The press releases had billed him as playing a high school physical education teacher, and surely this will come more to the fore in future episodes.

But in the opener, the special qualities of Cosby were achieved by essentially making the show an extended monologue in plot form—so that what emerged was, rather than situation comedy, a show that could be described as "incident" comedy, with vignette as the crux. If this can be maintained in the future episodes, it will open the door to a more adult and satisfying form of video series humor.

All that happened in the premiere was that Cosby was out jogging, chatting with himself amiably (monologue) as he went along. Real streets. No laugh track. Confident of the force of his personality. Establishing immediately a sense of the absurdity of the human comedy.

He answers an outdoor pay phone when it rings. A Good Samaritan, before he knows it he is tracking down a guy for his wife, who placed the call to find her spouse. He finds the guy, gets involved in his problems, and doesn't want to.

He finally breaks off from the guy, resumes jogging, and is mistaken by patrol car cops for a wanted thief. The more he opens his mouth, the deeper he puts himself in trouble. He's funny, and the easy assumption of guilt adds a wry effect. His only alibi is the guy he broke off from.

Cosby is cleared, of course. And the sense of "incident" is small but well rounded off. Quincy Jones' fine, droll musical score added the grace notes to a unique premiere.

More standard was another NBC-TV debut last night, "The Bold Ones," an hour trilogy about doctors, lawyers and cops, alternating weekly in the same time slot. The opener dealt with a possible transplant operation and an old-style doctor who fought for the life of his potential donor patient. You could tell he was old-style; he knew his patient's first name.

Marin Elevens 'Baptized'

Sports

FOURTH SECTION Monday, Sept. 15, 1969 31

All the Marin County Athletic League football contenders got their feet wet in scrimmages Saturday and it seems nobody found the water too cold.

San Marin got its first taste of any kind of varsity competition when the Mastangs took on Kennedy High of Richmond, a strong, experienced team expected to be tough in the Alameda Athletic League. The Mustangs did not faint dead away or roll over.

THREE BREAKWAYS

"They scored four times on us," coach Bob Martin said. "But three of those were on breakaways. They had only one sustained drive of any kind."

"We were a little disappointed offensively," Martin said. "We scored only once, but on the whole, I thought we looked pretty good."

San Marin's close relative at Novato High School also had a fairly tough time of it, failing to score against a big San Leandro team, but the results were not that disappointing. There were some real standouts for the thin, defending, champion Hornets.

Dave Perron, an all-league linebacker last season, showed his offensive muscle, catching six passes as he and Dave Judnick turned out to be the main targets in a strong passing showing by quarterback Brett Bilsboro, making his first try at varsity competition.

The Hornets also got outstanding blocking from San Rafael transfer Dennis Reece, a fullback, and good running out of halfback Ray Bresnan.

Art Herrnberger, a tackle, suffering a neck injury and is awaiting X-rays to determine the extent of the injury while guard Bob Larsen suffered a bruised calf.

"They were pretty big and pretty good," Trojan coach Don Lucas said. "We made two mistakes and it cost us a couple of touchdowns."

As it was, both teams scored twice and Terra Lindans Matt Bowman and Mike Bridges nailed down first-string jobs, Bowman as tailback and Bridges as fullback.

The Trojans upen up in Kezar Stadium against Riordan of San Francisco, Friday night.

Drake, another contender for the loop crown, flexed its muscle a little, blanking Encinal of Alameda while scoring three touchdowns, with two more scores called back.

Old Man Wilhelm's Magic

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

When, 25 years or so from now, they finally write Hoyt Wilhelm's pitching epilogue, they can call it The Old Man And The Knuckleball.

Wilhelm, who makes a baseball do tricks by digging his carefully-filed nails into its seams, came to Atlanta last week and in three appearances with the pennant-conscious Braves, he has one victory and two saves.

The victory for the 46-year-old reliever who is in his 18th major league season, came yesterday when Rico Carty rifled a pair of home runs that gave the Braves a 3-2 triumph over Houston.

It was the sixth straight victory for Atlanta and left the Braves 1½ games in front of both Los Angeles and San Francisco in the sizzling National League West race.

KEEP PACE

The Dodgers and Giants both kept pace with the front-running Braves, who haven't lost since acquiring Wilhelm on waivers from California. Los Angeles knocked off San Diego 3-1 and San Francisco took Cincinnati 5-3.

New York retained its 3½-game lead in the East Division. The Mets lost to Pittsburgh 5-3 but lost no ground to Chicago, which dropped a 2-1 decision to St. Louis in 10 innings. Montreal ripped Philadelphia 7-2 in the other N.L. game yesterday.

In the American League, East Division champion Baltimore beat Cleveland 7-3, Chicago took a doubleheader from Oakland 12-8 and 9-8, Kansas City clipped Minnesota 4-3, California took Seattle 4-2, Detroit beat Washington 7-4 in 12 innings, and Boston edged New York 3-2.

MARVELS

Paul Richards, the Braves' vice president who picked up Wilhelm from the Angels, marveled at the old pitcher.

"Lee MacPhail (general manager of the New York Yankees) said Wilhelm would pitch until he's 50 and it looks like he will," said Richards.

A LOSING RUN

Oakland running back Charley Smith was hauled down for a loss by Houston Oiler Elvin Bethea during the Raiders' AFL opener at the Coliseum yesterday. Smith wound up in the plus column with his running, scoring in the first quarter on a sweep in a 21-17 Oakland win. (AP Wirephoto)

Big Blow To A's Chances

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP)—The Oakland A's finally lost their first doubleheader of the season and it couldn't have come at a more inopportune time.

The A's stumbled before the White Sox 12-8 and 9-8 as their chances in the American League West all but ended.

It could have been different had the A's taken the doubleheader. Instead of falling eight games behind the Minnesota Twins, who dropped a 4-3 decision to Kansas City, a sweep would have put the A's only six games behind.

"It was a big loss for them," said Sox Manager Don Gutteridge "because if they had won two they'd at least be going into Minnesota all charged up and maybe the Twins would hear footsteps."

As things now stand even if the A's sweep a pair at Minnesota they'll still be six games out with the season rapidly drawing to a close.

The Athletics plan to lead off tonight's game with Lew Krausse, 7-7, or Rollie Fingers, 6-5, against Dave Boswell, 16-11.

Oakland fell behind 10-0 in the first game and fought back to get within two runs of Chicago following a five-run rally in the sixth touched off by Bob Brooks' first major league homer.

Ed Herrmann's two run double in the eighth inning put the game out of Oakland's reach.

'All Must Games,' Says King

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"It'll be a must game today, but I hate to use that term because it's getting to the point where they're all important," Giants manager Clyde King said today before the start of a two-game series with the Atlanta Braves.

"We've had five so-called must games the last two weeks and have managed to win four of them," added the San Francisco skipper. One of those four was yesterday's 5-3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds in the final 1969 meeting between the clubs.

2-1 EDGE

The victory gave the Giants a 2-1 series victory over the Reds and jumped San Francisco past Cincinnati and into third place in the National League's western division scramble, 1½ games behind Atlanta and .001 behind Los Angeles.

Southpaw Mike McCormick, 9-9, was to oppose Pat Jarvis, 11-10, in today's series opener. Juan Marichal, 18-10, takes on Ron Reed, 16-9, in the finale tomorrow night. The Braves have a 9-7 edge over the Giants entering the crucial set.

Veterans Willie Mays and Don McMahon played key roles in yesterday's success. Mays knocked in the go-ahead run with a seventh-inning single and McMahon retired the seven batters he faced for a 2-1 record as a Giant.

TYPICAL

But the club had to survive a typical frantic finish by erratic relief specialist Frank Linzy, who worked out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth and left two runners on base in the ninth before registering his 11th save.

"Boy, the Reds are tough," declared King. "You just can't catch your breath against them because the bottom of the batting order can kill you.

"McMahon was great," he added. "He's only pitched two bad games since we got him. The game left me fatigued and speechless. The way Linzy was struggling, I was just hoping he wouldn't ease up—and he didn't."

Willie McCovey's single and Dick Dietz' 11th homer gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second off loser Jim Merritt, 16-8. Bobby Tolan's two-run single and Alex Johnson's run-scoring bloop single chased starter Bob Bolin and made it 3-2 for the Reds in the fifth.

TIE IN SIXTH

Cincinnati cinched the season series with a 6-4 victory Saturday. The Reds finished with a 10-8 edge, the first over the Giants since 1961. The Reds won the pennant that year.

Celts Name Heinsohn New Coach

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics announced today appointment of Tommy Heinsohn, former Celtics scoring star, as coach of the National Basketball Association champions.

General Manager Red Auerbach announced the appointment at a news conference. Heinsohn succeeds defensive star Bill Russell who announced his resignation earlier this summer as player-coach.

Auerbach said, "Tommy has been intimately involved with the Celtics since his retirement. He has consulted with me often. He knows our personnel, and he has scouted for us."

Auerbach, who has been trying unsuccessfully to persuade Russell to return for one more season, said, "It is necessary for us to move forward for this season. We cannot wait any longer for Bill."

The general manager did indicate he was leaving the door open for Russell to return as a player, if he wants.

Heinsohn, 35, has been an insurance executive since his retirement but has kept close ties with the team.

Luke Jackson Changes Mind

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Luke Jackson has changed his mind about skipping to the American Basketball League's Carolina Cougars, deciding to continue with the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association.

Jack Ramsay, general manager and coach of the 76ers, said yesterday that the 6-foot-9 center had signed a three-year contract with the NBA club. He said that Jackson would report tomorrow at the team's pre-season training camp in Margate, N. J.

Lamonica Calls It 'My Worst Game'

Raiders Still Tip Houston

OAKLAND (AP) — "It was," said Daryle Lamonica, "as bad a game as I've ever had."

That the Oakland Raiders managed to survive a shaky offensive showing yesterday and beat the Houston Oilers 21-17 in the American Football League opener for both clubs was more a tribute to their fortitude than their skill.

The underdog Oilers appeared to be out of the running early when the Raiders converted two interceptions by Dave Grayson into touchdowns.

TAKE LEAD

But suddenly the Raiders found themselves unable to move the ball and the Oilers had taken the lead 17-14.

With 5:28 left in the game and the Raiders on their own 36-yard line Lamonica hit Warren Wells over the middle with a pass at the midfield stripe. Wells picked up a block from Billy Cannon and sprinted to the end zone untouched.

"I got hit on the chin as I threw it," said Lamonica. "I took a pretty good lick on it, but I was glad to see the result."

The 49,361 fans were relieved to see that their favorites, defending Western Division champions in the AFL, still could come back when they had to. They had begun to boo Lamonica because of his poor showing.

10 OF 31

The No. 2 quarterback in the AFL last year, Lamonica completed just 10 of 31 passes for 148 yards and had three passes intercepted.

"It was just one of those days," he said. "But we won and that's the big thing. I always believe in myself and that I'll come up with the big play. That's the kind of team we are. We don't fold or give up."

The Oilers nearly took the lead again after Wells' scoring catch. Quarterback Pete Beathard found rookie receiver Jerry Levias open at the 35 and with an open field ahead of him.

But Levias, whose 15-yard scoring catch had given the Oilers the 17-14 lead earlier, dropped the ball.

A SHORTAGE

Tars On Lookout For Big Linemen

With the start of the 1969 football season only a few days away, a desperate refrain is beginning to be heard out of the vicinity of College of Marin in Kentfield.

"I need more linemen," College of Marin coach Dick Read is wailing, and he certainly does.

Read, who has led the Tars to two titles in the past two seasons, needs some of those big fellas desperately, if all the otherwise good pieces are going to fit together.

INTRA-SQUAD

He saw the need again Saturday when the Tars knocked heads in an intra-squad scrimmage that exposed the problem all over again.

"It's going to be a little tough without a few more linemen," Read said. "You know, you get in junior college competition, people are going to take about eight plays to find out your weak spots."

Read was pleased, however, with almost all aspects of the team, and with the few (15) linemen that he does have to work with.

Kevin Wilson, the smallish former Redwood High School scrapper, will have the inside track at quarterback, where some severe pushing by another Redwood flash has made him a better quarterback.

"Kevin has worked real hard," Read said. "He's getting pushed hard by Jim Peters and he's about four times the quarterback that he was last year."

TOUGH RACE

Read is worried about "little things" like the line because he sees a tough, tough race in the Camino Norte Conference.

"It was real tight last year," Read said. "Everybody has a bunch of people coming back. We'll be right in there, but it's going to be real tough."

The Tars open play Saturday against San Jose City College, hopefully at Marin Catholic High School. Hopefully, but not altogether definitely.

"They've got the scoreboard up, and they're going to get the bleachers up early this week," Read said. "As far as I know now, we'll be playing there."

If they do play at Marin Catholic, the turf ought to feel just like the green grass of home. As a matter of fact, that's just what it is. It's the same grass that had been growing on the Tars' old field in Kentfield, cut out and transplanted to Marin Catholic. And the grandstands are the same ones that were used at Kentfield.

Wilhelm seems a cinch to make it. He's allowed just two hits in 4 2-3 innings in three appearances for the Braves. He was 5-7 with California.

Carty hit his 13th and 14th homers of the season—the second one a two-run shot with two out in the eighth that erased a 2-1 Houston lead.

It was the fourth straight loss for Houston and dropped the Astros 5½ games behind the Braves.

AHEAD

Sutton, who won his first game in a month, was touched only for a two-out ninth inning homer by Ollie Brown. The victory left the Dodgers one percentage point ahead of the Giants.

Pittsburgh ended the Mets' 10-game winning streak with pitcher Steve Blass singling home the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning and Matty Alou following with another hit for an insurance run.

Al Oliver had tripled two runs home and scored on infield out as the Pirates rushed into a 3-0 lead. But New York came back, finally tying the score on pitcher Nolan Ryan's single.

BIG HOMER

The Cubs were beaten by Lou Brock's 10th inning homer and lost their 10th game in the last 11 starts. Bob Gibson pitched the seven-hitter for the victory while Ken Holtzman was tagged with the loss.

New York's magic number for clinching the East Division pennant is 13. Any combination of Met victories or Chicago losses totaling 13 wraps it up for New York.

St. Vincent Gridders Triumph

PETALUMA — Chis Bacher ran for two touchdowns and scored 16 points to spark the St. Vincents Mustants to a 28-7 win over Justin of Napa in a non-league football game here Saturday night.

Bacher scored on runs of 2 and 16 yards as the Mustangs relied heavily on a tough ground game for the win.

Justin jumped out front 7-6 early in the second quarter, but the Mustangs scored twice in the final three minutes of the first half for a 20-7 advantage.

Santa Clara Gridders Win

After St. Mary's took a quick 7-0 lead on a 57-yard touchdown pass from Greg Huarte to Bob Vallon, the Broncos came back with 22 points in the first quarter.

Santa Clara quarterback Dan Pastorini threw three touchdowns, two of them to Bart Jenks, to lead the Broncos to a 21-point second half.

The victory brings the off-and on series dating back to 1896, to a 16-15 standing in favor of St. Mary's.

Driver Second

Race Car Drivers To End Boycott

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — Drivers who work the rich NASCAR Grand National circuit planned to return to their cockpits this week after walking out of yesterday's first Talladega 500 at the new Alabama International Speedway.

The drivers, members of the newly formed Professional Drivers Association, voted to boycott the race late Saturday, charging the speedway was unsafe for speeds they were capable of running and that the tires they were using were coming apart at high speed. Thirty of them joined the boycott, including all but one of those with factory-backed cars.

TO RETURN

PDA President Richard Petty said the drivers planned to return to their cars for a 100 mile race at Columbia, S.C., Thursday night, and a 250-miler at North Wilkesboro, N.C., next Sunday.

However, NASCAR President and Founder Bill France Sr. said yesterday he plans to require the drivers who boycotted his race at Tallageda to post a "substantial" appearance bond before he will let them run.

He would not specify the amount of the bond, nor would he say whether it would apply to car owners as well as drivers. The car owners hauled their machines away from the track when the drivers left, but many of the owners were known to favor the stand taken by the drivers.

SALTY

France had some salty philosophical advise for the drivers who walked out on him during his first racing weekend at his giant new $6 million facility in central Alabama.

"Winners never quit and quitters never win," he said. "As far as I am concerned those boys (the PDA members) quit. The boys who raced Sunday saved Talladega and the boys who didn't owe their future to those who raced."

The drivers, including $165,000-winner LeeRoy Yarbrough and $150,000-winner David Pearson, had already qualified their cars for Sunday's field—at speeds in the 195-200 miles per hour bracket—before deciding the race should be postponed to allow more work on the racing surface and to give tire companies a chance to develop a better racing compound.

AS SCHEDULED

France refused to postpone the race, saying the 500-mile event would be run as scheduled and the $120,600 in prize money paid. With all but five of his top cars gone, the 57-year-old France put together a field of 37 machines, including 23 from his Grand Touring circuit for smaller cars.

The PDA has said it will press France and NASCAR for a pension plan, better insurance benefits, better working and track conditions and higher purses. It has hired New York attorney Larry Fleisher as its counsel.

SONOMA COUNTY

Football Teams In Final Scrums

The practices become much tougher this week for four Southern Sonoma County high school football teams and Sonoma State College as four of the five squads will be looking to season-opening contests this weekend.

Sonoma State College looked impressive in a Saturday scrimmage against the University of San Francisco and will be drilling for the first football game in the school's history.

The Cossacks host Arizona Western College Saturday.

VS. DRAKE

Petaluma High School is looking toward its Friday night game against Drake of San Anselmo after what head coach Howard Cadenhead termed a "very successful" scrimmage Saturday against Sonoma High.

The Trojans host the Pirates of Drake at 8 p.m. Cadenhead is expected to go with much the same lineup he used Saturday. Fred Klemenok shined at the quarterback post against Sonoma, Steve Hing and Dan Williams turned in good performances at the halfback positions and Bob Garcia shined at split end.

Sonoma High School mentor Bill Leone plans a little more work "on coordinating our passing game" as a result of the Saturday scrimmage. Quarterback Dan Briggs and half Greg Monroe were outstanding on offense against the Torjans.

HOST FAIRFIELD

The Dragons host Fairfield in their season opener Friday. Fairfield defeated Rio Vista 14-6 this weekend in their season opener.

Rancho Cotate of Rohnert Park travels to Cloverdale this weekend as it opens the season against the Eagles.

Coach Hal Janney will start sophomore Steve Wlodarczyk at quarterback in that contest, he said.

St. Vincent High School of Petaluma was the only Southern Sonoma team to open the playing season Saturday as it dumped Justin of Napa 28-7.

JETS TRIUMPH

Huge Crowd Sees Namath And O.J.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They turned out in record numbers—46,165—at Buffalo's War Memorial Statdium yesterday to see Joe Namath's arm and O. J. Simpson's legs. The anatomy left something to be desired, but no one was demanding his money back.

New York's Namath, the pride of Broadway, passed for one touchdown and Buffalo's Simpson ran for one in his pro debut as the world champion Jets turned back the stubborn Bills 33-19 in their American Football League opener.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Oakland held off Houston 21-17, Kansas City trounced San Diego 27-9, Denver walloped Boston 35-7 and Cincinnati topped Miami 27-21.

BLOOD CLOT

The Bengals' victory was marred by the death of 29-year-old linebacker Frank Buncom, who suffered an early-morning heart attack in his hotel room brought on by a blood clot on the lung.

The National Football League, which doesn't open its regular season for another week, finished its pre-season schedule with five games. Yesterday, Baltimore beat Dallas 23-7 and Philadelphia surprised Washington 26-17. Saturday, it was Green Bay 38, Atlanta 24; Minnesota 23, Cleveland 16 and Los Angeles 31, San Francisco 28.

Namath's statistics showed only seven completions in 19 attempts—he was intercepted three times—for 157 yards. Simpson, the rich rookie from Southern Cal, carried 10 times for 35 yards, caught two passes for 64 and returned three kickoffs for 68. His touchdown came on an eight-yard run.

PRAISE

"Make up anything you want to about O.J. and write it," Namath said. "I can't say enough good things about him. He's going to be great."

"I wasn't satisfied," Simpson countered. "I picked up a cold Saturday and it bothered me early in the game. And, I'll tell you, now that they're playing for real it's a lot harder."

Simpson also fumbled once, the Jets recovering.

"I thought the play was over and I sort of relaxed," he said. "I knew I couldn't get any farther and I guess I just didn't hold the ball long enough. No more relaxing for me."

TD PASS

Len Dawson's 55-yard touchdown pass to Otis Taylor and four interceptions powered Kansas City past San Diego. Dawson hit Taylor on the first play from scrimmage after the Chargers had trimmed the Chiefs' lead to 13-9.

Denver quarterback Steve Tensi enjoyed one of his finest days with three touchdown passes as the Broncos jolted the Patriots under new coach Clive Rush. Two of the scoring passes went to Al Denson while Tom Smiley also scored twice.

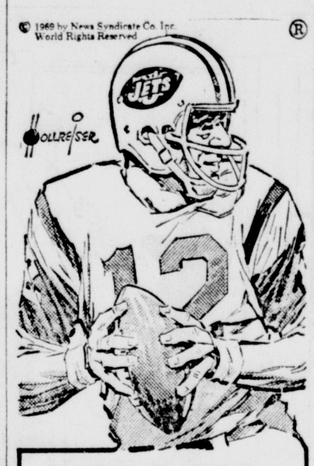
Rookie Crego Cook passed for two touchdowns and Cincinnati's defense held off a late Miami rally as the Bengals gave Paul Brown his 300th coaching victory in a caree spanning 35 years.

In Sunday's NFL exhibitions, Philadelphia came from behind with 12 points in the third period to beat Washington while in a nationally televised night contest Baltimore intercepted four of Roger Staubach's passes and trimmed Dallas.

THIS DAY IN SPORTS



Seals Open Training Camp

OSHAWA, Ont. (AP) — The Oakland Seals had their pictures taken and went through a light skate yesterday in their second day of training camp. The heavy work began today.

The team will then be split into two shifts and each shift will spend two periods a day on the ice. Each period lasts 1:45.

"It's impossible to assess the ability of the team to play the game of hockey at this point," said Coach Fred Glover. "But it's the biggest and fastest team we've had open a camp."

The National Hockey League club has 58 players in camp, one less than expected. Only defenseman Dunc McCallu, who played for Providence of the American Hockey League last year, has failed to show up.

START PLAYING FOR KEEPS

49ers, Rams Talk Mutual Respect

ANAHEIM (AP) — Pro football forces of Los Angeles and San Francisco head East this week to open their regular National Football League seasons amid statements of mutual respect.

The 49ers and Rams wound up their preseason slates in a game of reversals Saturday night with Los Angeles escaping with a 31-28 victory after dominating the first half and hanging on in the second.

"We played great football in that first half," declared Coach George Allen, "but, boy, did we have a letdown in the second.

'GREAT JOB'

"The 49ers played improved ball and John Brodie did a great job in the second half. Just because they were 0-6 in the preseason doesn't mean they aren't going to do something now that we're playing for real," Allen said.

On Sunday, the Rams play at Baltimore and the 49ers at Atlanta in a pair of Coastal Division games, and these count.

At Anaheim Stadium before 39,179 in the final 1969 game that didn't count, the Rams built a 31-7 first-half lead highlighted by Clancy Williams' 86 yard touchdown run with the only Brodie pass intercepted all evening.

TRADE HALFS

Los Angeles' defense dominated those opening two periods while Brodie and the 49ers took control of the second half.

After the long runback by Williams, who less than three weeks ago had been suspended five days for "indifference," the Rams immediately collected their second touchdown.

When Kermit Alexander fumbled after his kickoff return, Jim Nettles scooped up the ball and ran 15 yards. Bruce Gossett's second conversion put the count at 14-0. It went to 21-0 and 24-0 in quick order.

First Willie Ellison ran nine yards to score four plays after Maxie Baughan recovered a Ken Willard fumble. Then Gossett booted the longest field goal of his pro career — 50-yards — an indication of longer range for the Rams arsenal.

After Brodie hit Bob Windsor with a 20-yard scoring pass ending a 73-yard march, Ram Coy Bacon blocked a Tommy Davis punt and three plays later Ellison scored from the four.

It put the halftime score at 31-7 and that was that for the Rams.

Brodie, who wound up with 27 completions in 42 passes for 309 yards, hit three second half touchdown throws — six yards to Clifton McNeil, 23 to Gene Washington whose catch was the best of the night, and 12 to Windsor.

Victory escaped when a holding penalty call nullified another 20-yard pass to McNeil in the end zone. After that setback, Davis missed a 32-yard field goal try.

ward also stood out, not too surprisingly. He's a nice 220-pound, growing boy.

Redwood took on Alameda, the top-rated team in Northern California, las season and the Giants of Larkspur found some vulnerable spots, scoring five times. But so did Alameda, which also scored five times.

"We were real pleased with the quarterbacking of Pete Cooney," said Redwood mentor Bob Troppmann. "That was really the highlight of the day. His passing and leadership were outstanding."

Troppmann, in fact, found a pleasant urprise in an offense that wasn't supposed to be all that good.

Cooney scored twice, and threw for two more touchdowns to end Steve Fleischman while Mike Fareley added another score.

Tamalpais knocked heads with Marin Catholic in Kentfield, and not surprisingly, with only a bare handful of lettermen around, the Indians made a few mistakes in a very loose scrimmage.

"We have to really work on our passing game," Tamalpais coach Mike Davlin said. "They intercepted on us about three or four times,"

There were no officials to control the scrimmage, so things like clipping and motion calls were simply not made.

"I was pleased with our offensive blocking," Davlin said. "Our running looked good, especially Clifford Hall, Bill Washington and Mark Costello."

San Rafael looked good in its scrimmage against Pacific of the Alameda Athletic League, but it was nevertheless a disaster.

"That's one boy we couldn't afford to lose," Bulldog coach Bob Muster said. "This was going to be his year. That means a sophomore boy, Mark St. Gaudins, is going to have to grow in one big hurry."

BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER

On some bowling nights, everything seems to go wrong. You get to the foul line ahead of the ball and you have trouble staying upright, much less throwing a coordinated ball. On such nights, it's better to reduce your speed considerably. You may not get as many strikes as usual, but you'll at least have a better chance at picking spares.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Holdup Play Useful Chiefly In No-Trump Contract Action

The holdup play is useful chiefly at no-trump contracts, where your object is to shut out an entire suit. The holdup is risky at a trump contract since if you fail to take an ace promptly, it may be ruffed later on. Still, even at a trump contract, the holdup play may help you shut out the setting trick.

CLUB LEAD

West opened the jack of clubs, not knowing that a spade opening lead would have settled declarer's hash in short order. If defenders always made the killing opening lead, we'd all have to bid conservatively.

Declarer won the first trick in the dummy and drew two rounds of trumps with the ace and king. He wisely refrained from taking a trump finesse.

South next led the jack of diamonds for a finesse, losing to the king. East returned the king of spades, and South made the fatal error of taking the ace. South could afford to lose one spade trick, and he should have given it up at this stage to East's king.

LOSES CONTRACT

South led his other diamond to dummy's ace and discarded a spade on the queen of diamonds. West ruffed with the queen of hearts and led his remaining spade, whereupon East defeated the contract with two spade tricks.

Now go back to the first spade trick and see what happens if South refuses to take the ace. This holdup play saves his contract.

CONTINUES SPADES

East continues with the jack of spades, and South must take the ace. South then goes after the diamonds, as before, and West ruffs as soon as he can.

But then West has no spades. West must lead a club, for lack of anything else, and declarer wins in the dummy and discards the rest of his spades on dummy's good diamonds.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens the bidding with one spade, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ A 8 6 4
♥ A K 10 9 2
♦ J 6
♣ 6 4.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two hearts.

You plan to jump to four spades at your next turn. The hand is not quite strong enough for an immediate jump to three hearts.

Building Program Will Be Discussed

The high school building program for the next five years will be discussed at a special meeting of the San Rafael Board of Education at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the district administration building.

The board will discuss whether to build a new high school or construct additional classrooms for existing high schools, according to Supt. John F. Plank. The board will also review enrollment trends for the next five years, Plank said.

ALMANAC

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1935, the Nazis established the swastika as the national German flag and launched a program of violent religious persecution against the Jews.

In 1942, German armies began the siege of Stalingrad.

In 1963, a bomb thrown at a Negro church in Birmingham, Alabama, killed four girls and set off rioting in the city. Two Negro boys were shot to death the same day.

In 1966, Gemini-2 splashed down in the Atlantic Ocean 1½ miles from the target ship. The astronauts were in fine shape after a record-breaking three-day space flight.

A thought for the day: British statesman Benjamin Disraeli said, "What we anticipate seldom occurs; what we least expect generally happens."

Slippery Idea Slicks Wheels Of Progress

He spread 100 pounds of bananas and their peels on the floor around the huge machine and it was slid into its new position without trouble. The foreman is now known around the factory as "Slippery McDonald."

Two Belvederans Open New Handicraft Store In Tiburon

Principals Mrs. Cherry Noble, Mrs. Joana Horton and Mrs. Patricia Goetz have taken over the former Christian Science Reading Room quarters and have stocked this space with pottery, jewelry, woodcarvings, sculpture, candles, paintings, stitchery, silk screenings, block prints and related items — all from the West Coast and many from local craftsmen.

Hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays.

All three owners live on West Shore Road, Belvedere — hence the name Shorebirds.

Mrs. Goetz is an interior designer and formerly had a shop in Orinda. All have been involved in art work and have been associated with several galleries.

No imports are handled but some may be added later.

DAVID MOORE, owner of the House of Samples at 831 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has established a new apparel shop at 210 Sansome Street in San Francisco's financial district. It is being managed by his daughter Judy and carries the name of Judy's Fashions.

RONALD WREN ADVERTISING, San Francisco, has two new vice presidents from Marin: Stanford Raymond Jr. of Mill Valley and Richard R. Rojas of Marinwood.

Raymond is Wren's creative director. Before joining the firm he was an art director with Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, San Francisco, and with N. W. Ayer and Son, Philadelphia.

Rojas formerly was an account executive with KGO Radio and most recently with KGO-TV. Prior to this he was a salesman with the special products division of National Biscuit Co.

JOHN F. COVER of San Rafael has been promoted to manager, western research, of the Schwabacher Division of Blair and Co., Inc. He joined Schwabacher in 1967 as a security analyst before it was merged into Blair. His investment career began in 1960 when he founded a weekly investment service.

REAL ESTATE: San Rafael broker B. D. Schulz will hold his class on real estate at Sir Francis Drake High School's evening sessions again this fall. First class is tomorrow night from 7:30 to 9:30. . . . Kay Noah and Associates in Tiburon is moving to larger quarters, taking over the former office of Donald P. Geddes. The address remains the same — 1680 Tiburon Boulevard. Now with the Noah sales staff is Mrs. Eleonora Kushner of Strawberry, who was formerly with the Geddes office five years.

A LECTURE SERIES on investments and the stock market starts tonight at Tamalpais High School as part of the adult evening program. Time is 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and the series will continue for seven Mondays through Oct. 27. Registration is $6.

Another series — on mutual fund investment — will be held at Sir Francis Drake High School, San Anselmo, on four Thursdays, Sept. 25 through Oct. 16. Same hours. Registration fee is $4.

Instructor for both programs will be Ernest L. Martin of Capital Funding.

STEPHEN ROWLEY of Corte Madera is the winner of a 1969 Oldsmobile Tornado in a drawing held recently among 17 Bay Area Oldsmobile dealerships. Van Ness Oldsmobile, San Francisco awarded the prize.

KORET OF CALIFORNIA has named Charles R. Cain president. He was formerly director of marketing.

HYATT CORP. will have a 420-room luxury hotel. Ground has been broken in Knoxville, Tenn., for a $10 million, 14-story structure.

Research Laboratory Sees $5 Million Sale

PALO ALTO (BW) — Behavioral Research Laboratories expects to show pretax earnings of approximately $1.5 million on sales of about $5 million for the year ending Sept. 30.

The forecast includes recently acquired Sullivan Press of Los Altos on a pooling-of-interests basis. BRL doesn't expect to pay federal income taxes this year because of a tax loss carry forward.

Financial Plans

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Pacific Power & Light Co. has announced a $105 million financing program. The company will offer $20 million of bonds and $20 million of preferred stock on Oct. 27. It also will negotiate a short-term credit agreement for $45 million in renewal of a current program and sell up to $20 million of commercial paper in the form of unsecured promissory notes.

Big Glamour Stock No Longer In Favor

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I purchased First Mortgage Investors when it first came out in 1961. After an 8-for-5 split in 1968 it went to 33 early this year. The dividends are good but the price is now about 20. A friend tells me to sell as it won't go that high any more. What do you advise me to do? — G. F.

A. Unlike your friend, I claim no positive knowledge of the future price of your — or any other — stock.

First Mortgage Investors, the oldest in its group, has compounded its earnings growth at a better-than-average rate. First-half 1969 results of 63 cents a share were up 57 per cent from the like 1968 period. For the full year, $1.20 to $1.30 a share is a reasonable expectation. About 65 per cent of company assets are invested in high-return construction and development loans, the remainder in VA/FHA long- and short-term paper, cash and governments. As of April, 1969, FMI had a leverage ratio of 4.4 to 1, high even for a mortgage trust.

Unbridled proliferation of new trusts since late 1968, high cost of obtaining credit, decreasing rate of new construction and a generally poor market have pushed down the entire group from highs scored early this year when the group was a speculative favorite. Yours is a well-established company and a worthwhile long-term growth investment.

Q. I purchased Executone, Inc. shares about eight months ago. Although earnings are holding, the price has steadily decreased. Should I buy more? — I. L.

A. President N. A. Karr of Executone stated that sales should exceed $14 million, up from $11.6 million in 1968. Earnings, he expects, will rise to more than $1.30 a share fully diluted. Last year $1.06 was reported. In the first half of this year earnings rose 44 per cent to 55 cents a share on a 15 per cent gain in sales.

A recent government agency decision permitting Executone systems to be interfaced with telephone lines could open new markets. Management is exploring these possibilities.

HOUSTON (UPI) — Tenneco Inc. has announced the acquisition of a large oil and gas concession in Ethiopia by a unit of its subsidiary, Tenneco Oil Co. Tenneco Ethiopia Inc. signed an agreement with the Ethiopian government for oil exploration rights to 76,380 square miles, or about 50 million acres.

Insurance Plan Covers State's High-Risk Areas

SAN FRANCISCO (BW) — Through the California FAIR plan, insurance companies have more than $370 million at risk on more than 12,000 pieces of property which had not been able to be placed in the normal property insurance market, FAIR plan chairman G. R. Pahlman announced.

Most of the properties on which fire and extended coverage insurance have been written, Pahlman said, are in urban areas throughout the state and on dwellings in the hazardous brush areas of Southern California.

The California FAIR plan provides that any property owner is entitled to an inspection of his property to determine its insurability.

During the past year, the plan turned down 557 properties because they were uninsurable, but then insured 396 of these properties when the owners improved the fire safety of the premises.

Market Up In Moderate Trading

NEW YORK (UPI)—News that the United States was about to announce a new troop withdrawal from Vietnam sent the stock market higher today in moderately active trading.

Among the most active issues were Natomas, Chrysler, Capital Cities Broadcasting, Occidental, Polaroid, General Motors and Texaco.

General Electric and Control Data were on the uptrack in the electronics. Both concerns raised their computer prices. There were some point-plus gainers in the group, although fractional losers also cropped up.

Conglomerates were mixed, but motors and steels were mostly higher. Industry demand for steel continues to hold up well.

Airlines generally moved ahead after the Civil Aeronautics Board approved air fare hikes averaging 6.35 per cent.

Profits Going

NEW YORK (UPI)—A recent survey showed that pane glass windows in manufacturing plants cost four times more to maintain than glass block panels. The study by Pittsburgh Corning Corporation said that an average 80-foot-square window in a plant costs $106.67 a year to wash and keep in repair. Glass block maintenance for a similar size window averages $26.92, the company says.

Paper Mill

NEW YORK (UPI) — International Paper Co. has announced plans to construct a paper mill near Texarkana, Tex. at a cost of $72 million. Directors rejected a proposal for a larger facility at the site which would have cost $100 million. Production at the mill is scheduled to begin by early 1972.

Hot iron branding of livestock was practiced in Egypt as early as 2000 B.C.

By FRANK FARARA

Punishment isn't the lone solution to the drug problem, according to Holger Romander, chief prosecutor of Sweden.

Dealers should be punished, but "not users principally," he said yesterday during a brief visit to Tamalpais Valley with members fo the First Standing Committee on Legislation of the Swedish Parliament.

Romander, whose job is equivalent to that of the U.S. attorney general, stressed the value of a strong information program about drugs and adequate care of drug abusers.

The committee, on a tour of the U.S. to study the administration of justice, toured San Quentin today.

Swedan in recent years has had a problem of narcotics use by youths, from 14 to 25, Romander reported.

Youths aren't using marijuana, but amphetamines and hashish, with the problem primarily in large cities, but also cropping up elsewhere, he said. "Our situation is rather similar to the United States and Great Britain." Romander said, "I think we have a lot more humanitarian approach."

Dealers are sent to prison, but users aren't prosecuted for a first offense, and given a fine on a second offense, Romander said.

"This year there has been a strong police drive against narcotics," he pointed out.

Hashhish is smuggled into Sweden from the Middle East and amphetamines from other European countries.

There is a large program under way to provide information about drugs, and it has strong backing throughout Sweden, Romander said.

San Quentin was a tour highlight for the committee, which will be in California five days. The largest prison in Sweden has about 450 inmates.

The Swedes said that fully one third of Sweden's prisons have no more than 120 prisoners and are without walls.

Romander said that there has been a regular increase in Swedish crime since World War II, though crime has decreased slightly in the last six months.

The misuse of drugs in increasing, he said, but Swedish sentences are lighter.

Erik Alexanderson, committee chairman, said the committee will be especially interested in juvenile justice and facilities during its stay in the state.

The committee, 19 persons, including three women members of parliament, was greeted yesterday at a reception at the home of Sten J. Ericson, acting counsel general in San Francisco, 1207 West California Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

Before arriving it had visited New York, Minnesota and Utah. Its U.S. stay is scheduled to end Friday at Los Angeles after visits to correctional institutions in Alameda County, Sacramento, Santa Cruz Mountains, Ventura County and Los Angeles.

Crime Rate Shows Drop In New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—For the first time in three years, the city's monthly crime rate has declined.

Police Department figures for July released Sunday show a 2.27 per cent drop in major crime over the same month in 1968.

The decrease follows a declining trend in the rate of crime increase, but it is the first time in more than 36 months that actual crime totals were lower. The police said 42,974 crimes occurred during July, compared to 44,172 last summer in July.

Four crime totals declined: murder, aggravated assault, burglary and thefts of goods worth $50 or more. There were more rapes, forcible thefts and auto thefts.

Home On Laurel Avenue Burglarized

Police said that owner Gordon Dixon said the thief had ransacked several rooms and that he had not yet determined what else might be missing or the value of the items known stolen.

Common Market Set Summit On Britain

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — The six countries of the European Common Market agreed today to hold a summit meeting on letting Britain and other candidates join.

Ireland, Denmark and Norway have also applied for membership. Sweden is interested too.

The summit meeting will be held at The Hague, Nov. 17-18.

Joseph Luns, the Dutch foreign minister, announced the decision at a brief news conference after a lunch with his five colleagues at a Brussels restaurant. French Foreign Minister Maurice Schumann stood smoking a cigar and nodding occasionally at the door of the room where Luns was speaking.

Former President Charles de Gaulle of France twice vetoed Britain's efforts to join the organization.

It is expected that President Georges Pompidou will attend the summit meeting for France, as well as Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas. The other member countries, where the head of state holds more of a ceremonial position, probably will send their heads of government.

Foreign Minister Willy Brandt of West Germany told reporters, "We'll make an effort to let the applicants know the result of our meeting as soon as possible."

He added that the Common Market Executive commission, which favors the acceptance of the candidates, would attend the session that deals with the question. France had been reported trying to keep the commission out.
